GUY MORRISS

HEAD COACH

One of only two active I-A coaches to have played in a Super Bowl, Lone Star state product Guy Morriss continues the makeover of the Bears' football program. Morriss' second season in Waco, which was played with the nation's second-youngest team, produced...

- A memorable upset victory over 16th-ranked Texas A&M (which snapped a 18-game winless streak to the Bears' longtime Brazos River rivals);
- The fourth national award winner in school history in Daniel Sepulveda, who captured the 2004 Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter;
- Baylor's first All-American since 1995 in Sepulveda;
- A school-best five coaches team All-Big 12 honorees, including first-team selections Willie Andrews and Sepulveda. In two seasons under Morriss, nine Bears have earned all-conference honors from the league's coaches, one shy of Baylor's total in the four seasons prior to his arrival combined.
- Baylor's first NFL Draft selection since 2001 and its highest pick since 1999 in Khari Long, a sixth-round choice of the Kansas City Chiefs.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Working press and photographer credentials for Baylor's home games against Samford, Nebraska, Texas Tech, Texas and Oklahoma State will be handled by Baylor Associate AD for Communications Nick Joos.

All requests should be made in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made within seven days of the game may not be considered.

All credential requests should be sent to: Nick Joos, Associate AD/Communications, Baylor Athletic Department, 150 Bear Run, Waco, TX 76711. ... FAX (254) 710-1369.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Relations Office located at Floyd Casey Stadium, or at press will call in the elevator lobby of Floyd Casey Stadium.

Media parking at Floyd Casey Stadium is available on a limited basis on the west side of the stadium. Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to the Media Relations Office.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF PRESS CREDENTIALS

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working press is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON

Head coach Guy Morriss, defensive coordinator Bill Bradley, offensive coordinator Brent Pease and selected Baylor football players meet with the media each Tuesday preceding a game in the Galloway Suite in the end zone of Floyd Casey Stadium. Lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., followed by interviews.

Requests for specific interviews with players or assistant coaches should be made to the Media Relations Office by 4 p.m., Sunday preceding the press luncheon.

ADDITIONAL INTERVIEWS

In addition to the Tuesday media luncheon, Baylor players and coaches will be available for in-person or phone interviews following practice Tuesday through Thursday. Interview requests should be directed to Nick Joos.

Player interviews must be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations Office at least one day in advance. If a telephone interview is desired, the player will be provided with the number and will telephone the interviewer at a time that does not interfere with the student-athlete's academic schedule.

BIG 12 COACHES TELECONFERENCE

Big 12 Conference coaches will be featured on a weekly teleconference each Monday at 10:00 a.m.-Noon (CT) beginning Aug. 29 and concluding Dec. 5.

Media representatives wishing to participate in the teleconference should consult the Big 12's weekly release or contact the Big 12 Media Relations Department for further details.

Each coach will be on the teleconference for 10 minutes, according to the following schedule:

10:00 a.m.	MARK MANGINO, Kansas
10:10 a.m.	BOB STOOPS, Oklahoma
10:20 a.m.	MIKE GUNDY, Oklahoma State
10:30 a.m.	BILL SNYDER, Kansas State
10:40 a.m.	GARY PINKEL, Missouri
10:50 a.m.	MIKE LEACH, Texas Tech
11:00 a.m.	GUY MORRISS, Baylor
11:10 a.m.	DAN McCARNEY, Iowa State
11:20 a.m.	MACK BROWN, Texas
11:30 a.m.	DENNIS FRANCHIONE, Texas A&M
11:40 a.m.	GARY BARNETT, Colorado
11:50 a.m.	BILL CALLAHAN, Nebraska
Noon	Selected student-athletes

For those needing to hear a replay of the briefing, it will be available after 4 p.m. CT.

DAVE CAMPBELL MEDIA CENTER

The Dave Campbell Media Center, located on the fifth level of the Floyd Casey Stadium skybox, opens three hours prior to game time. The working press box and TV booth are located in the center of the fifth floor, while the radio and coaches booths are at the far ends.

Press meals will be served from two hours before game time until kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game notes, programs, media guides and statistics will be provided to all media members prior to the game. Play-by-play and quick statistics (at the end of each quarter), final team and individual statistics, defensive statistics, drive charts and coaches' quotes also will be provided. Complete sets of all information will be available approximately 20 minutes after the game.

Several "0-plus" telephone lines are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the working area. On game day, Baylor communications representatives will be on hand to handle any last-minute problems.

Baylor will provide a FAX machine for complimentary use on a first-come, first-served basis. Should you need assistance in sending, please contact a media relations staff member.

BAYLOR ON THE WEB

Stats and news releases on Baylor football and all 18 Baylor athletic programs are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at www.BaylorBears.com, the official website of Baylor Athletics and a member of the Official College Sports Network.

BAYLORBEARS.COM

SIDELINES

Baylor follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must have credentials visible at all times.

In an effort to insure the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media pass who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the sideline. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Baylor coach Guy Morriss and requested players will be available in the team meeting room approximately 10 minutes following the game. Baylor's locker room will remain closed following games.

Baylor University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

The SID of the visiting school will establish admittance policies to the visiting locker room.

WEBSITES

Fan-based websites, containing at least one or more of the following: chat rooms, message boards, recruiting information, scouting reports and links to news sites, as well as other fan-based features, shall not be issued credentials. Local and national organizations which maintain a news-based website in connection with its regular newspaper or magazine, as well as radio or television broadcast, shall be issued credentials on a game-by-game basis. Live, real-time updates of Baylor home games are the property of Baylor University and unauthorized transmission of such will not be permitted.

BAYLOR-ISP NETWORK

Baylor University and ISP Sports entered into a seven-year agreement during the spring of 2005 that will provide the company, recognized as the national leader in collegiate sports marketing, with exclusive multi-media rights for the school's highly successful intercollegiate athletics program.

With the partnership, the university is guaranteed an annual rights fee and will share in additional revenues as well. In consideration, ISP Sports receives the rights to all sales and marketing opportunities associated with Baylor sports, including a radio network for all sports, print advertising in various athletic department publications and all signage in university athletic facilities.

"We are very excited about partnering with ISP Sports," Baylor athletic Director Ian McCaw said. "The company has an exemplary track record of success and affords Baylor athletics an opportunity to enhance revenue, strengthen the Baylor Radio Network and expand our corporate partner relationships."

Baylor is the 25th major NCAA athletic program to align itself with ISP Sports, which is based in Winston-Salem, N.C., and joins other prominent NCAA Division I-A institutions such as Auburn, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, UCLA, Vanderbilt and Wake Forest as ISP clients.

"We are delighted to be associated with a university of such high academic and athletic quality," ISP Sports president and CEO Ben Sutton said. "We look forward to working with Ian and his leadership team, and hope to be an integral part of Baylor athletics for years to come."

Shawn Becket is in his first year at Baylor and serves as General Manager of the Baylor project as well as an ISP Assistant Vice President. He came to Waco from Auburn where he worked with the Auburn Network, also an ISP property, for six years. He is a 1996 graduate of The Ohio University and obtained a Master of Higher Education degree from Auburn University in 1998. Becket recently married the former Kristin Walsten of Manhattan, Kan.

Kris Kassel (Indiana, 1998) is the Associate General Manager of Baylor-ISP Sports having joined the staff from the University of Evansville, where he served as the Aces' Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs. He also has previous experience on the staffs for Crimson Tide Sports Marketing and Tiger Sports Properties. Doug McNamee (Baylor, 2003) serves as a marketing assistant and the "Voice of the Bears," John Morris (Baylor 1980), also is a member of the Baylor-ISP team.

Morris enters his 19th year broadcasting Baylor football and men's basketball. The Kentucky native also produces the daily "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat," daily Big 12 reports, and co-hosts the award-winning "Inside Baylor Sports" television show. He also serves as moderator for "Guy Talk," with head football coach Guy Morriss, during the season and the "State Farm Baylor Hour" January through May. This is Morris' 11th year as the signature voice of Baylor athletics since succeeding the legendary Frank Fallon. In November 2002, John was presented the Frank Fallon Sportsmanship Award by the Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce.

Three-time Academic All-American J.J. Joe returns for his second season on the broadcast crew as color analyst. The Bears' leading passer for four consecutive seasons from 1990-1993, Joe graduated as Baylor's career passing and total offense leader and is one of the school's most decorated student-athletes as a three-time Academic All-American. He currently works as a Vice President-Commercial Banking for Bank of Texas in Dallas and resides in Hurst, Texas.

Ricky Thompson returns for his sixth season providing sideline color and analysis. Thompson is a former SWC long jump champion and the Bears' leading receiver in 1975 before embarking on a seven-year NFL career. Thompson is a member of the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame and is currently Executive Vice President and Director of the First National Bank of Central Texas.

ISP
America's Home for College Sports

Baylor's radio team also includes the multi-talented Craig Harper, who, in his 19th year as a member of the crew, serves as Executive Producer of the football broadcasts. Harper is the award-winning Director of Engineering for the Belo Corporation in Dallas and lives in Frisco, Texas. Bobby Reynolds returns as broadcast engineer. Reynolds has extensive experience engineering for the Host Communications/NCAA Radio Network.

For additional information on the multi-media rights held by the Baylor-ISP Network or for corporate partnership/advertising opportunities, call 254.710.3076 or visit the web at www.BaylorBears.com. Every play of Baylor Football 2005 plus "Guy Talk" and the "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat" are available worldwide on the internet at the official web site of Baylor Athletics, www.BaylorBears.com.

INSIDE BAYLOR SPORTS

"Inside Baylor Sports," the award winning weekly TV show that covers all aspects of Baylor athletics, returns for its seventh season during the 2005-2006 academic year.

Senior Producer Michael Butler provides viewers an inside look at Baylor athletics with thorough highlights, in-depth interviews, and imaginative features on all 18 sports presented in a fast-paced, entertaining style. Co-hosts John Morris and Lori Scott Fogleman guide viewers through the best coverage of Baylor athletics on television.

"Inside Baylor Sports" airs Sundays, Sept. 4, 2005 through June 4, 2006, at 10:30 p.m. CT on KCEN-TV in Central Texas. The program also airs weekly throughout the region on Fox Sports Southwest at 1 p.m. each Wednesday beginning Sept. 7 and is archived on the web at www.BaylorTV.com. "Inside Baylor Sports" also may been seen on Oklahoma's statewide KSBI network of stations and nationally on College Sports Television.

KYLE WOODS TRUST

Family has long been a part of Baylor University, especially in athletics. This has never been more evident than with Kyle Woods.

During a preseason practice at Floyd Casey Stadium in 1979, Woods sustained a neck injury that left him as a quadriplegic. It was a turn of luck that would have left many bitter, but not Woods, who from day one remained in high spirits.

"I've known a lot of courageous and tough people in my life," said Grant Teaff, Woods' coach at Baylor. "But I've never known anybody that surpassed Kyle Woods for his positive attitude, his determination, his faith and his will to make something of his life, which had been devastated physically."

The Baylor family did not forget Woods. In the fall of 2003, a team of former players and coaches kicked off a fund-raising project designed to raise funds to build a new house for Woods.

A committee led by Teaff, Baylor professor L.M. Dyson and former teammates Radar Holt and Scott Smith attempts to raise $250,000 for the project. The house will be built in South Dallas, complete with all amenities to service Woods, who has been confined to a wheelchair since the injury.

It may appear that the committee is doing a favor for Woods, but Holt points out that it is Woods who has done the favor, inspiring teammates and many others with his positive attitude and spirit.

"There's not a day that goes by that I don't think about what happened to Kyle and the situation that he's in," Holt said at a press conference prior to Baylor's 2003 game against Texas.

"What happened to him could happen to any one of us. And if I was in his situation, I know I would not have the strength to go on like this young man. He has no idea how much I love him and respect him for who he is and what all he's done for us."

President Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr. presented the committee with a check for $60,000 on behalf of the university.

"We want this home to be a start of good things the Lord has for you in the future," Sloan said.

Woods has found ways to use his disablement as a positive force in his life. He serves as a counselor for physically handicapped students at Mountainview College in Dallas, helping to instill in others the same positive energy that has driven him for the past two-plus decades.

"Kyle has been an inspiration to all of us who have known him," said former Baylor running back Walter Abercrombie. "He never let that bother him. He took his injury as part of the deal of playing football."

Three former teammates, Robin Jones, Neal Jeffrey and Le'Shai Matson, presented a check in the amount of $10,000 on behalf of Friends of Baylor University. Another former teammate, NFL Hall of Famer Mike Singletary, has committed $5,000, and Teaff said other former players have committed another $20,000.

"The importance of this project cannot be measured," Teaff said. "To literally change someone's living environment is immeasurable."

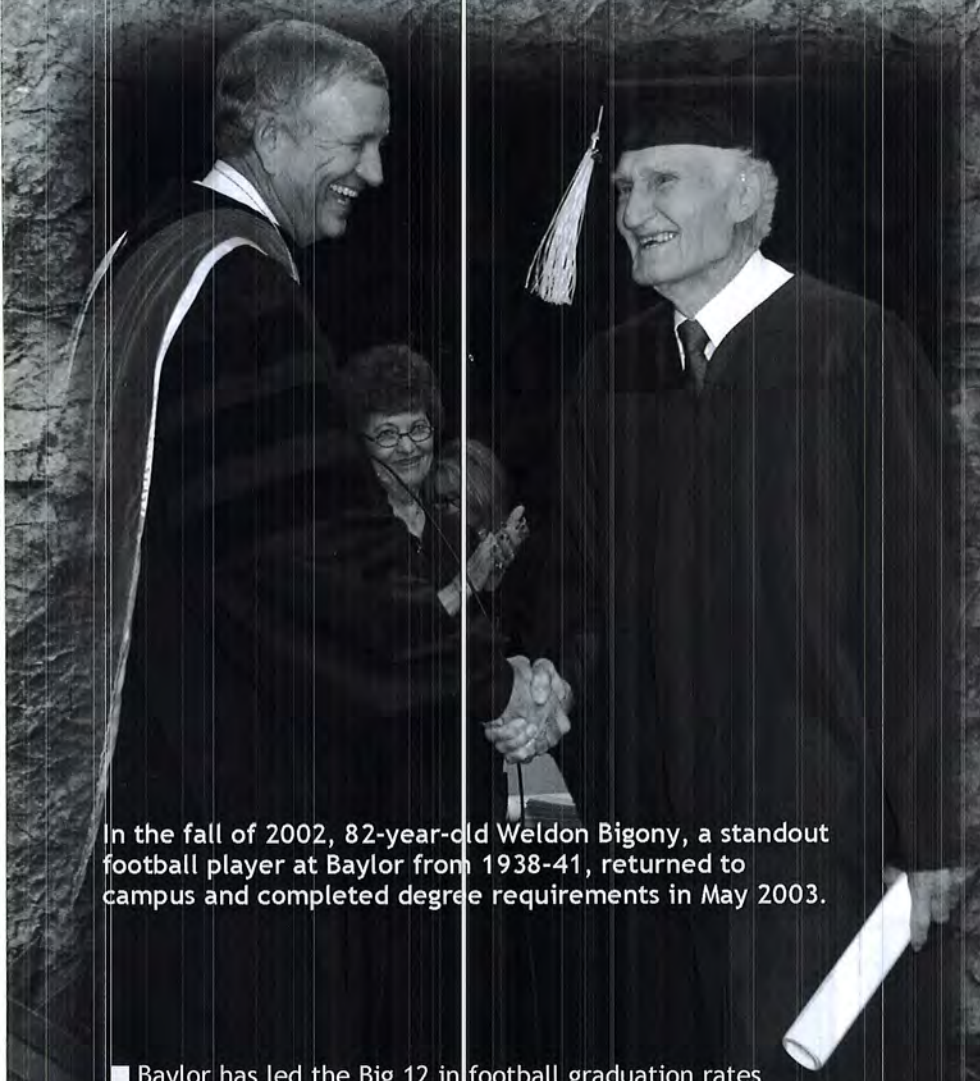
THIS IS BAYLOR

ACADEMICS



In the fall of 2002, 82-year-old Weldon Bigony, a standout football player at Baylor from 1938-41, returned to campus and completed degree requirements in May 2003.

■ Baylor has led the Big 12 in football graduation rates five times in the league's nine-year history, producing the conference's highest mark in 2004, 2003, 2002, 2000 and 1998.

■ Since the NCAA began tracking graduation rates in 1991, the Baylor football program has averaged a graduation rate of nearly 66.1 percent. Over the last seven years, more than 75 percent of the Bears' football players have left with degree in hand.

■ During the 2002-03 school year, Baylor graduated a record 104 student-athletes at its three commencement ceremonies.

■ Since the Big 12's beginning, Baylor has led the league in student-athlete graduation rates five times, finished second three times and fourth once.

■ Baylor had 52 student-athletes earn academic All-Big 12 accolades in 2004-05, with 41 of those students receiving first-team recognition.

ACADEMICS

The Department of Student-Athlete Services is responsible for the academic welfare of Baylor's student-athletes. The department monitors each student-athlete's academic progress, class attendance, class scheduling as well as NCAA and Big 12 rules regarding academic eligibility. In addition, Student-Athlete Services is responsible for study hall attendance and providing each student-athlete with tutoring, academic counseling and mentoring.

A total of 71 hours each week at the Sid Richardson Hall are dedicated specifically to Baylor student-athletes. The Learning Center is used to assist with studying, tutorials and assignments to be completed in the computer lab.

- Baylor placed 80 football players on the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll during the 2004-2005 school year.
- Baylor football placed nine players on the 2004 Academic All-Big 12 team.
- In 2004, Baylor led the Big 12 with an 88% football graduation rate, well above the NCAA I-A average of 55%.
- Baylor's 78% graduation rate for all student-athletes ranked 10th among all Division I-A institutions.

EXPERIENCED COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH

One of only two active Division I-A coaches to have played in a Super Bowl, his program has seen nine Bears earn All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches, one shy of Baylor's total for the 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002 seasons combined.

Harold Jackson
WIDE RECEIVERS

Five-time All-Pro receiver still ranked among the NFL's top 20 in career receiving yards (10,372) and touchdown receptions (76).

Brent Pease
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS

An outstanding offensive mind, his Baylor signal callers have set school single-season records for completion percentage in each of the past two seasons.

Tom Adams
DEFENSIVE LINE

In 2004, Adams' defensive line produced an NFL Draft selection in end Khari Long, a sixth-round selection by the Kansas City Chiefs, and an All-Big 12 performer in end Montez Murphy, who earned honorable mention honors from Associated Press.

Gerald Carr
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / RUNNING BACKS

His first season at Baylor saw running back Rashad Armstrong earn All-Big 12 honors and become the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 and just the sixth all-time. He coached 2001 Big Ten Player of the Year Antwaan Randle El and the 2002 SEC rushing champion in Artose Pinner.

The 2005 Baylor football coaching staff, which remains intact for the second straight season, boasts a combined 196 years of sideline experience.

Mark Nelson
Special Teams Coordinator / Linebackers

His special teams units, arguably the strength of both the 2003 and 2004 Bears, have produced six scores in the kicking game the past two seasons. In 2004, punter Daniel Sepulveda earned the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter and return specialist Willie Andrews was a consensus first-team All-Big 12 performer after leading the league with his 24.7 kickoff return average.

Wesley McGriff
Cornerbacks / Recruiting Coordinator

The play of his cornerbacks was a key reason for Baylor's improved pass defense, which jumped to No. 62 in the final 2004 NCAA statistical rankings after a 101st-place finish the previous season.

Larry Hoefer
Safeties

Abilene native has produced All-Big 12 honorees in each of his first two seasons directing the Bears' safeties.

Bill Bradley
Defensive Coordinator

Three-time All-Pro free safety and Lone Star native was the first player in NFL history to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons. His first season in Waco saw Baylor's defense allow an average of nearly 30 yards per game fewer than it did in 2003 and the Bears' pass defense improved from 101st nationally in 2003 to 62nd in 2004.

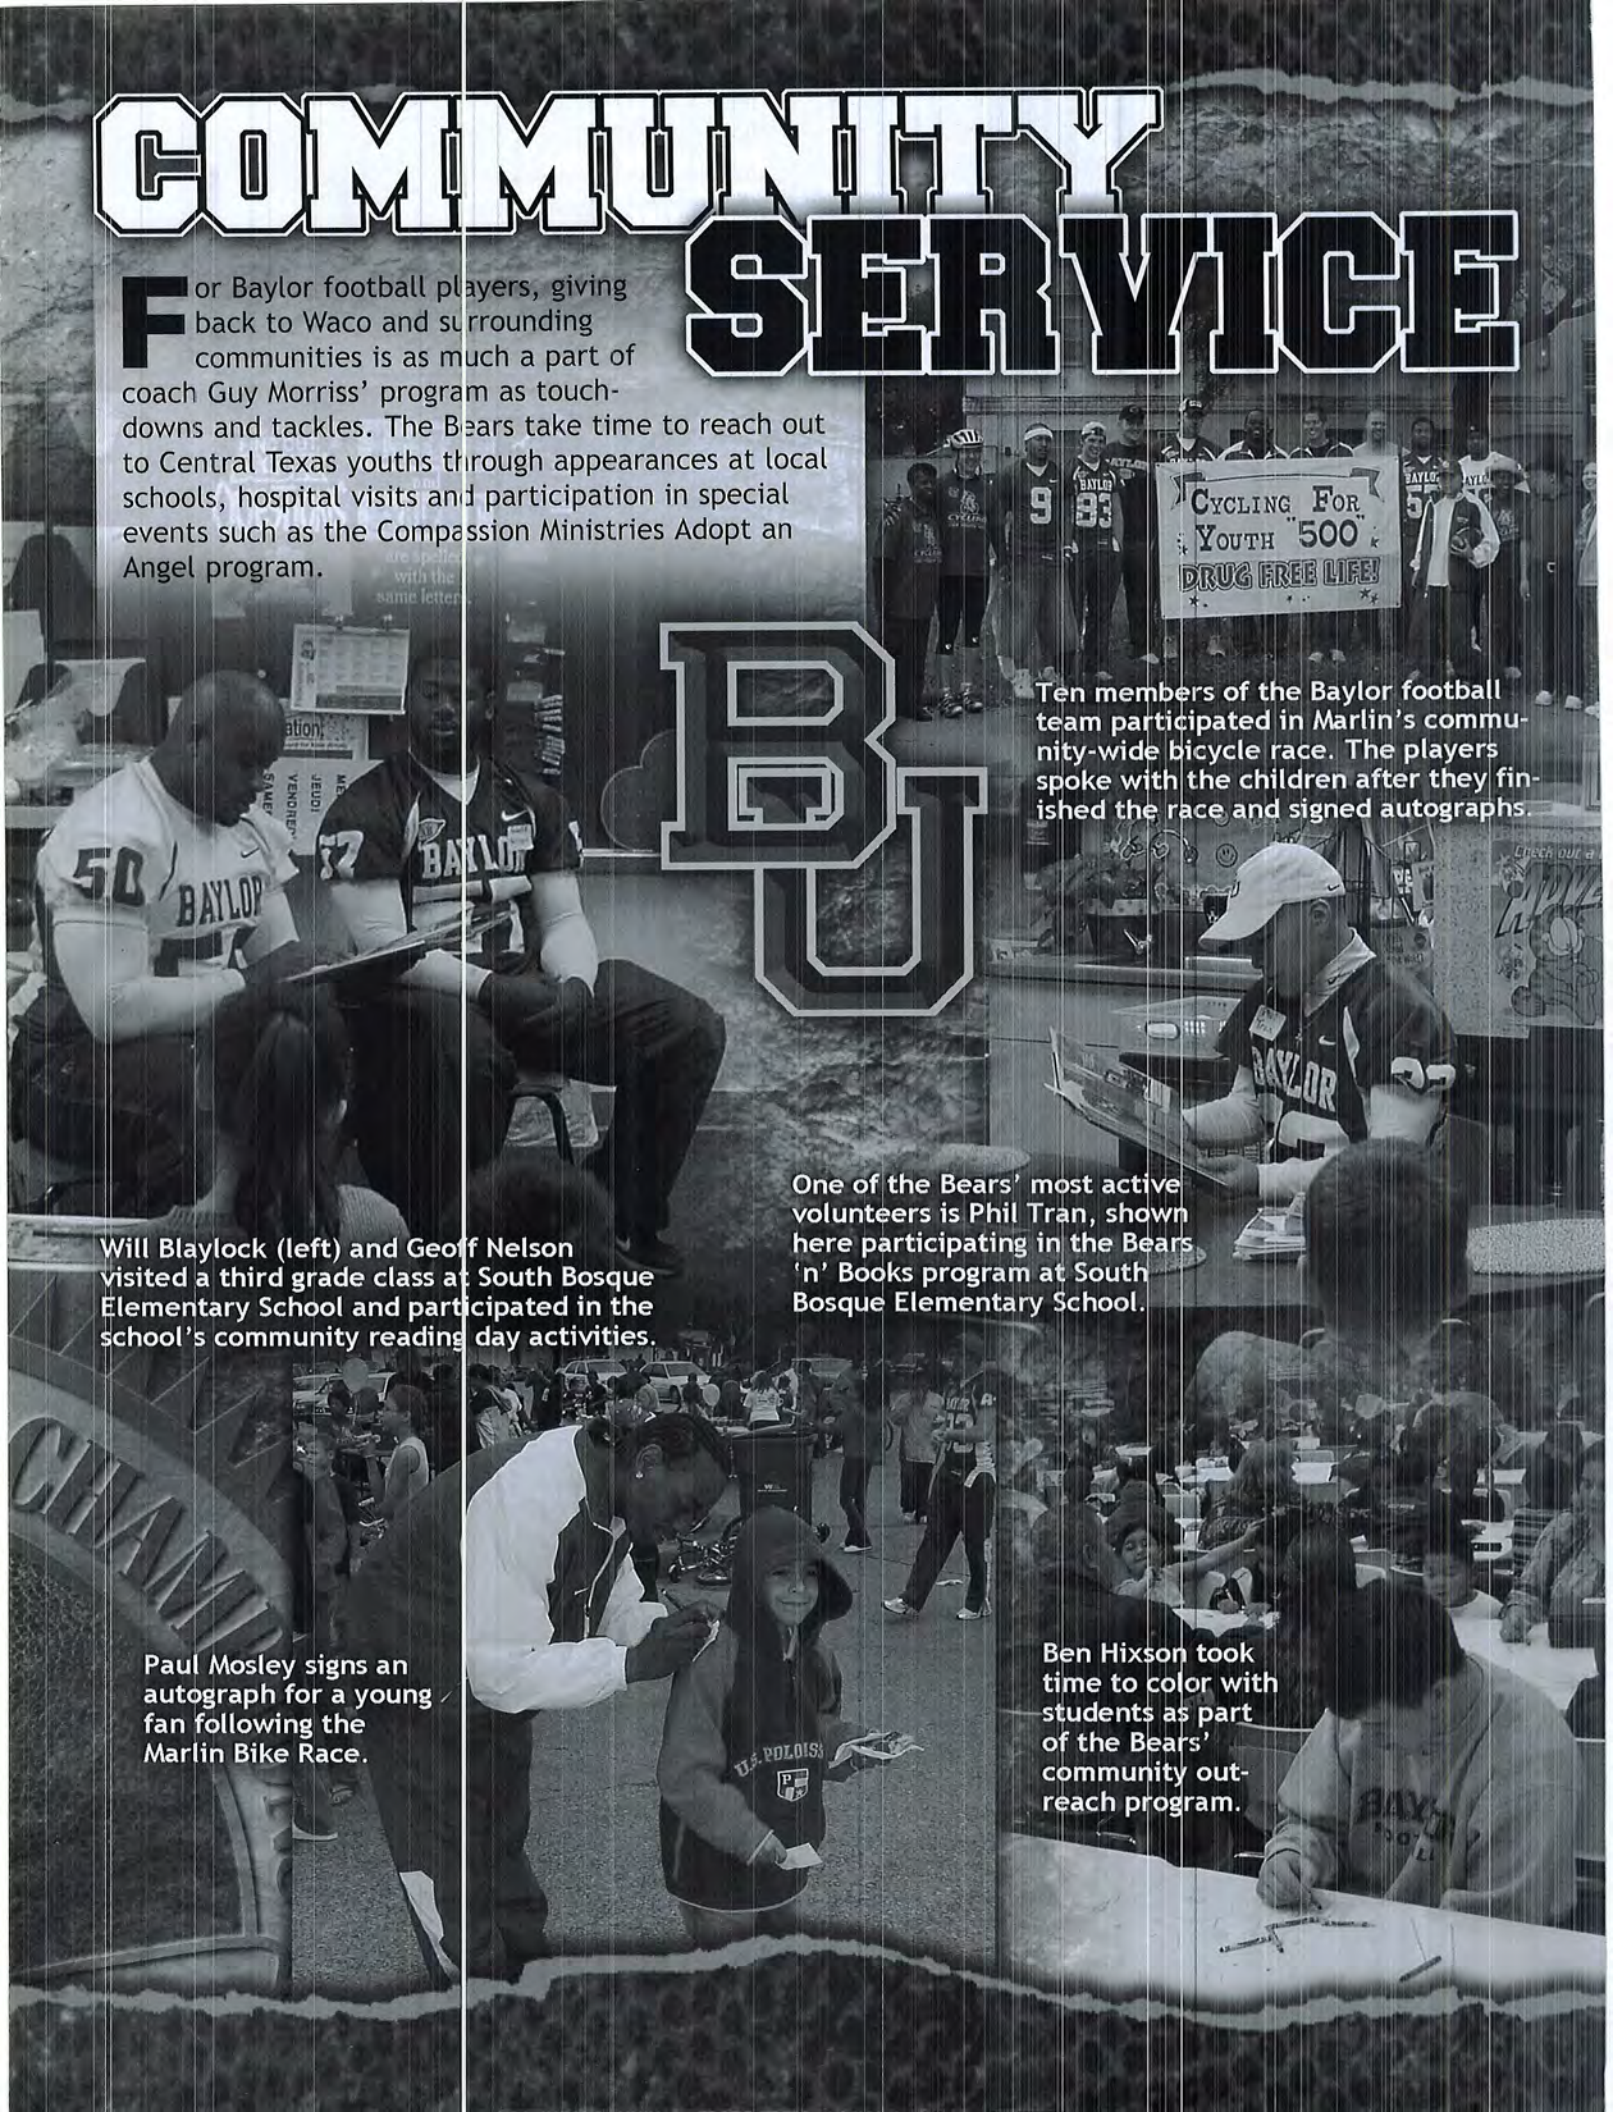
Chris Lancaster
Offensive Line

Versatile line coach was a three-year starter on bowl teams at Clemson and is in his third tour of duty at Baylor.

Not only is the Baylor staff steeped in sideline experience, but it features three men, Guy Morriss (one), Harold Jackson (five) and Bill Bradley (three) who have combined to earn nine NFL All-Pro awards between them. Two others, Mark Nelson and Brent Pease, also enjoyed successful professional football playing careers.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

For Baylor football players, giving back to Waco and surrounding communities is as much a part of coach Guy Morriss' program as touchdowns and tackles. The Bears take time to reach out to Central Texas youths through appearances at local schools, hospital visits and participation in special events such as the Compassion Ministries Adopt an Angel program.



Ten members of the Baylor football team participated in Marlin's community-wide bicycle race. The players spoke with the children after they finished the race and signed autographs.

Will Blaylock (left) and Geoff Nelson visited a third grade class at South Bosque Elementary School and participated in the school's community reading day activities.

One of the Bears' most active volunteers is Phil Tran, shown here participating in the Bears 'n' Books program at South Bosque Elementary School.

The Bears have been active in the Santa's Workshop to benefit young people in the Waco community each of the past two years.

Shawn Bell takes time for a young fan during a local school appearance.

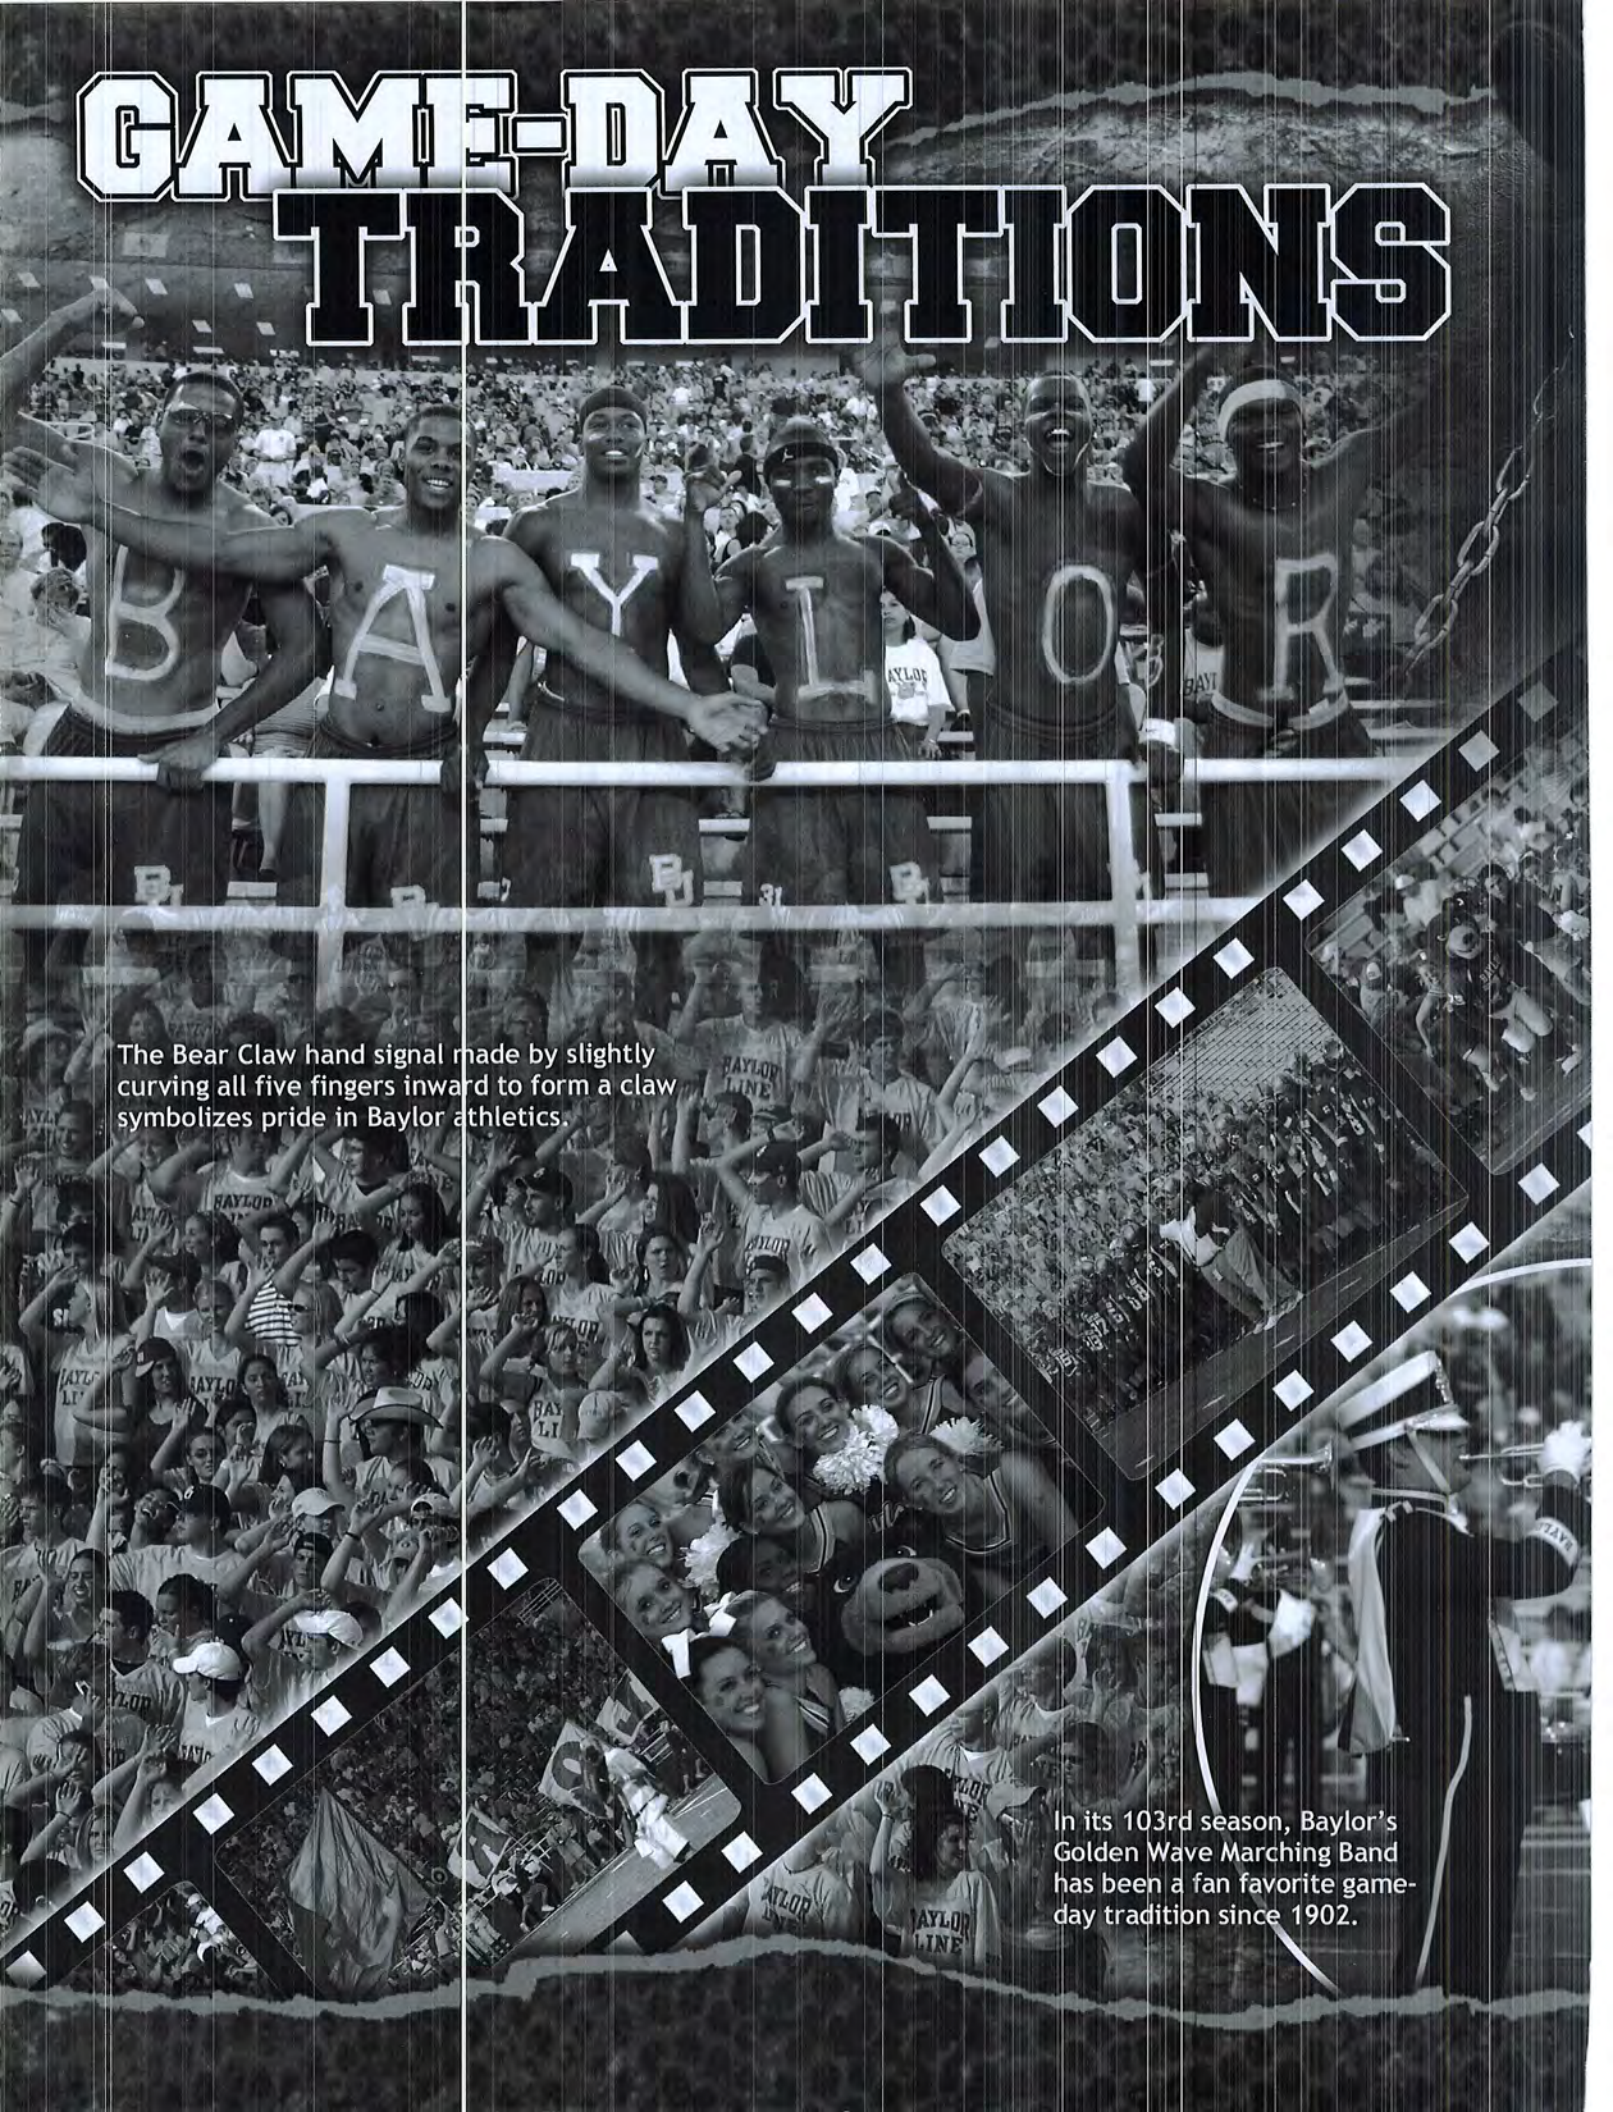
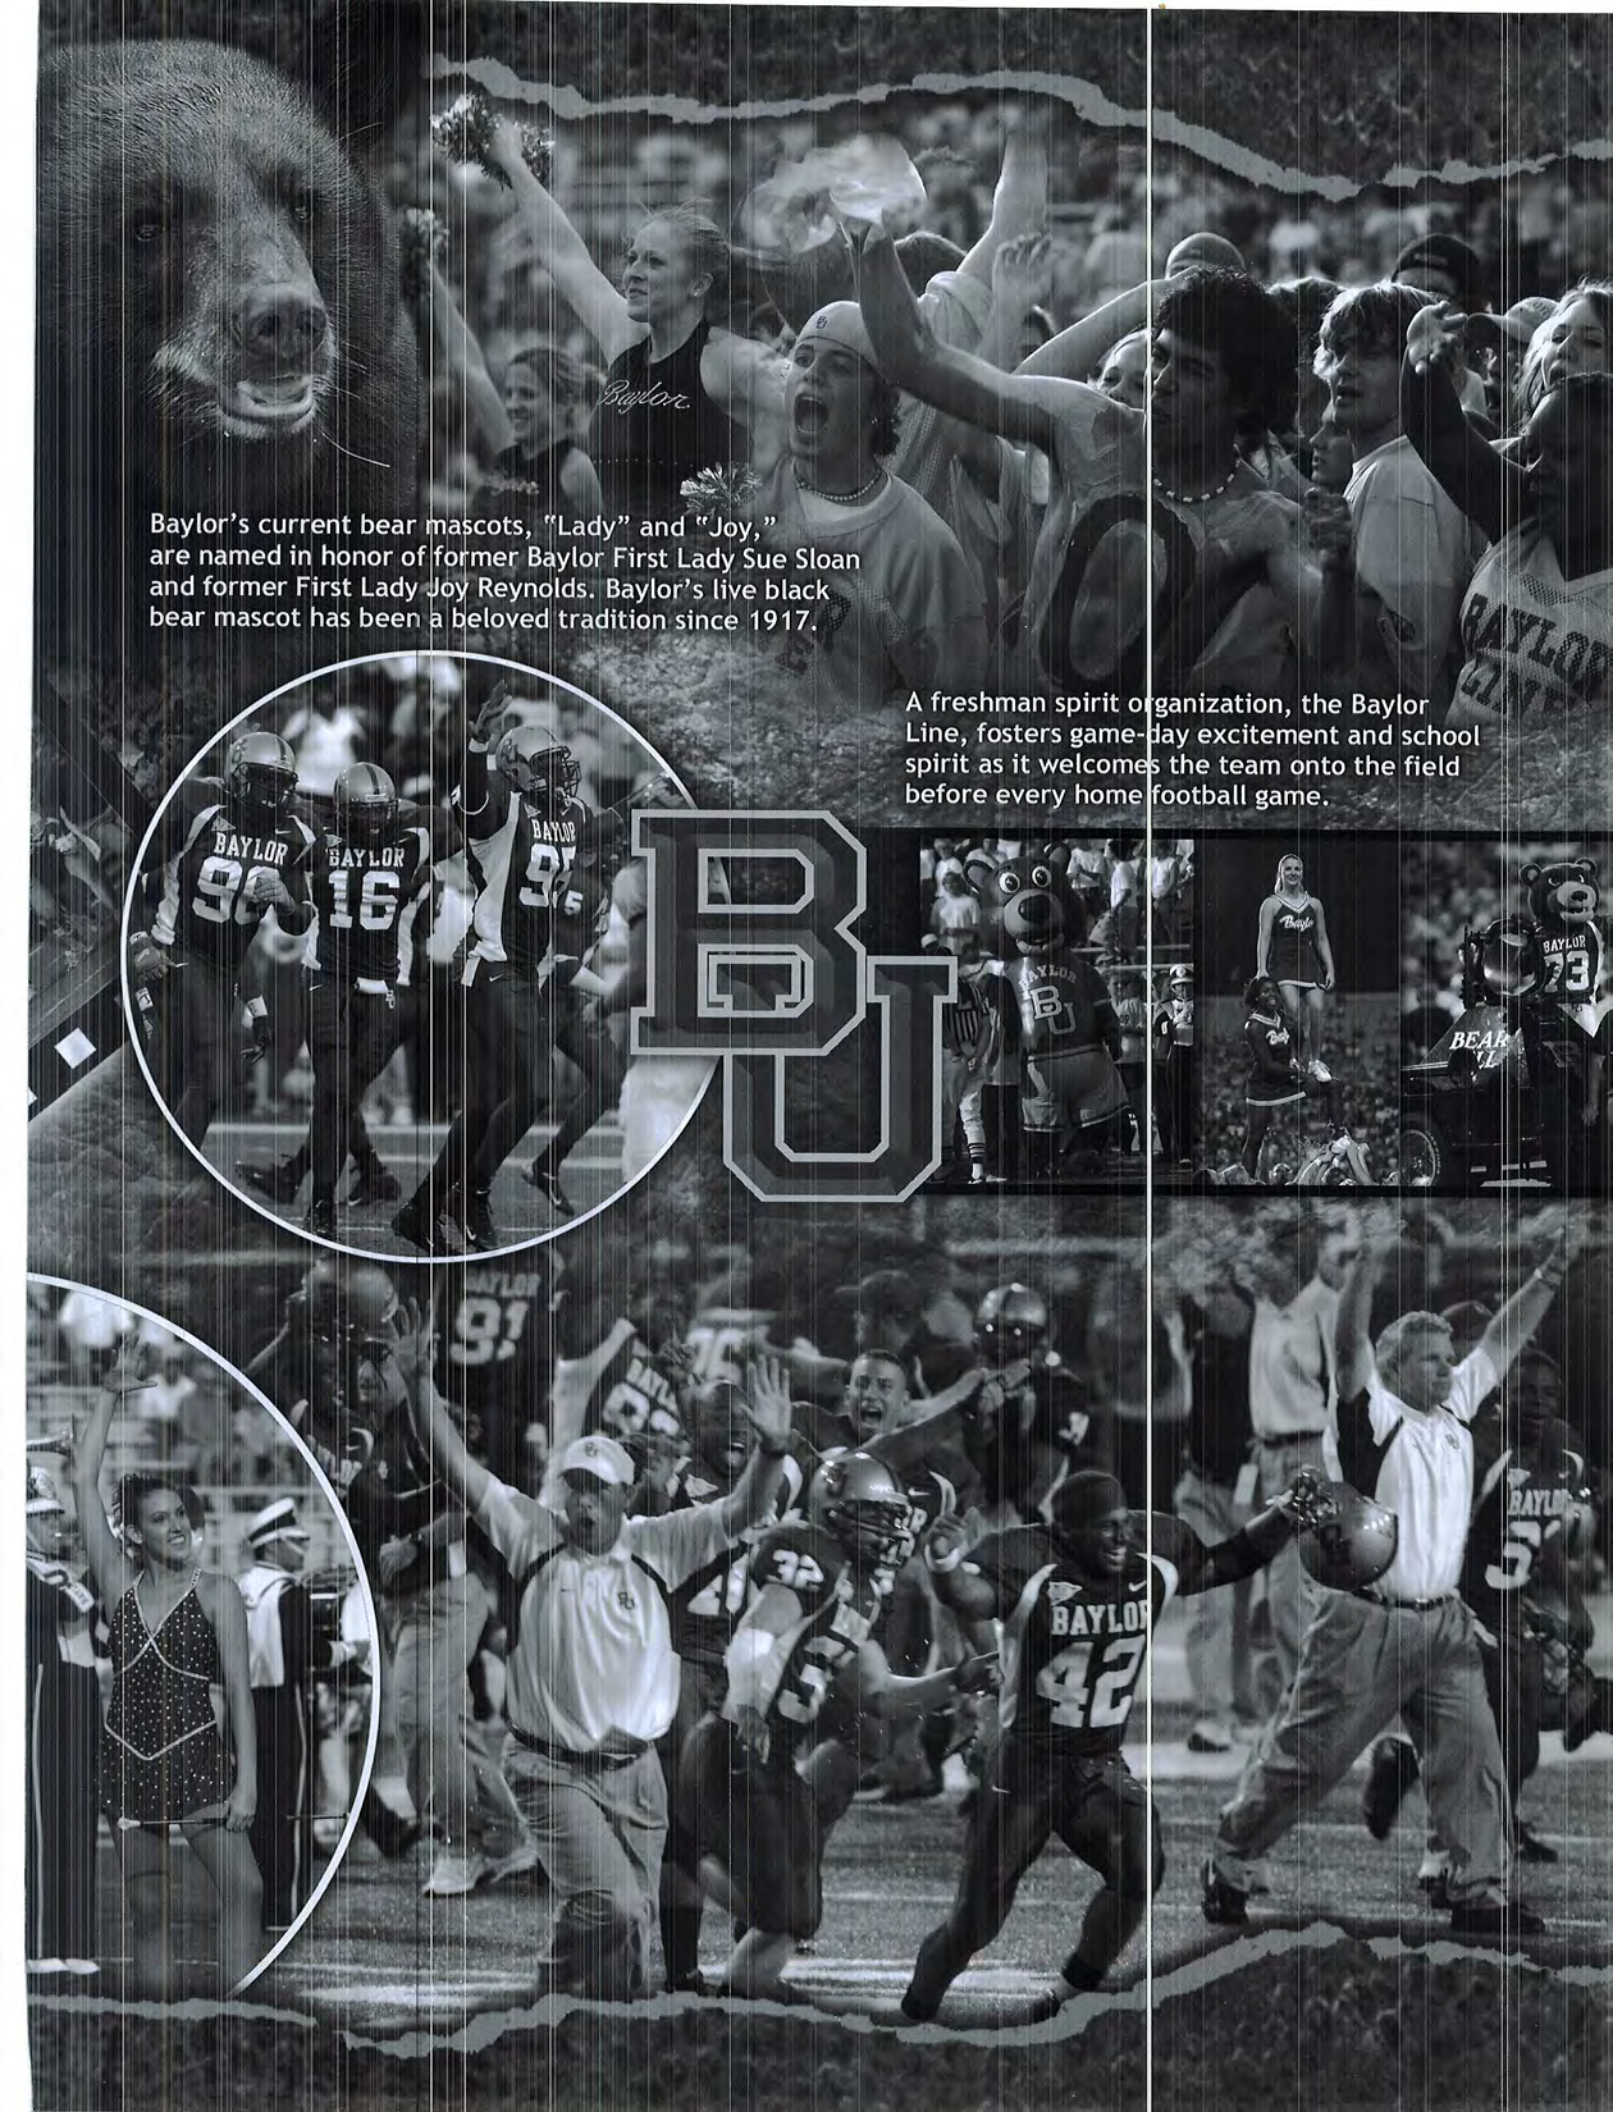
GAME-DAY TRADITIONS



The Bear Claw hand signal made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw symbolizes pride in Baylor athletics.

In its 103rd season, Baylor's Golden Wave Marching Band has been a fan favorite game-day tradition since 1902.



Baylor's current bear mascots, "Lady" and "Joy," are named in honor of former Baylor First Lady Sue Sloan and former First Lady Joy Reynolds. Baylor's live black bear mascot has been a beloved tradition since 1917.
A freshman spirit organization, the Baylor Line, fosters game-day excitement and school spirit as it welcomes the team onto the field before every home football game.

STATE-OF-THE-ART FACILITIES

■ Completed in 2001, the new 8,000 square foot locker room contains 130 pro-style wood lockers, two big-screen televisions, eight 36-inch televisions and three skylights to provide natural lighting.

■ To enhance the game-day experience at Floyd Casey Stadium, a state-of-the-art video board was installed at the stadium in 2002. BaylorVision video-replay boards are also installed at the Ferrell Center, Baylor Ballpark and Getterman Stadium.

■ The 2004 season marked the debut of the Prestige playing surface at Floyd Casey Stadium. The newest generation of artificial turf on the market is similar to rubber infill fields currently in use at several Big 12 and NFL stadiums. Baylor's Floyd Casey Stadium featured a grass playing surface from 1950 through 1971, then utilized various artificial surfaces from 1972 through 1997 before returning to natural grass in 1998.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The methodology employed in John Williams' strength and conditioning program is based on the future development of the athletes to ensure that they become the best possible players on the field. The program considers the physical attributes that directly impact the athlete's performance during competition.

It is the intention of the program to evaluate, improve and maximize each athlete's individual potential through strength, speed, power, agility, skill and flexibility training. In addition to these areas, the motivation and discipline needed to produce a positive work environment that reinforces good character traits in the student-athletes remains an integral part of the strength and conditioning program.

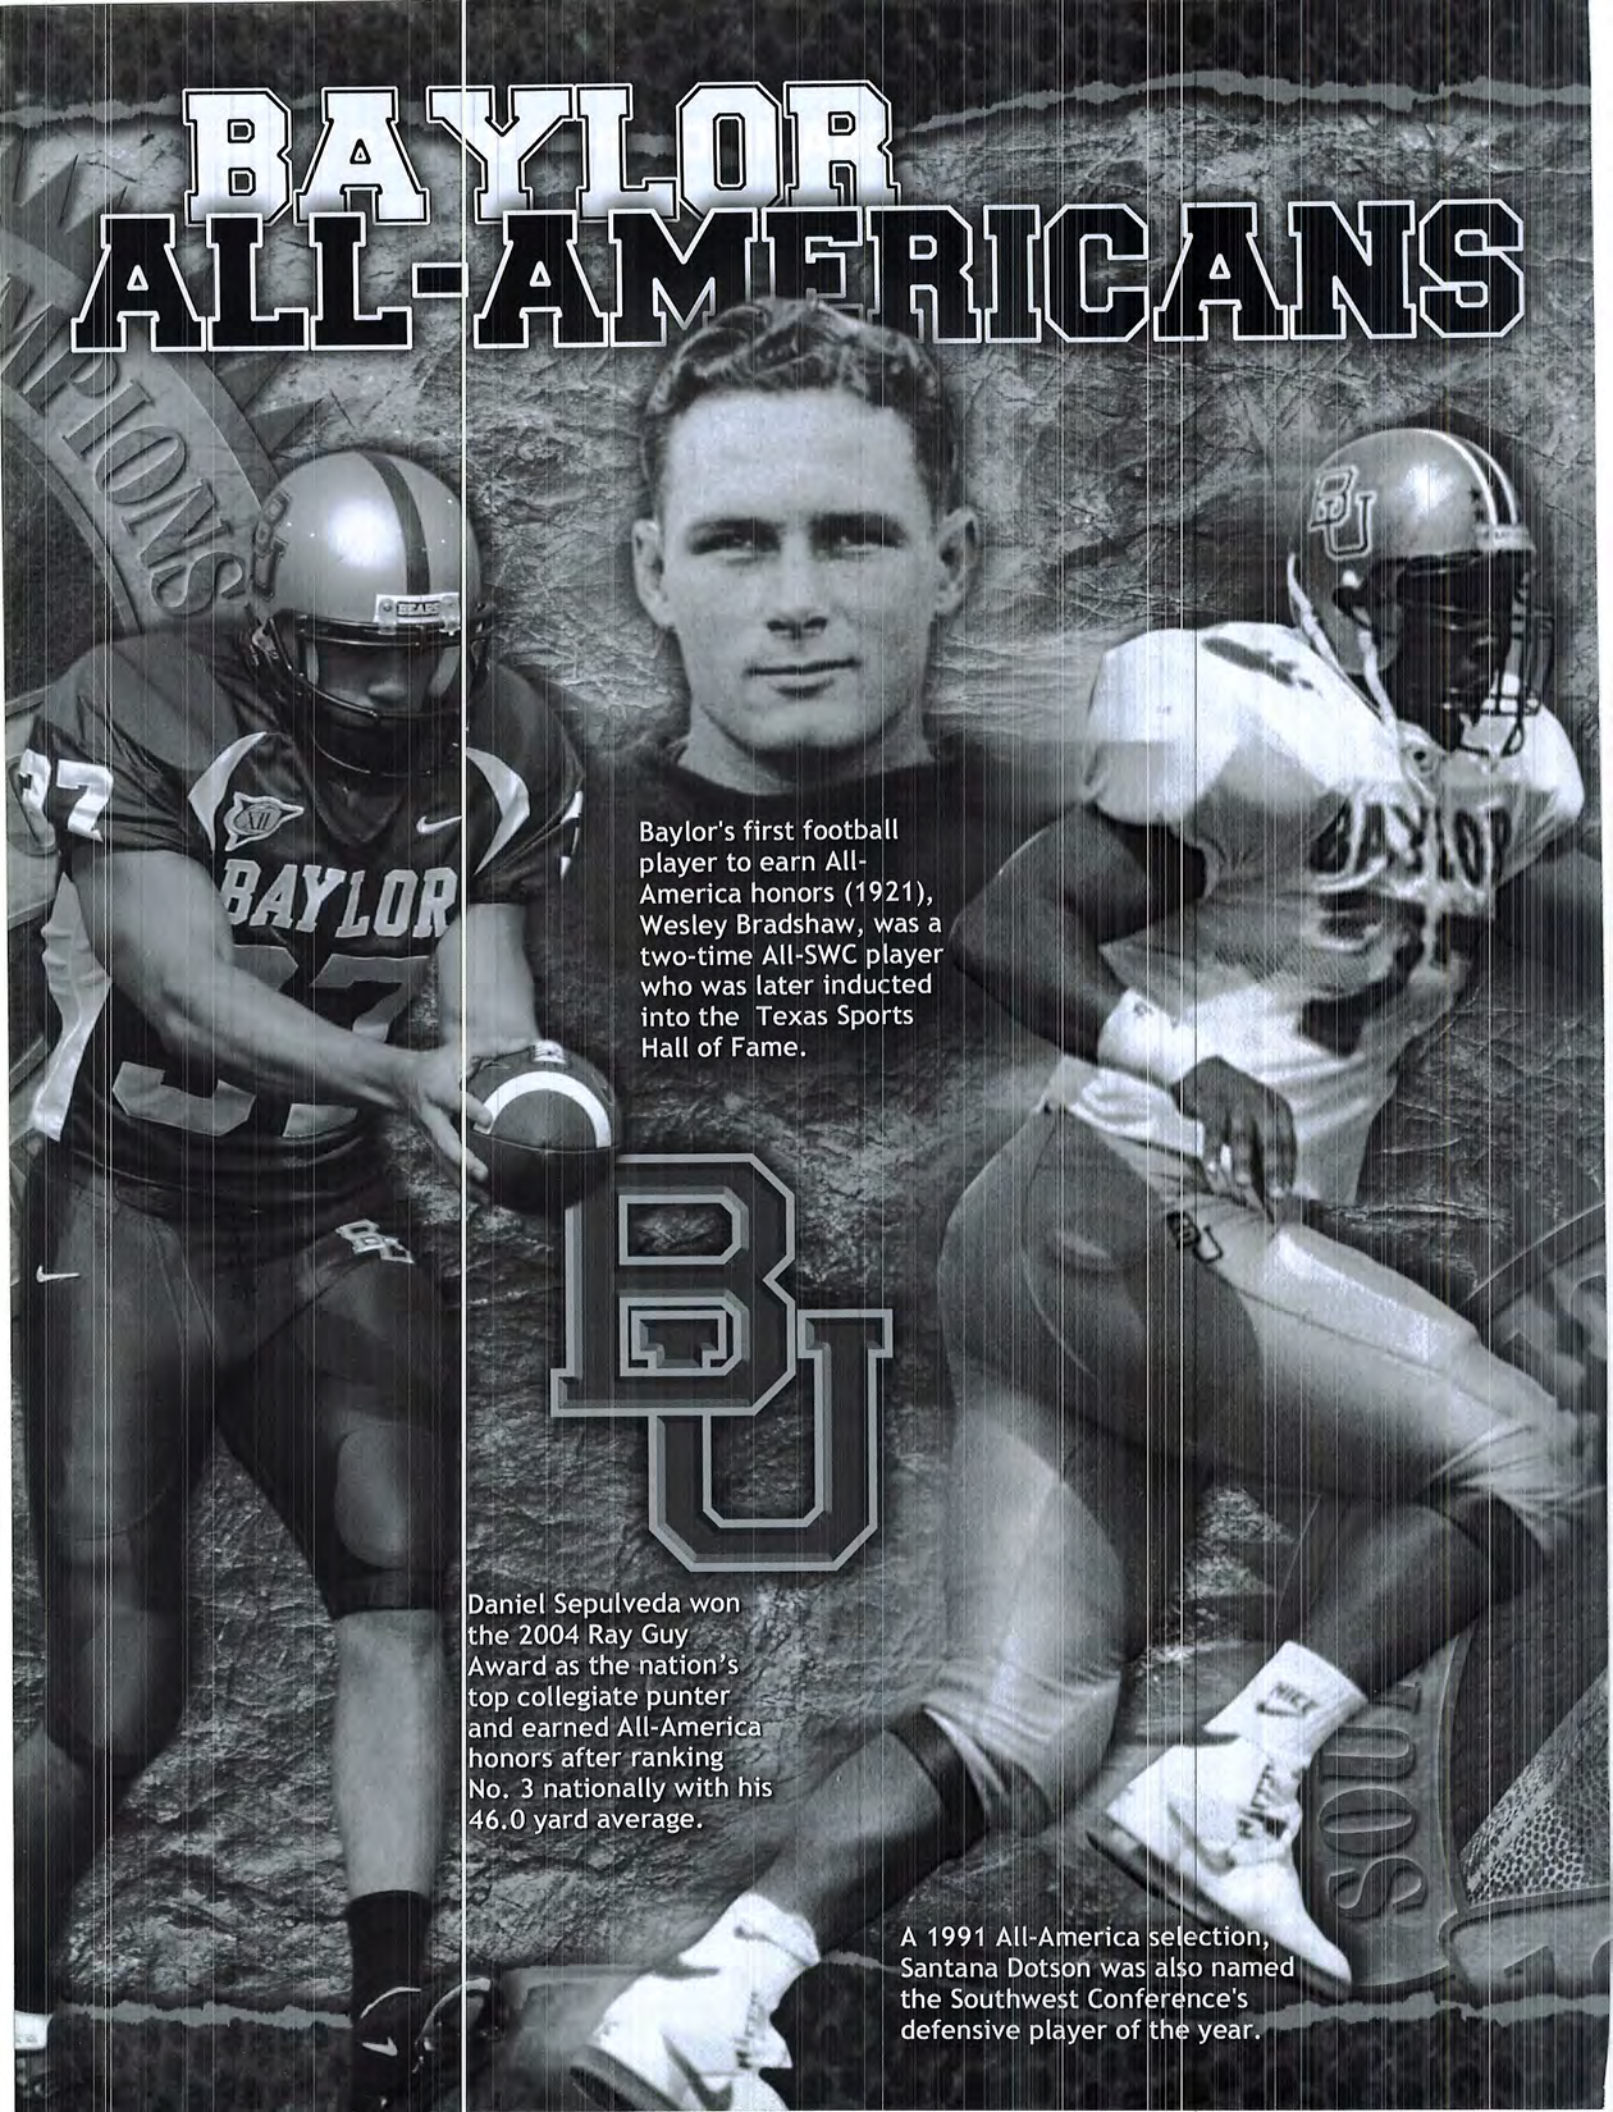
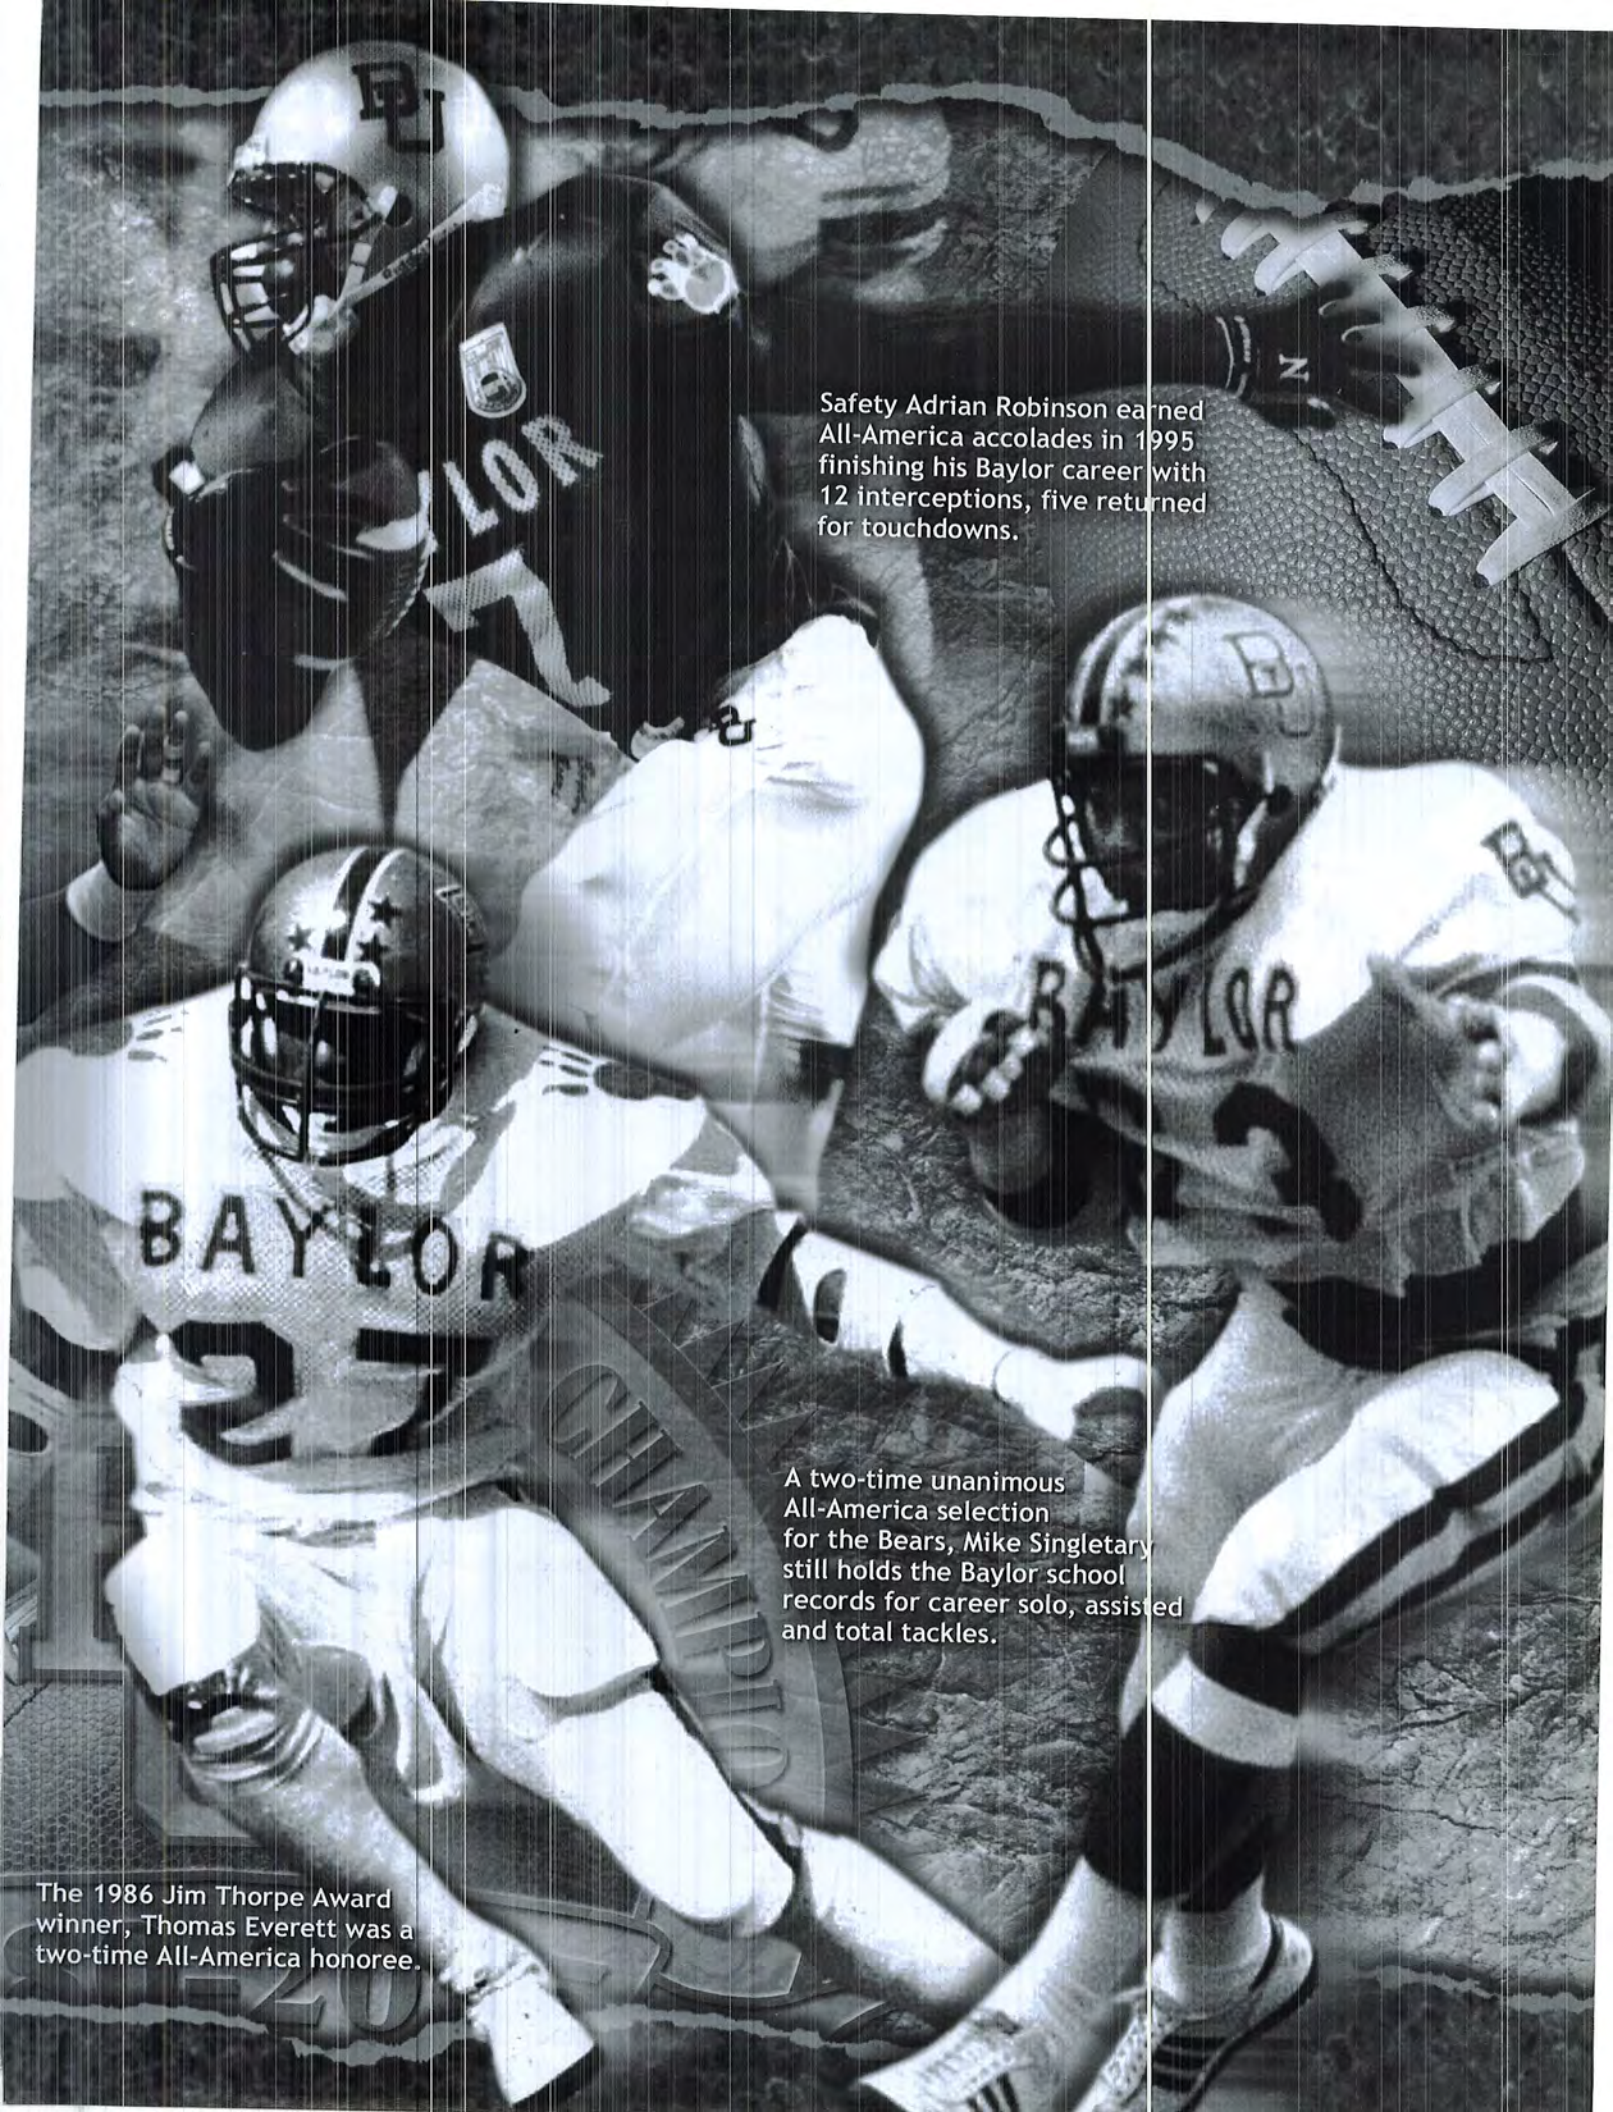
BAYLOR ALL-AMERICANS



Baylor's first football player to earn All-America honors (1921), Wesley Bradshaw, was a two-time All-SWC player who was later inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Daniel Sepulveda won the 2004 Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter and earned All-America honors after ranking No. 3 nationally with his 46.0 yard average.

A 1991 All-America selection, Santana Dotson was also named the Southwest Conference's defensive player of the year.



Safety Adrian Robinson earned All-America accolades in 1995 finishing his Baylor career with 12 interceptions, five returned for touchdowns.

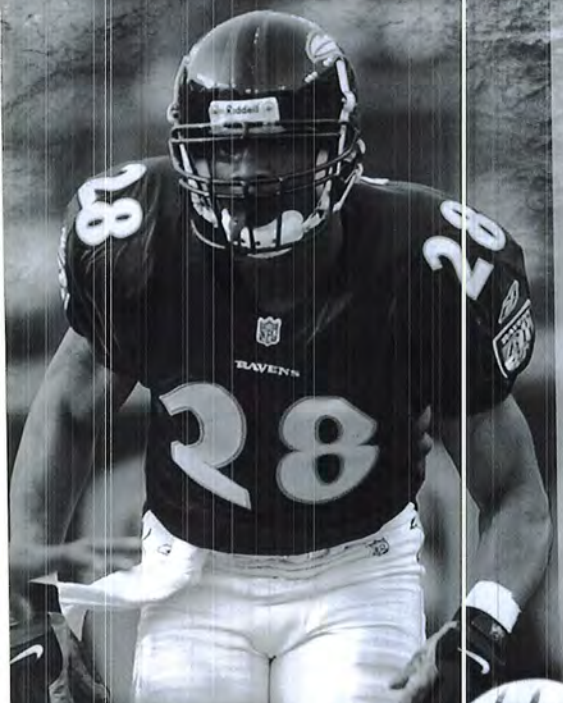
A two-time unanimous All-America selection for the Bears, Mike Singletary still holds the Baylor school records for career solo, assisted and total tackles.

The 1986 Jim Thorpe Award winner, Thomas Everett was a two-time All-America honoree.

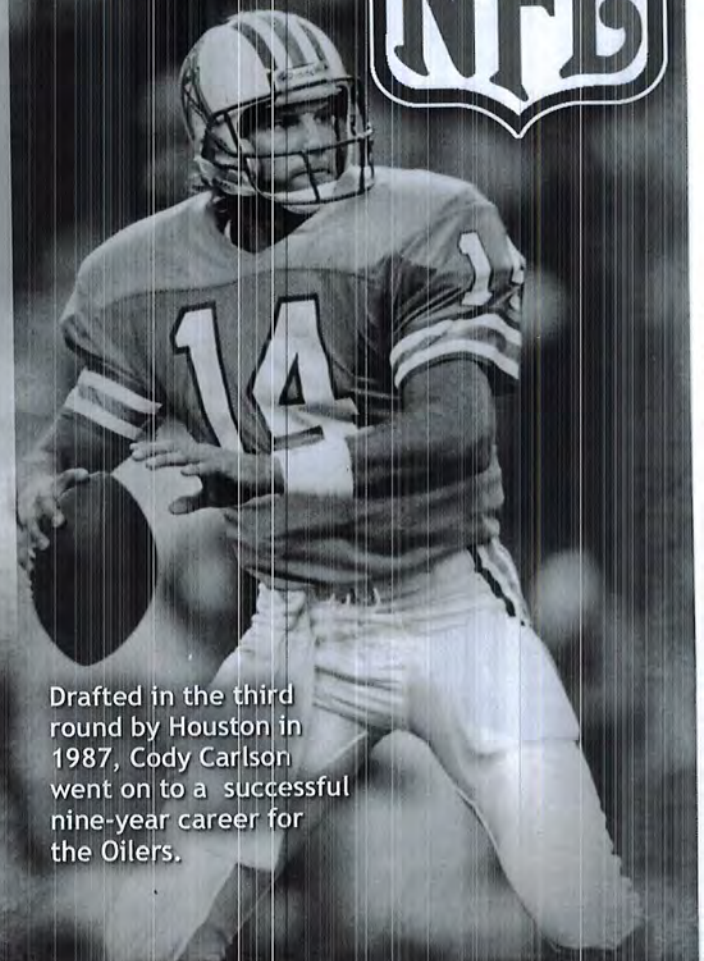
BEARS IN THE NFL

■ A total of 23 former Baylor football players have appeared in 32 Super Bowl games, and at least one former player has been represented in six of the last eight Super Bowls.

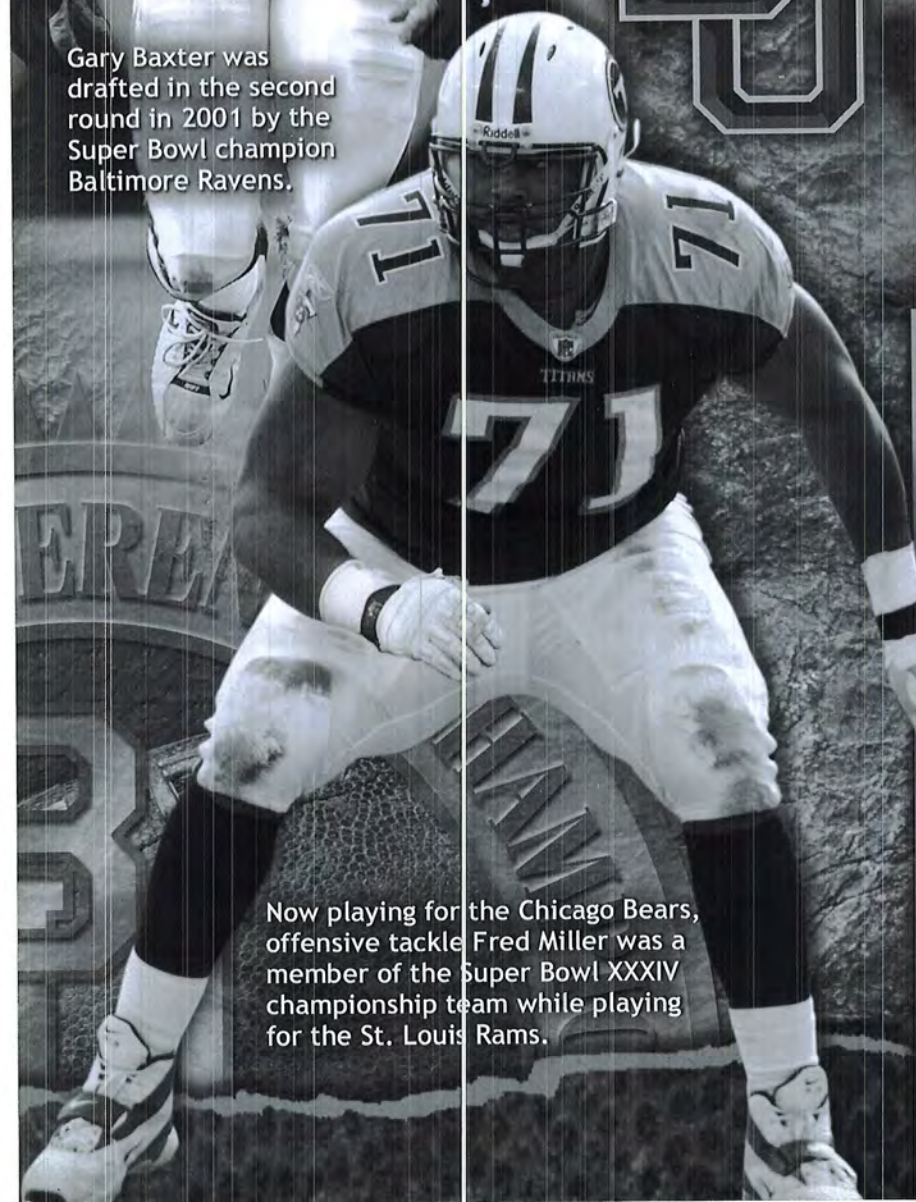
■ 18 former Baylor players have been selected to the Pro Bowl a total of 47 times.



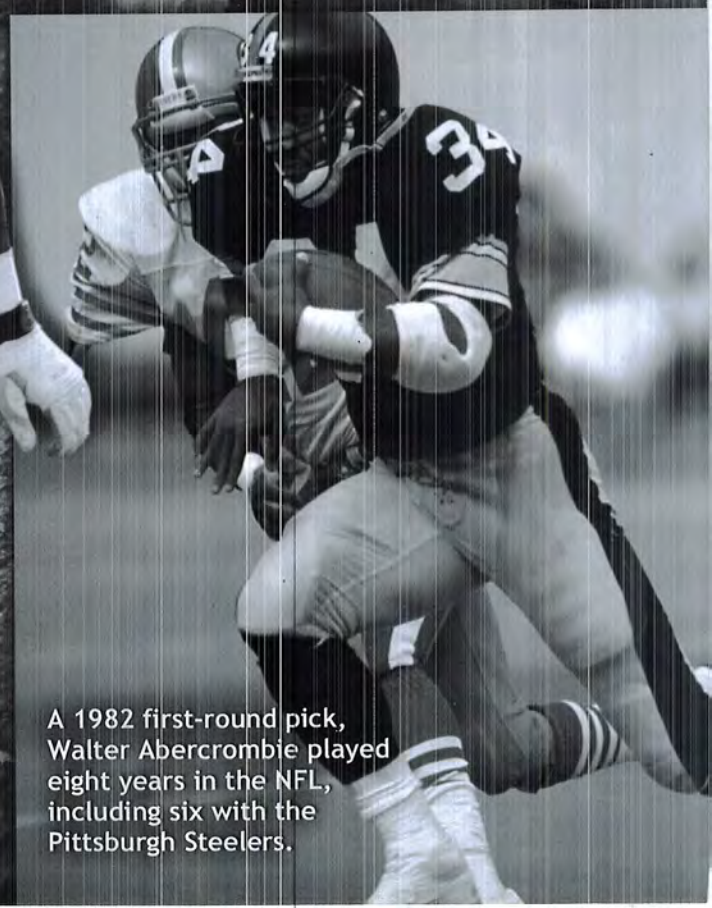
Gary Baxter was drafted in the second round in 2001 by the Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens.



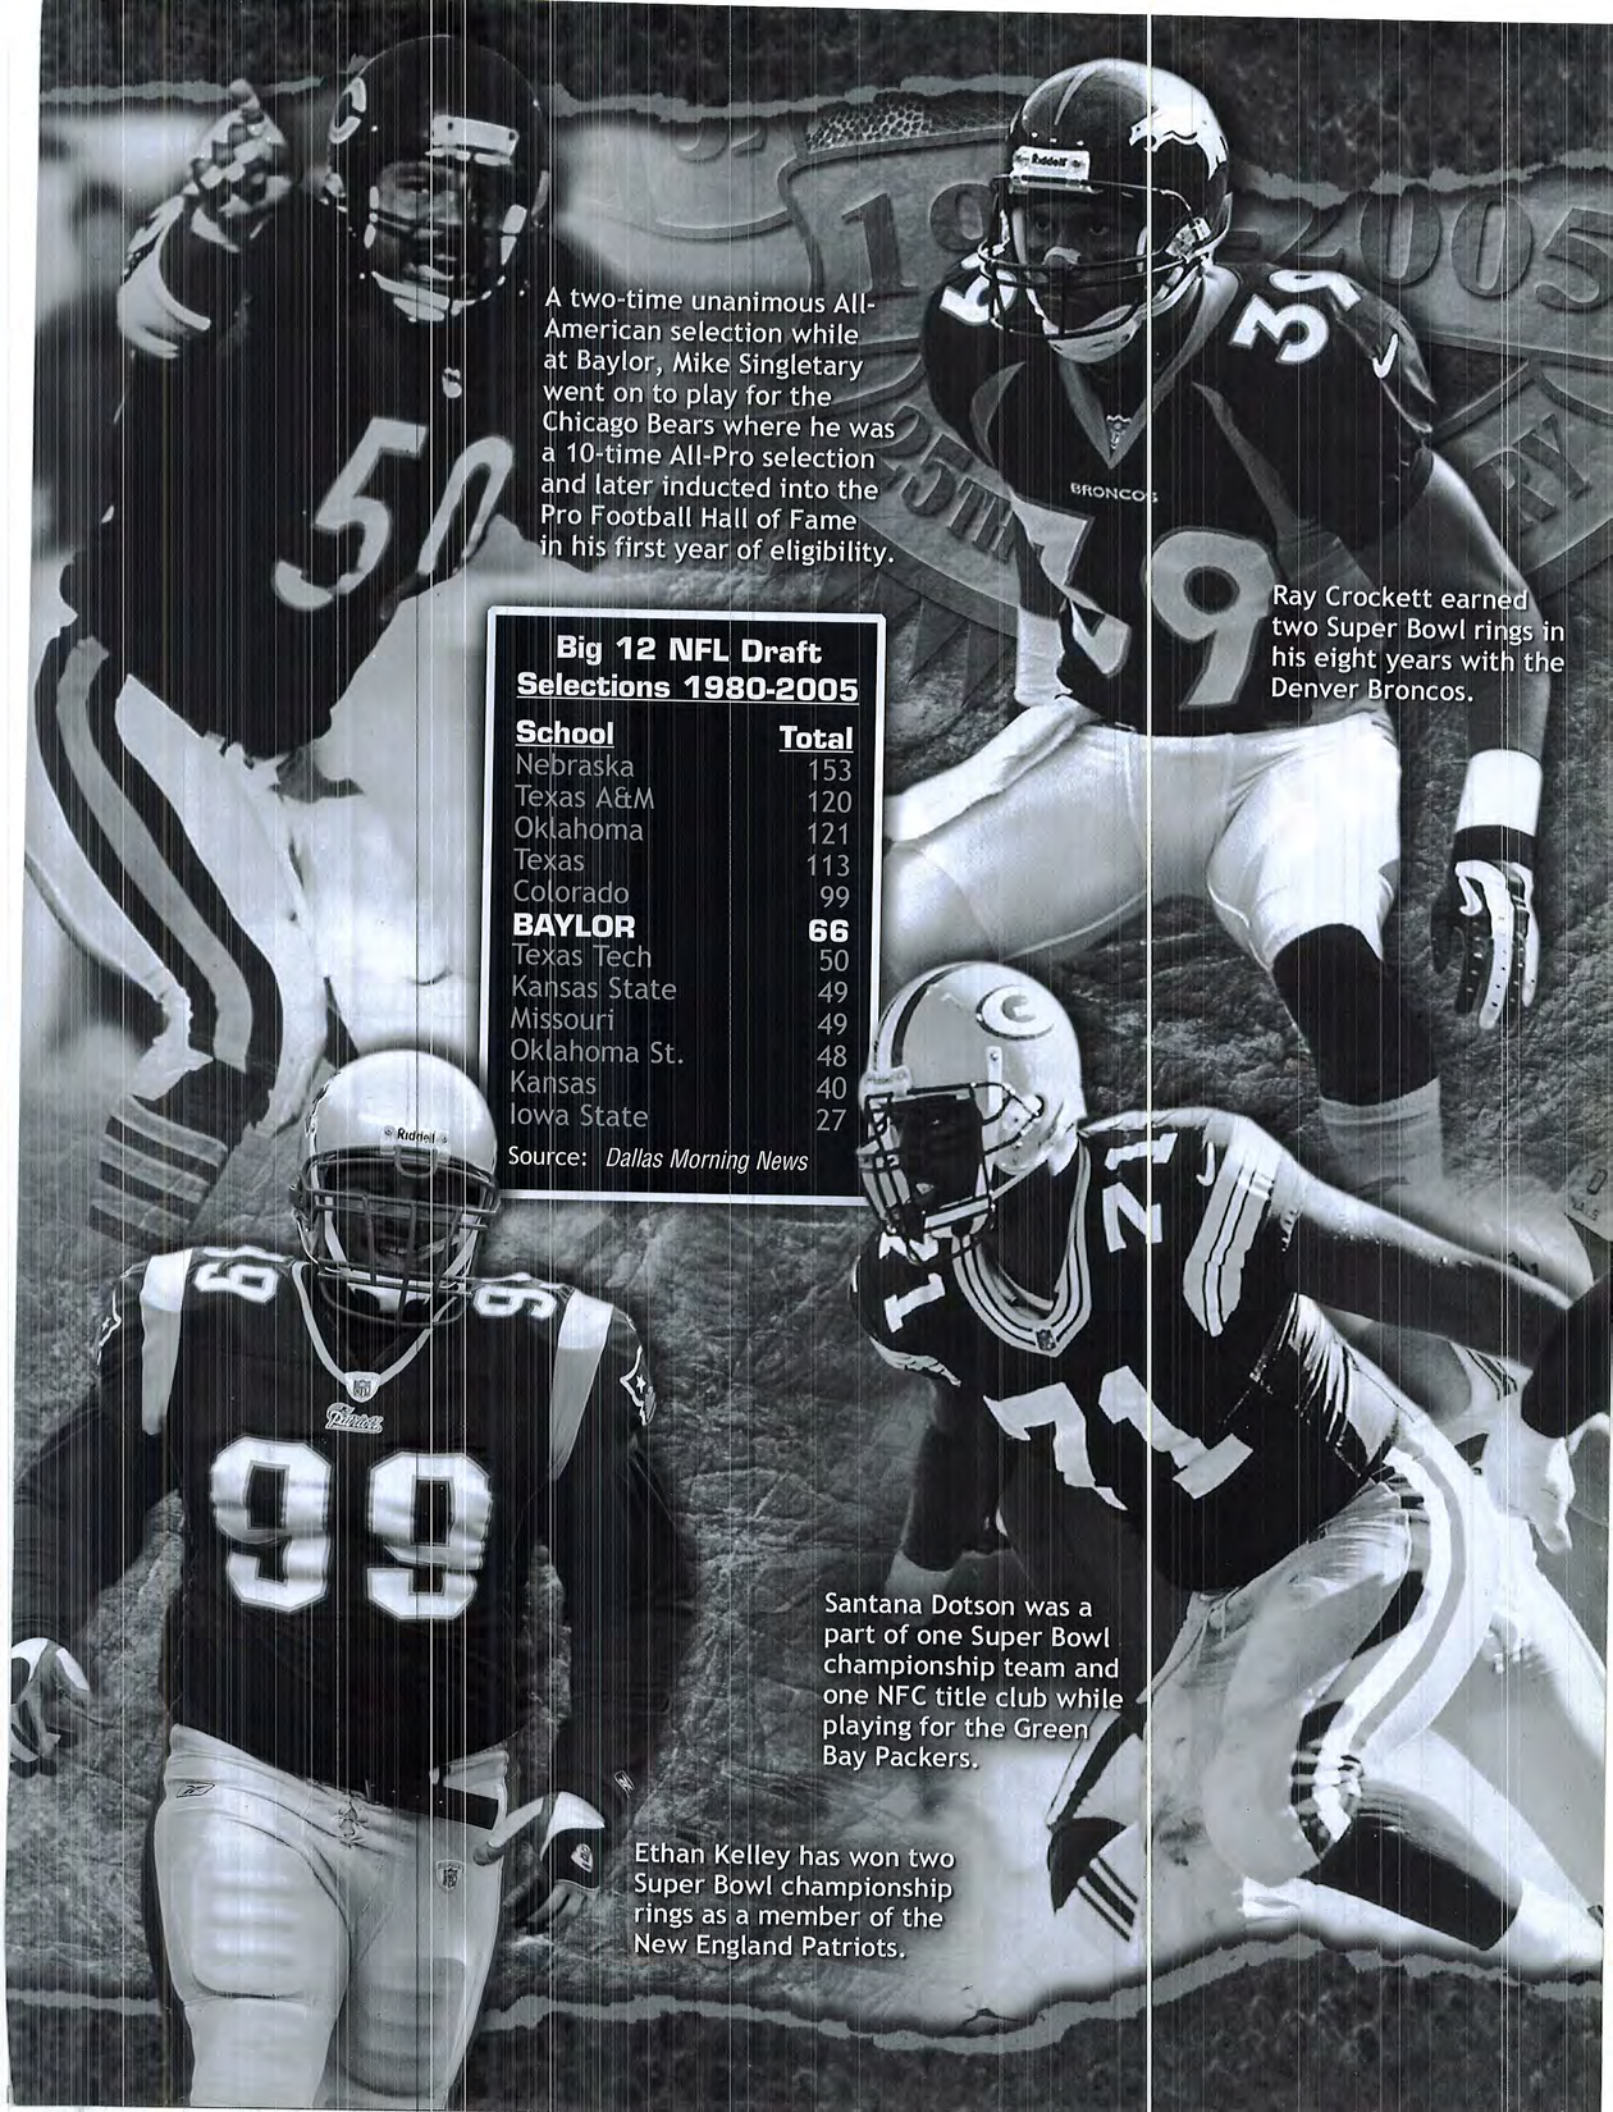
Drafted in the third round by Houston in 1987, Cody Carlson went on to a successful nine-year career for the Oilers.



Now playing for the Chicago Bears, offensive tackle Fred Miller was a member of the Super Bowl XXXIV championship team while playing for the St. Louis Rams.



A 1982 first-round pick, Walter Abercrombie played eight years in the NFL, including six with the Pittsburgh Steelers.



A two-time unanimous All-American selection while at Baylor, Mike Singletary went on to play for the Chicago Bears where he was a 10-time All-Pro selection and later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

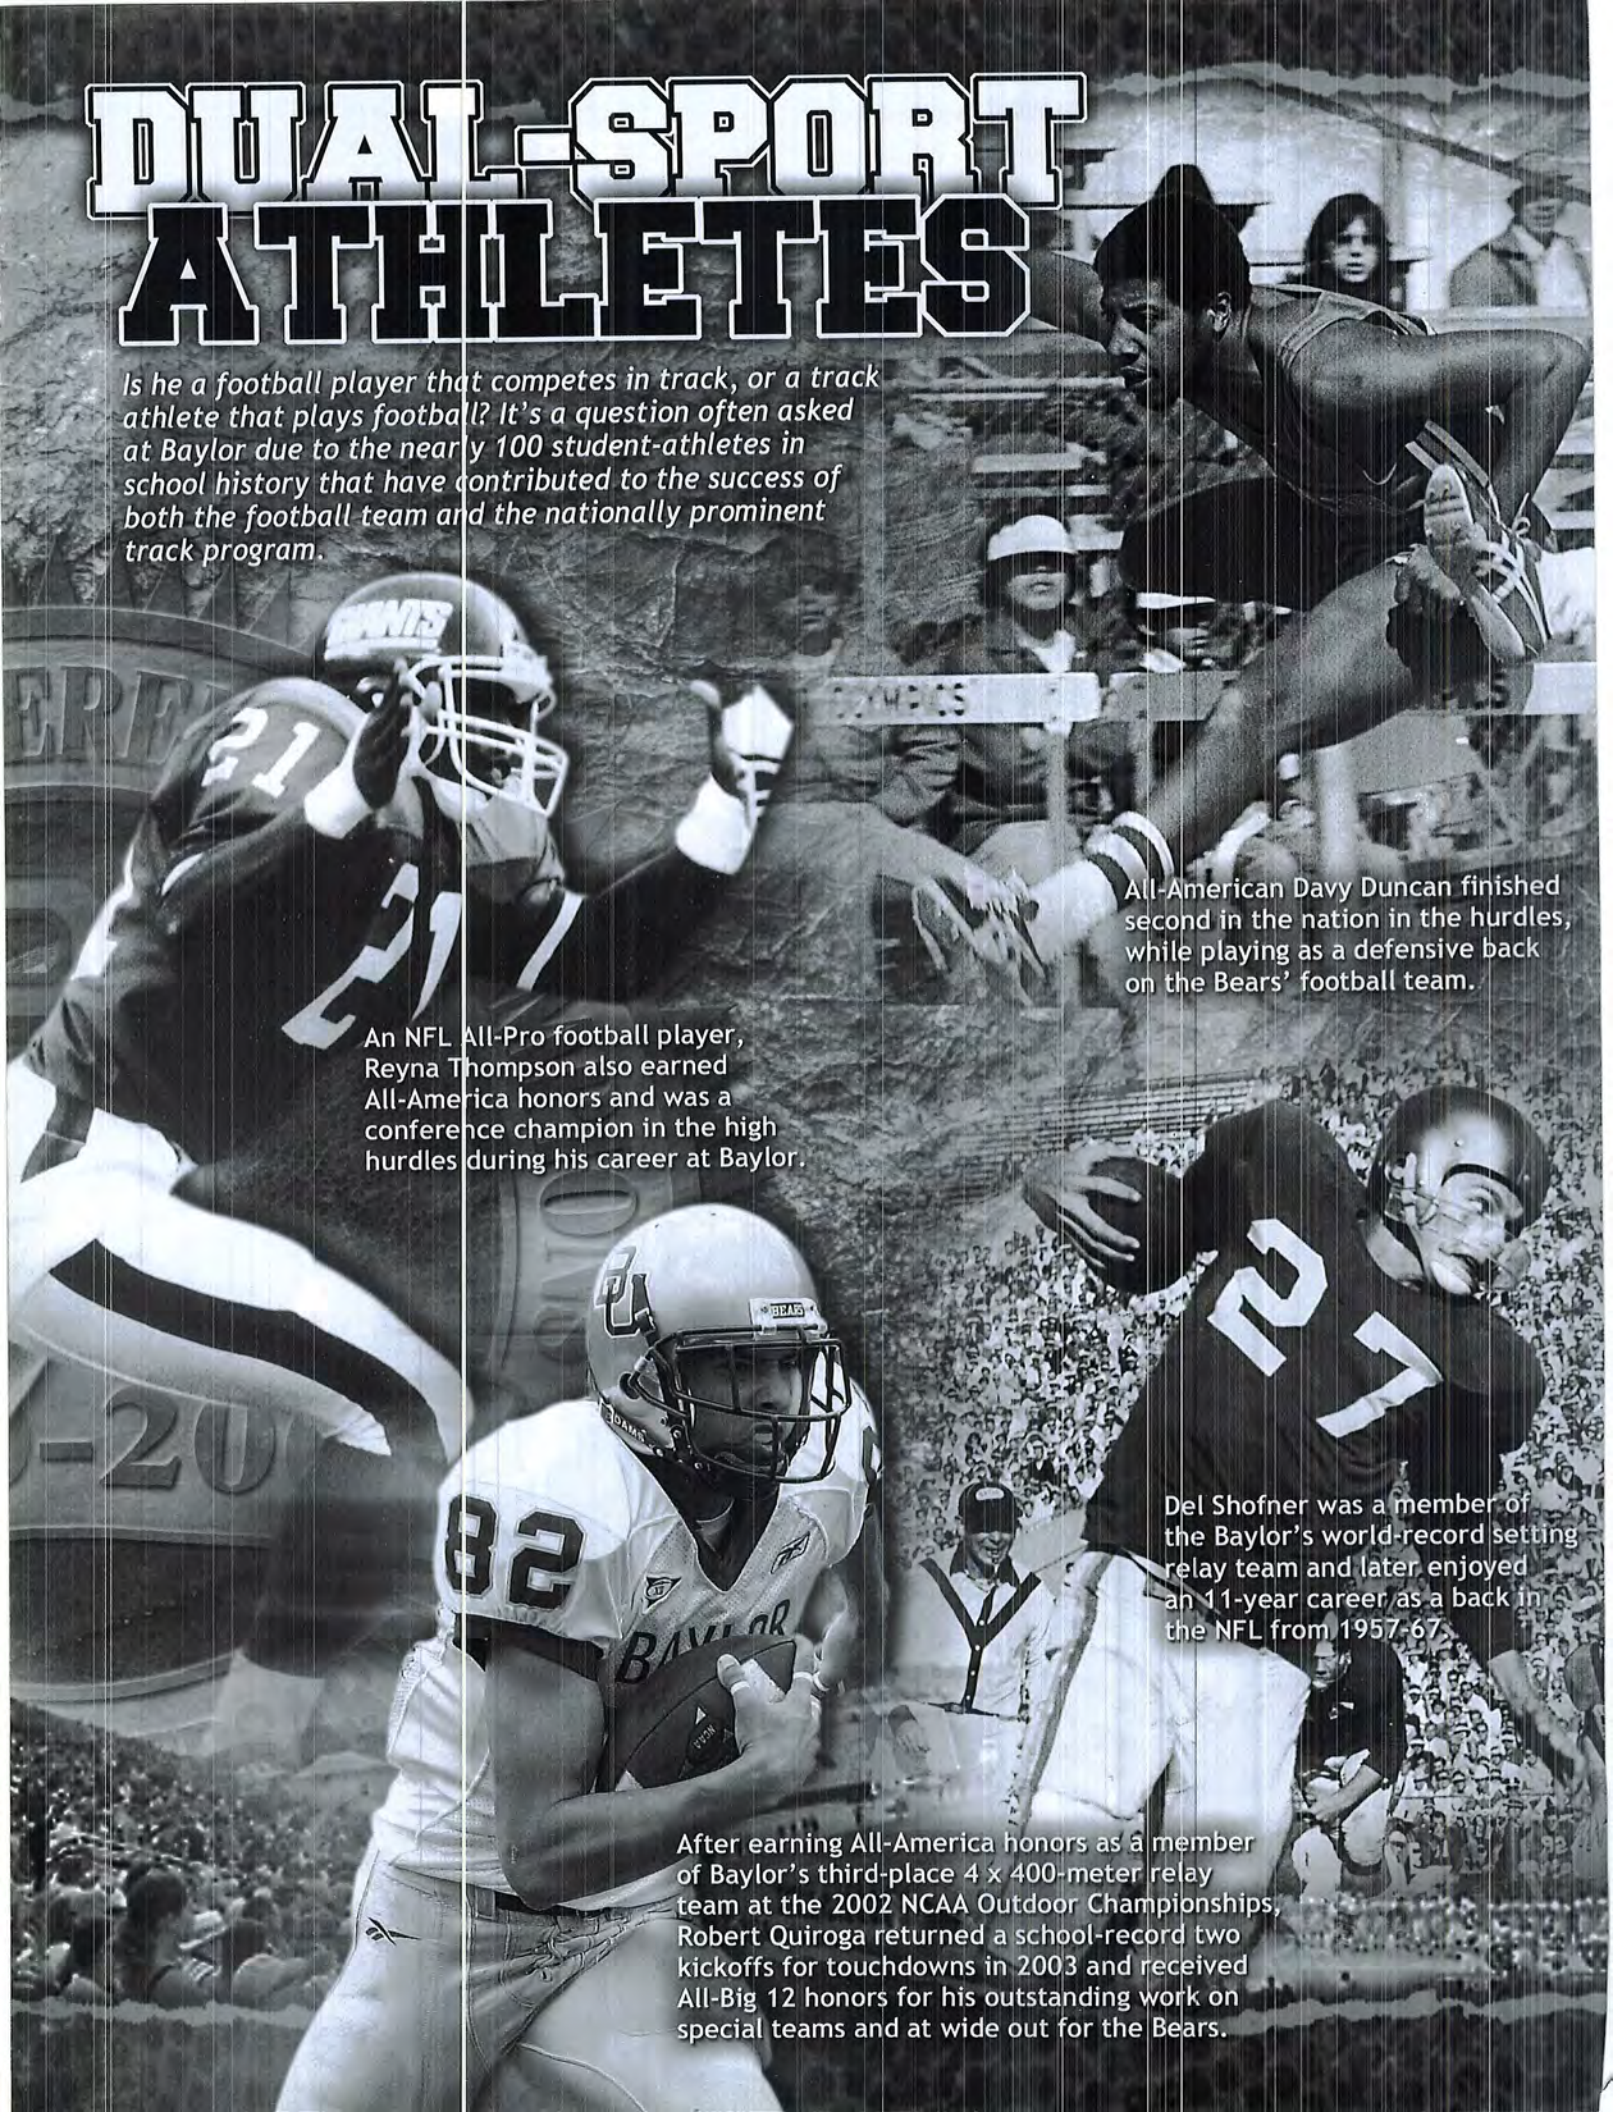
DUAL-SPORT ATHLETES

Is he a football player that competes in track, or a track athlete that plays football? It's a question often asked at Baylor due to the nearly 100 student-athletes in school history that have contributed to the success of both the football team and the nationally prominent track program.

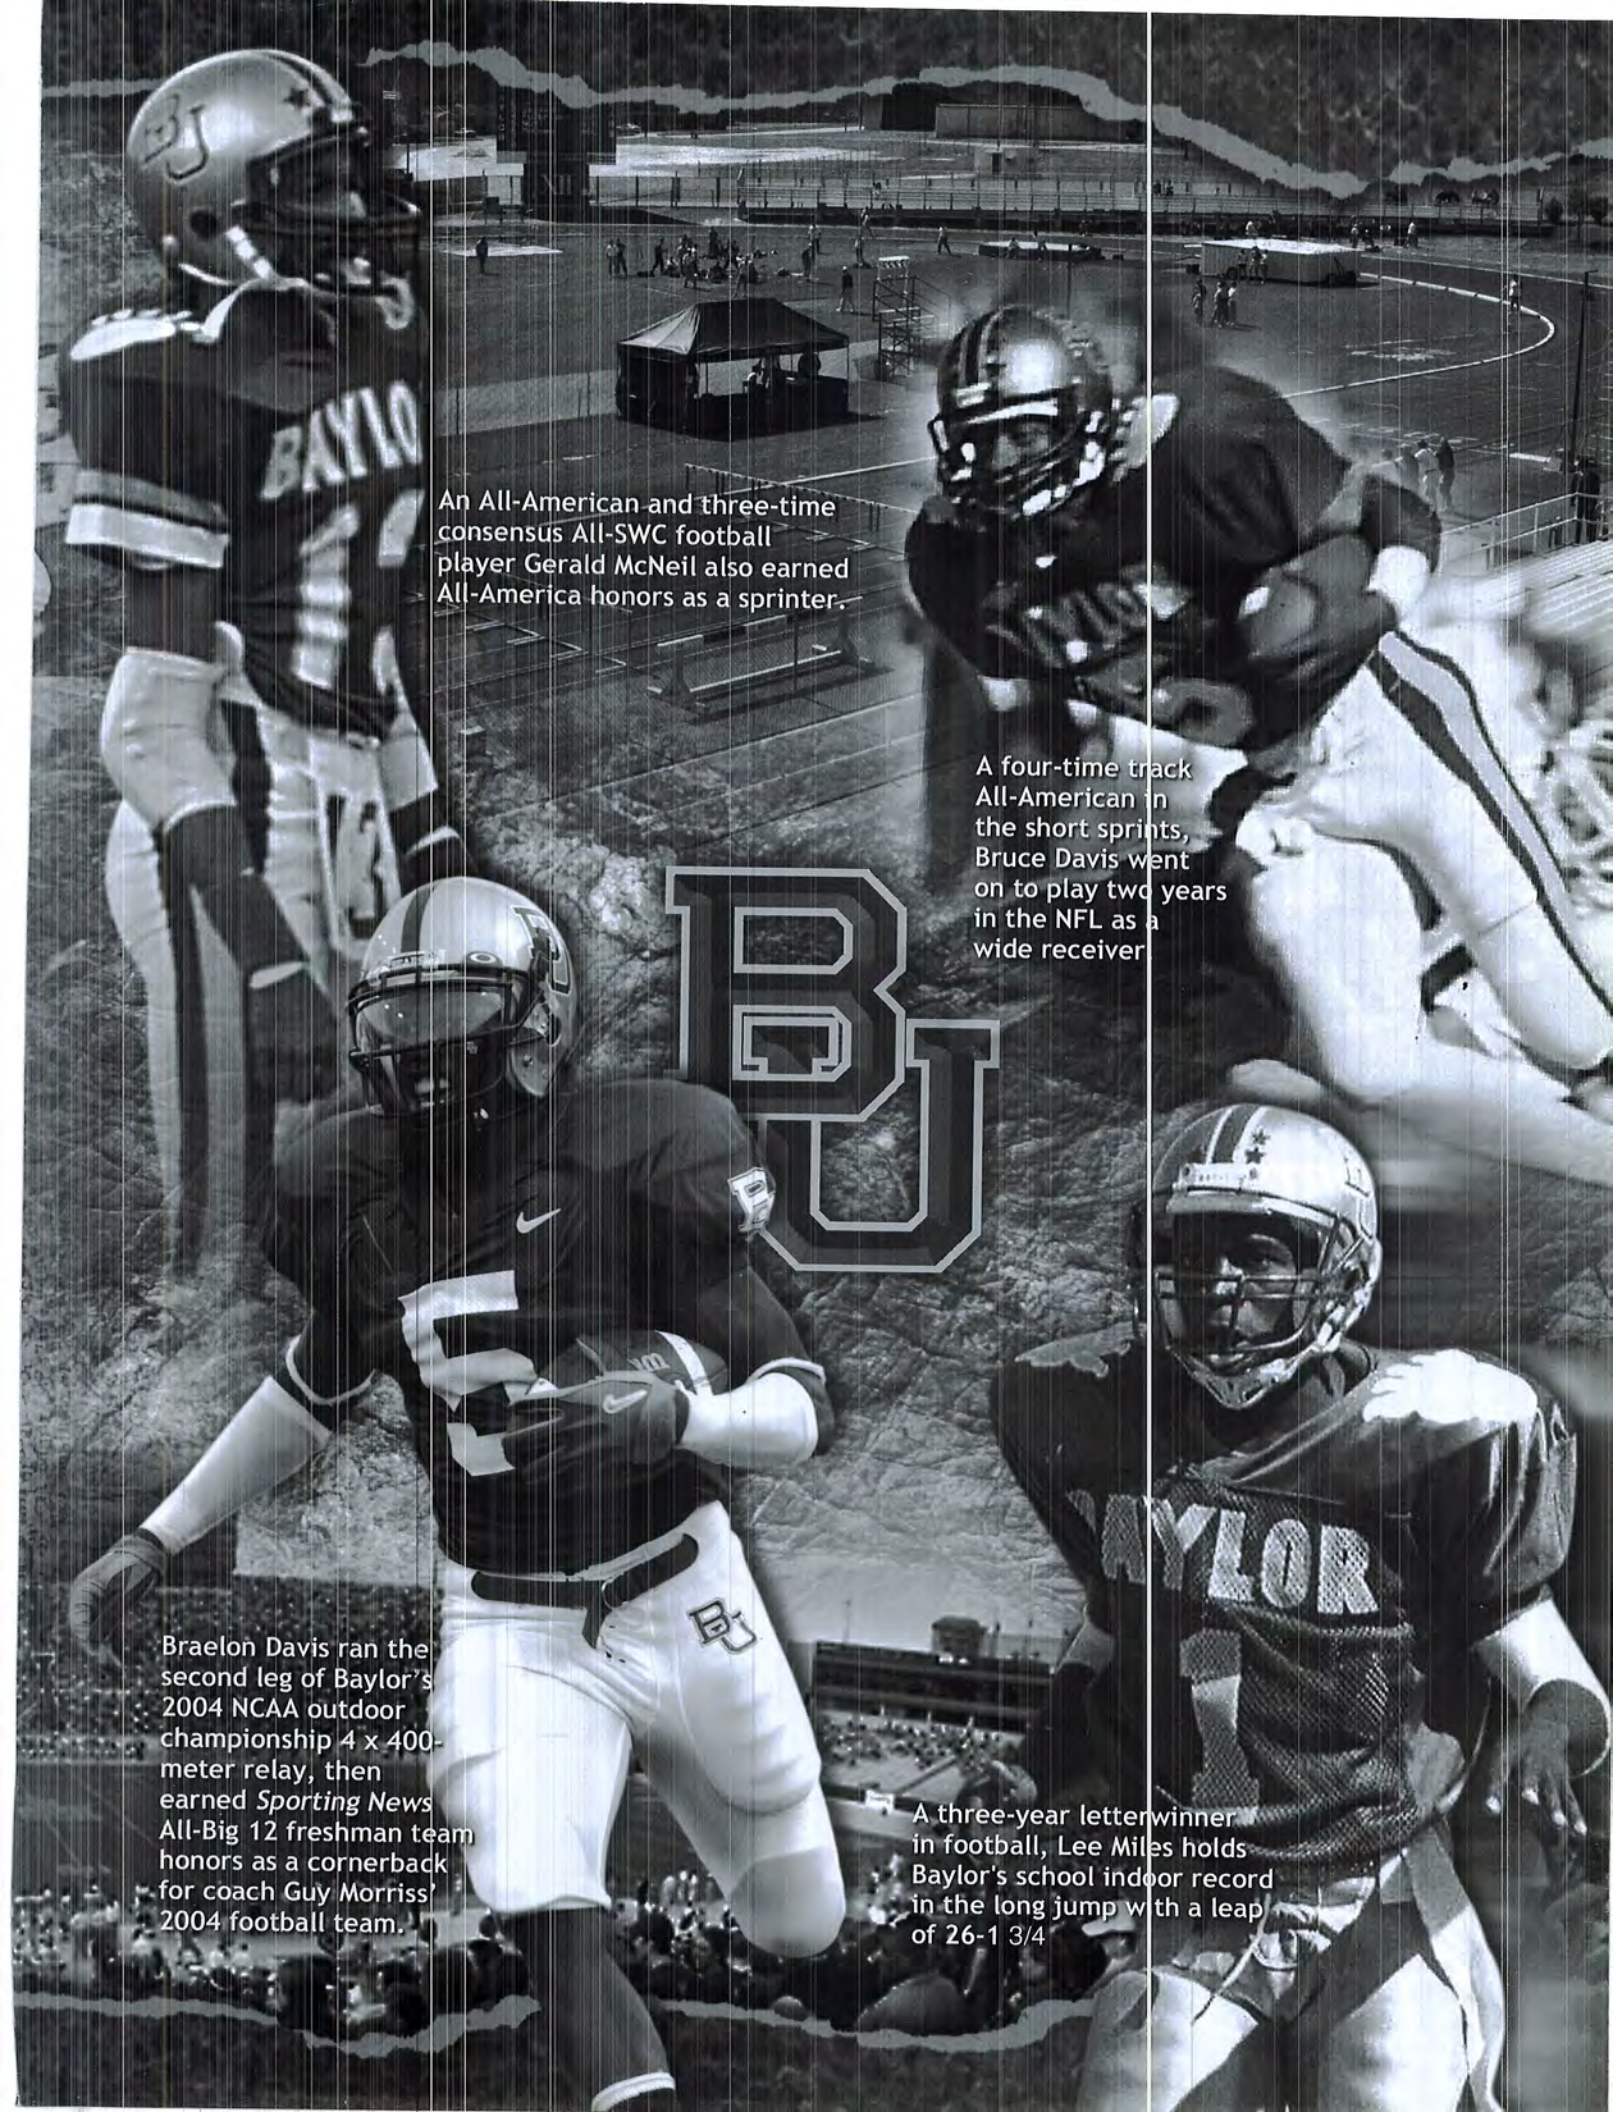


All-American Davy Duncan finished second in the nation in the hurdles, while playing as a defensive back on the Bears' football team.

An NFL All-Pro football player, Reyna Thompson also earned All-America honors and was a conference champion in the high hurdles during his career at Baylor.

Del Shofner was a member of the Baylor's world-record setting relay team and later enjoyed an 11-year career as a back in the NFL from 1957-67.

After earning All-America honors as a member of Baylor's third-place 4 x 400-meter relay team at the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Championships, Robert Quiroga returned a school-record two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2003 and received All-Big 12 honors for his outstanding work on special teams and at wide out for the Bears.



An All-American and three-time consensus All-SWC football player Gerald McNeil also earned All-America honors as a sprinter.
A four-time track All-American in the short sprints, Bruce Davis went on to play two years in the NFL as a wide receiver.
Braelon Davis ran the second leg of Baylor's 2004 NCAA outdoor championship 4 x 400-meter relay, then earned Sporting News All-Big 12 freshman team honors as a cornerback for coach Guy Morriss' 2004 football team.
A three-year letterwinner in football, Lee Miles holds Baylor's school indoor record in the long jump with a leap of 26-1 3/4

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

TENTH ANNIVERSARY
BIG 12 CONFERENCE
1996 – 2006

Since its inception in 1996, the Big 12 Conference has quickly established itself as one of the nation's elite football leagues. Consider that...

- The 2004 season marked the second consecutive and fourth time in the last five years that a Big 12 team played in the BCS National Championship game. Big 12 institutions have combined to win 17 national championships on the gridiron.
- The Big 12 leads all conferences with four appearances in the BCS National Championship game.
- The Big 12 has placed five or more teams in bowl games every season since it began with six or more programs earning a bowl invitation seven times in the league's nine-year history. In 2004, the Big 12 went 4-3 in bowl games and was one of three conferences to post a winning record in postseason play.
- Eight of the 17 national college football awards in 2004 went to recipients from the Big 12 Conference, including the Ray Guy Award, which was given to Baylor's Daniel Sepulveda.
- The Big 12 Conference will celebrate its 10th anniversary during the 2005-06 academic year.
- Featuring the conference's top teams from the South and North Divisions, the 2005 Big 12 Championship Game will be played Dec. 3 at Reliant Stadium in Houston, Texas.
- National television coverage is routine in the Big 12 as the league has agreements with ABC, Fox Sports Net and TBS Superstation.

2005 OUTLOOK

2005 SEASON PREVIEW

BAYLOR SET FOR 104TH GRID CAMPAIGN, THIRD UNDER GUY MORRISS

Year three of the Guy Morriss Era at Baylor kicks off Sept. 3 when the Bears face former Southwest Conference rival SMU in Dallas. It will mark the second time these foes have met since the SWC disbanded with Baylor giving Morriss his first win on the Bears' sideline with a 10-7 victory over the Mustangs in 2003 at Waco.

The Bears, who will play only five home games for the first time since 1998 and must play away from Floyd Casey Stadium five times in their first seven games, meet Samford in their Sept. 10 home debut before closing non-conference action at Army on Sept. 17. BU starts Big 12 play Oct. 1 at Texas A&M.

Baylor boasts a strong nucleus on both sides of the ball, returning 48 lettermen from last year's 3-8 team, including 23 on offense, 21 on defense and four specialists. Among the returnees are 13 starters (four offense, eight defense and one specialist) and another 21 players who have at least one career start to their credit.

"We're going to be better because our offensive line is going to be better, a lot better; we've got quarterbacks who have played and they are comfortable in the system and they're experienced," Morriss said. "We're faster at wide receiver – I mean we can put some serious speed on the field at wide receiver.

"We like what we see three-deep at tailback and I believe we might actually be better at linebacker than we were last year. In depth and athletic ability, top to bottom, this is the best group we've had."

2005 marks the 25th anniversary of Baylor's 1980 Southwest Conference title season. The team, which finished the season 10-2 overall, 8-0 in the SWC and ranked as high as 13th nationally, will be honored during an on-campus reunion around the Oct. 15 Nebraska game.

GUY MORRISS

BEARS FACE SIX BOWL TEAMS IN 2005

After playing eight of 11 games a year ago against teams that went on to earn bowl invitations, Baylor will tackle six bowl squads in 2005. However, that's really nothing new for coach Guy Morriss' program, as 15 times in his first 23 games (including 13 of 16 Big 12 contests) along the Baylor sideline he's faced an opponent which wound up with a bowl bid at season's end.

The Bears' 2005 opponents combined for a 70-58 (.545) record a year ago and six earned bowl invites--Texas A&M, Iowa State, Oklahoma, Texas Tech, Texas and Oklahoma State.

All-told, six of BU's eight 2005 Big 12 games will be against teams that earned bowl bids last year. The Bears' eight Big 12 foes went 61-34 (.642) last year and accounted for six of the league's seven 2004 bowl bids.

Two of Baylor's three wins a year ago and six of its eight losses were at the hands of eventual bowl-bound teams. The Bears knocked off Cotton Bowl participant Texas A&M (35-34 in overtime) and New Orleans Bowl entrant North Texas (37-14) but dropped games to bowl-bound programs Texas (Rose champion), Iowa State (Independence champion), Texas Tech (Holiday champ), Oklahoma State (Alamo), Oklahoma (Orange) and UAB (Hawaii).

Baylor and Syracuse were the only programs to play eight eventual bowl teams in 2004 and the Bears' slate ranked as the nation's sixth-toughest according to the NCAA's annual strength of schedule survey.

IMPROVEMENT STARTING TO SHOW FOR BEARS

While Baylor's 2004 (3-8) and 2003 (3-9) records look nearly identical, it is quickly becoming evident that the Bears have made tremendous strides in Guy Morriss' first two seasons at the helm.

A review of 14 major NCAA statistical categories (six offense, five defense and three special teams) showed that the 2004 Bears improved their national standing in nine areas from the 2003 campaign and in eight instances that improvement resulted in a double-digit jump in the rankings.

In the year prior to Morriss' arrival, the Bears lost five games by at least 40 points, but his teams have combined for just four such defeats the past two years, and three of those came in his first season.

"I think the kids are comfortable in the system, and that's finally starting to show," Morriss said. "You can tell we are stronger. Overall, we're just in better shape as a program than when we got here. You can physically see it.

"We've got to learn how to keep our level of play at an emotional high, because there's still not going to be too many teams that we're going to match up with physically or athletically just yet," he added. "So you've got to be close to perfect technically and emotionally charged up. That's what I hope they're starting to understand."

PAUL MOSLEY

GROWING UP

After fielding the nation's second-youngest team a year ago (only SMU, at 76.1 percent, had a higher percentage of underclassmen on its 2004 roster than Baylor, whose roster was 71.1 percent underclassmen) third-year coach Guy Morriss' 2005 Baylor squad will arguably be the most-seasoned of his tenure in Waco.

Baylor's 123-man 2005 preseason roster includes 18 seniors, 34 juniors, 25 sophomores and 46 freshmen. The Bears' 2004 roster, by comparison, included some 96 underclassmen among the 135 players listed. Baylor's 2004 roster included some 96 underclassmen among the 135 players listed.

BAYLOR STAFF BOASTS 196 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

The 2005 Baylor football coaching staff, which remains intact for the second straight season, boasts a combined 196 years of experience in the professional, collegiate and high school ranks. Seven members of this year's Baylor staff have worked for Guy Morriss since he first became a Division I-A head coach in 2001 at Kentucky. Entering his fifth season as a head coach, Morriss was recently rated as one of the nation's eight most underrated coaches by Sportsillustrated.com.

Not only is the Baylor staff steeped in sideline experience, but it features three men, Morriss (one), defensive coordinator Bill Bradley (three) and receivers coach Harold Jackson (five), who combined to earn nine NFL All-Pro awards between them. Two others, special teams coordinator/linebackers coach Mark Nelson and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Brent Pease, also enjoyed successful professional football playing careers.

2005 SEASON PREVIEW

SHAWN BELL

SIX I-A TRANSFERS ON 2005 BAYLOR DEPTH CHART

Baylor's 2005 depth chart features six players who began their collegiate careers at other Division I-A programs but have since found their way to Waco. All six are former Texas high school preps.

Tulane transfer Will Blaylock missed nearly all of Baylor's spring drills with an ankle injury, but the junior is listed as the Bears' top center. Sophomore Jordan Adams stands No. 2 at tight end after joining the program from New Mexico.

Junior Paul Howard, the Bears' No. 2 defensive end, began his collegiate career at Texas Tech and played there as a redshirt freshman, and No. 3 defensive tackle Klayton Shoals redshirted as a true freshman at Iowa State before joining the Baylor program.

Howard and Shoals both lettered for the Bears in 2004 while the other four were in the program but sat out due to NCAA transfer rules.

THE BELL TOLLS

Shawn Bell etched his name in Baylor football lore by leading the Bears to an upset overtime victory over No. 16 Texas A&M a year ago and enters his junior campaign No. 1 on the depth chart at quarterback. Bell, who has made four of his five career starts against nationally ranked opponents, impressed the Baylor coaching staff with his leadership and decision-making during spring drills.

As a sophomore in 2004, Bell completed a team-high 60.2 percent of his passes (68-of-113) for 544 yards and no interceptions with six touchdowns. He ranked No. 8 among all 2004 Big 12 signal callers in pass efficiency rating with a 118.1 mark and started three games (Texas A&M, at Texas Tech, at Oklahoma State) before breaking his left hand (non-throwing) early in the Oklahoma State game and then missing the Oklahoma contest.

"(Bell) seems more mature and more comfortable back there," Morriss said. "Shawn has a better grasp of what we are trying to get done and he knows where he is supposed to go with the football. He knows the personnel that are supposed to be around him and he can get people adjusted.

"The thing that makes him good in our system is the respect he gets from the other 10 guys out there on the field," he added. "The guys respect him and they'll follow him as a quarterback and a leader, that's important."

In his 17-game Baylor career, Bell has thrown just one interception in 213 attempts with seven touchdown strikes to his credit. The Academic All-America candidate posted a 4.00 grade-point average in the classroom for the spring 2005 semester.

One of three scholarship quarterbacks in the Baylor program, Bell will be challenged by sophomore Terrance Parks, who started the Bears' 2004 season finale against No. 2 Oklahoma, and true freshman Blake Szymanski, who threw for more than 4,000 yards at Wichita Falls (Texas) Rider High School.

FIND THE TARGET

Despite having three different starting quarterbacks in 2004, Baylor signal callers broke the school's single-season completion percentage record (.595) for the second consecutive season and threw more touchdowns (17) than interceptions (11) for the first time since 1996. In addition, Baylor set a new school single-season standard for completions with 235.

The 2004 Bears also improved their total offense output (311.8 ypg) by some 30 yards over their 2003 mark (281.4 ypg) and their scoring average (20.4 ppg) was the program's highest since 1996.

THUNDER & LIGHTNING

Baylor's running back duo of junior Paul Mosley and sophomore Brandon Whitaker became known to teammates as Thunder and Lightning by the time spring practice had concluded in Waco. Throw in redshirt freshman Jacoby Jones and the Bears should have an explosive three-back attack.

"That's a good punch," Morriss said. "You've got a power guy (Mosley) that can hammer it up inside and a quick guy (Whitaker) that will slash you, cut back and hit the seams and go, as well as a good young back in Jacoby (Jones)."

An All-Big 12 candidate, Mosley rushed for 582 yards as a sophomore, scored a team-high four touchdowns and posted the highest per-carry mark (4.6 ypc) for a Baylor rushing leader since 1997. He was also the team's sixth-leading receiver with 14 receptions for 111 yards and one touchdown.

Whitaker, who lettered as a true freshman in 2003 but sat out the 2004 campaign as a medical redshirt while recovering from a knee injury, drew rave reviews from the Baylor coaches after a nine-tote, 115-yard, four-touchdown performance in the Bears' spring game. Jones ended his prep career at Bangs (Texas) High School as one of the Lone Star's most prolific prep runners ever with totals of 818 carries, 7,671 yards and 99 touchdowns.

ZEIGLER, SHELTON ANCHOR DEEP RECEIVING CORPS

Despite the loss of Marques Roberts, BU's sixth-leading receiver all-time with 91 catches, the Bears' 2005 receiving corps, headlined by a pair of juniors in All-Big 12 candidate Dominique Zeigler and Trent Shelton, may well be the strength of Morriss' 2005 offense.

"We've got some serious speed at wide receiver," Morriss said. "As a group, they can stretch the field and put pressure on a secondary in a hurry."

An honorable mention All-Big 12 performer as a sophomore, Zeigler caught a team-high 55 passes for 536 yards and five touchdowns. His 55 receptions ranked as the sixth-best one-year total in school history as he recorded at least two catches in each of his 10 appearances.

Shelton hauled in 38 passes for 426 yards and four scores to rank third on the squad, while recording both the Bears' season-long rush (71 yards) and reception (55 yards). He heads into 2005 having caught at least one pass in 22 consecutive games, the longest such string for a Bear since Reggie Newhouse ended his career with a 34-game string (2000-2002).

DOMINIQUE ZEIGLER

2005 SEASON PREVIEW

BEARS' DEFENSE SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

In Bill Bradley's first season as the Bears' defensive coordinator, his defense produced four All-Big 12 performers and allowed an average of nearly 30 yards per game fewer (421.1 ypg) than it did in 2003 (450.0 ypg). The Bears' pass defense, which ranked 101st among all NCAA I-A programs in 2003 prior to Bradley's arrival, was rated No. 62 at the end of his first season in Waco.

Baylor returns eight starters on the defensive side of the ball for the 2005 season, including its entire first-team secondary, and seven of its top 10 tacklers from a year ago.

MAURICE LANE: TACKLE MACHINE

Senior free safety Maurice Lane should contend for All-Big 12 and All-America honors as well as the Thorpe Award in his final season at Baylor after leading the Bears in tackles for the second straight year as a junior. A member of the Thorpe Award's 2005 Preseason Watch List, Lane is listed as the nation's ninth-best free safety according to The Sporting News' preseason magazine.

A second-team 2004 All-Big 12 selection, Lane has started all 34 games he has played in at Baylor and already ranks among the school's all-time leaders in solo tackles. With 205 career solos, he stands No. 4 on BU's career list and needs just 95 more to join College and Pro Hall of Famer Mike Singletary as the only Bears to record 300 or more career solos. Lane, who has 281 career tackles, is just 23 stops shy of the school's all-time top 10 and 100 away from moving into the No. 2 position behind Singletary's career mark of 662 stops.

In 2004, he led the Bears and ranked No. 3 among all Big 12 performers (tops among league defensive backs) in tackles with 104 (9.5 tpg). Lane paced the Big 12 and ranked No. 3 nationally in solo tackles with 7.0 per game, as his 77 solos ranked as the eighth-best one-season total in school history. He ended the season with four straight double-figure tackle games, one of which was a season-high 16-tackle effort at Oklahoma State.

WILLIE ANDREWS

BEARS' ALL-PURPOSE MAN

One of Baylor's most versatile players, senior outside safety Willie Andrews again figures to be a busy man in the secondary and on special teams for the 2005 Bears. On the field for 854 snaps as a junior, the All-America and All-Big 12 candidate has started 23 consecutive games in the secondary entering his final Green and Gold campaign.

Andrews led the 2004 Bears in sacks (three), ranked No. 2 in both tackles for loss (10) and quarterback hurries (seven) and was No. 3 in total tackles with 67. A near consensus 2004 first-team All-Big 12 honoree as a return specialist, he also garnered a first-team award from The Dallas Morning News for his standout defensive play. Andrews ranks as the school's all-time leader in total kick return yards (kickoff and punt returns) with 2,057 yards and is poised to own nearly every school return record before his career ends.

SPECIAL SPECIAL TEAMS

The strongest facet of Baylor's squad in Guy Morriss' two seasons on the sideline has arguably been its special teams play. After recording four scores in 2003, the Bears' 2004 special team units tallied two more scores and featured the 2004 Ray Guy Award winner in Daniel Sepulveda and consensus first-team All-Big 12 return specialist Willie Andrews.

The 2004 Bears, who ranked No. 5 nationally in net punting (40.6 ypp), No. 35 in kickoff returns (21.7 ypr) and No. 36 in punt returns (11.1 ypr), were the only Big 12 team to rank among the nation's top 36 in all three of those statistical categories a year ago. Perhaps even more impressive is the fact that in the year prior to Mark Nelson's arrival as Baylor's special teams coordinator the program ranked 91st nationally in punt returns, 115th in kickoff returns and 117th in net punting.

Sepulveda captured the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter after ranking No. 3 nationally with his 46.0 yard average and Andrews led the league and ranked 24th nationally in kickoff returns with his 24.7 yard mark.

A senior outside safety who will again contend for All-Big 12 and All-America honors, Andrews ranked No. 6 in the Big 12 and No. 65 nationally in 2004 with 107.6 all-purpose yards per game despite not taking a snap on the offensive side of the ball. He also led the Big 12 and ranked 24th nationally in kickoff returns (24.7 ypr) while standing No. 3 in the league and No. 43 nationally in punt returns (10.8 ypr).

SEPULVEDA AIMS FOR GUY AWARD REPEAT

Junior Daniel Sepulveda, who received the 2004 Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter, has his sights set on becoming the trophy's first-ever two-time winner and only the sixth two-time All-American in school history over his final two seasons as a Bear. In its preseason annual, The Sporting News tabbed him as a preseason first-team All-American and rates him as the nation's No. 1 punter.

A consensus 2004 first-team All-Big 12 performer, Sepulveda ranked No. 2 in the Big 12 and No. 3 nationally in punting (46.0 ypp). His 44.3 ypp career average ranks No. 4 among active Division I-A punters and is the best-ever by a Bear. Sepulveda placed 41.9 percent of his punts (26 of 62) inside the opponent's 20-yard line a year ago and his net average of 42.5 ypp ranked No. 2 nationally.

The former walk-on, who did not punt in high school, improved his net average from 37.4 ypp as a redshirt freshman in 2003 to 42.5 ypp in 2004. Sepulveda's 2004 average of 46.0 ypp was the second-best single-season mark in school history and he boomed 24 punts 50 or more yards for the year.

BEARS AGAIN LEAD BIG 12 IN GRADUATION RATES

For the fifth time in the Big 12 Conference's nine-year history, Baylor University posted the highest student-athlete graduation rate of any league institution, according to figures released by the NCAA last fall.

The Bears' most-recent graduation rates, for the freshman class of 1997-98, is 78 percent, a school record by four points over the previous high of 74 percent in 2000. That figure is also 8 points higher than Baylor's general student population and 16 points better than the NCAA Division I national average of 62 percent.

Baylor also graduated a Big 12-best 76 percent of its male student-athletes and a league-high 82 percent of its female student-athletes. The Baylor football program produced a Big 12-leading 88 percent graduation rate, marking the fifth time in the league's history it set the standard for classroom excellence.

Among Division I-A institutions, Baylor's overall graduation rate ranked as the nation's 10th-highest mark according to the most-recent NCAA figures.

In addition to leading the Big 12 in graduation rates five times, Baylor ranked second on three other occasions. All-told, 88 percent of Baylor student-athletes who exhausted their eligibility and entered school from 1988-89 through 1997-98 left with degree in hand according to the NCAA study.

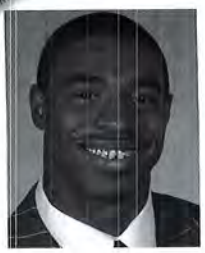
PLAYERS



Willie ANDREWS #18

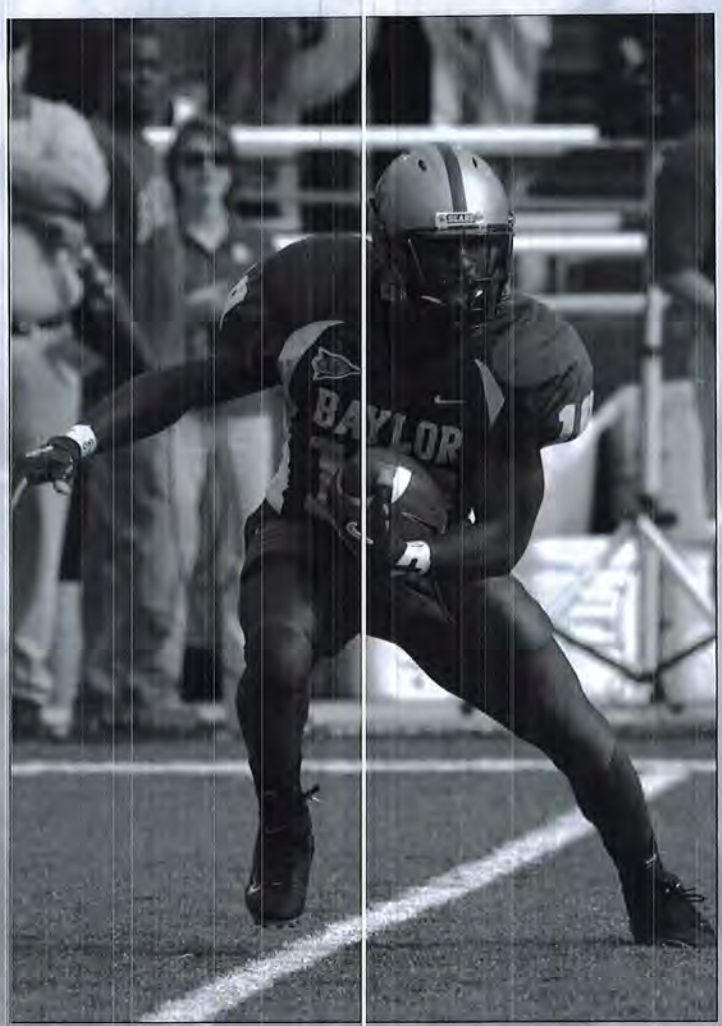
OS • 5-10 • 189 • Sr.-3L

Longview, Texas

ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE

2005: One of Baylor's most versatile players, senior All-America candidate Willie Andrews will start at outside safety for the third consecutive year and again ranks as the Bears' top kick returner ... Baylor's all-time leader in total kick return yards (kickoff and punt returns) with 2,057 yards, he needs just 44 kickoff return yards and 11 returns to become the school's career leader in both categories ... His 56 career kickoff returns rank No. 4 all-time at Baylor, while he's No. 3 in kickoff return average (24.68 ypr) and No. 2 in kickoff return yards (1,382) ... Andrews, who also stands No. 5 on BU's career punt return (70), punt return yards (675) and punt return average (9.64 ypr) charts, has made 23 consecutive starts in the secondary entering his final season as a Bear.

2004: Started all 11 games for the Bears as a junior outside safety and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors as a kick return specialist from the Big 12 coaches, ESPN.com, Collegefootballnews.com, Fort Worth Star-Telegram, Houston Chronicle, Austin American-Statesman, San Antonio Express-News and Waco Tribune-Herald while also garnering first-team honors as a safety from The Dallas Morning News, second-team Associated Press All-Big 12 recognition as an all-purpose back and AP honorable mention All-Big 12 for his work in the secondary ... Led the 2004 Bears in sacks (three for 20 yards), was No. 2 in both tackles for loss (10 for 37 yards) and quarterback hurries (seven), No. 3 in total tackles (67) and solo stops (48), No. 4 (tied with three) in pass breakups ... Recorded five or more tackles in nine of 11 starts, including a career-high 12 tackles (10 solos) and one tackle for loss at Texas Tech and 10 stops (eight solo) against No. 2 Oklahoma ... Tallied seven tackles against Missouri, six vs. Iowa State and five on five other occasions ... Had a career-high three tackles for loss against North Texas, two of which were sacks, among his five total tackles to earn his first career Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honor ... Also had three quarterback hurries and a forced fumble against the Mean Green ... Equaled career-high in tackles for loss with three against Iowa State ... Led the Big 12 and ranked 24th nationally in kickoff returns (24.7 ypr), was No. 3 in the Big 12 and No. 43 nationally in punt returns (10.8 ypr) and No. 6 in the Big 12 and No. 65 nationally in all-purpose yardage (107.6 ypg) ... Was the only player listed among the 2004 Big 12 all-purpose leaders without any rushing or receiving yardage to his credit as he totaled 1,184 yards ... Tallied 100 or more all-purpose yards six times on the season with a high of 185 yards (171 kickoff return yards and 14 punt return yards) at UAB ... Established Baylor single-season records of 741 kickoff return yards and 443 punt return yards, while his 41 punt returns tied the school's single-season mark and his 30 kickoff returns ranked third on its one-year chart ... For the second consecutive season, he also broke Baylor single-season marks for total kick returns (71) and kick return yards (1,184) ... Had 15 returns (12 kickoff, three punt) of 25-plus yards on season and has 33 such career returns (25 kickoff, seven punt, one interception) ... His six punt returns (on three occasions) equaled the second-best single-game total by a Big 12 performer in 2004, while his 171 kickoff return yards (on six returns) at UAB also rated as the Big 12's second-best single-game 2004 performance ... First Bear to earn Big 12 Player of the Week honors twice in the same season as he shared the league's Special Teams award after recording 164 total kick return yards vs. No. 16 Texas A&M ... Averaged 35.3 yards on three kickoff returns vs. the Aggies, which included a career-long 59-yard return (second-longest by a Big 12 player in 2004), and 19.3 yards on three punt returns with a 33-yard long ... Had a career-long 38-yard punt return at No. 5 Texas ... Earned third letter and was voted Baylor's best defensive skill player ... Saw action on 854 plays to rank No. 2 on the squad.



2003: Started all 12 games for Baylor at outside safety as a sophomore and was also one of the Bears' top kickoff and punt return specialists ... Finished third on the team in tackles with 67 stops, 46 of which were solos ... Also recorded 6.5 tackles for losses totaling 47 yards and 2.5 quarterback sacks for 37 yards lost ... Tallied a team-high two interceptions to go with five pass breakups, a pair of fumble recoveries and a forced fumble ... Returned a fumble 30 yards for a touchdown in season-finale against No. 24 Oklahoma State ... After totaling just eight tackles in Baylor's first three games, he was credited with five or more stops in each of its last nine contests, including a then-career-high 10 tackles (nine solos) at Kansas ... Also made eight tackles against Sam Houston State and had seven each versus Texas Tech, at No. 1 Oklahoma and Oklahoma State to close the season ... Had career-high two pass breakups against both Colorado and at Kansas, while his interceptions came against SMU and at Texas A&M ... His 24-yard interception return against the Aggies was the longest by a Bear in 2003 ... Ranked 21st in the Big 12 in interceptions per game (0.17) ... Returned 26 kickoffs for 641 yards and 29 punts for 232 yards to set Baylor single-season records of 55 total kick returns and 873 total kick return yards ... His 26 kickoff returns tied for third on BU's single-season list, while his 641 yards also ranked third and his 24.65 yard average was eighth-best ... Broke school single-game records for kickoff returns (eight) and kickoff return yards (196) at Texas A&M en route to a career-high 220 all-purpose yards (196 kick return and 24 interception return on 10 attempts) vs. the Aggies ... His 24.65 yard kickoff return average for the season ranked fourth in the Big 12 and 29th nationally ... Of his 26 kickoff returns, 16 went for 20 yards or more, including 13 of 25-plus yards ... Andrews' 29 punt returns tied for seventh on the school's one-year list, while his 8.0 yards per return average was 10th in the league and 71st nationally ... Long kick return of 46 yards came against both UAB and at Texas A&M, while his punt return of 31 yards in the SMU game was a season-long by a Bear and one of five he produced longer than 20 yards on the year ... Had first career rush, a seven-yard gain, against SMU ... Received second letter.

2002: Played in all 12 games as a reserve safety and member of the special teams as a true freshman to earn his first varsity letter ... Credited with 26 tackles, including 23 solos, one tackle for loss and two pass breakups ... Returned an interception 27 yards against Texas Tech ... Had a season-high six tackles, all solos, at No. 4 Texas.

High School: Longview High School, Longview, Texas ... All-purpose player was a first-team member of the Texas Football's Super Team as a defensive back ... First-team All-District 12-5A senior running back led district in rushing with 1,291 yards and in touchdowns with 15 ... Senior numbers also included 13 receptions for 233 yards and one touchdown and two interceptions, giving him eight career picks ... As a junior he caught 40 passes for 775 yards and four touchdowns, rushed 27 times for 232 yards (8.6 ypc), returned 11 punts for 112 yards and returned 11 kickoffs for 292 yards (26.5 ypr) ... Earned honorable mention 5A all-state honors from the Texas Sports Writers Association ... Rated as Texas' 58th-best prospect and one of the nation's top 42 cornerbacks according to Max Emfinger ... Maurice LANE #21

FS • 5-11 • 187 • Sr.-3L
Killeen, Texas

ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE
THORPE AWARD CANDIDATE

2005: Fifth-year senior Maurice Lane is a 2005 Thorpe Award and All-America honors candidate who has started 34 consecutive games for the Bears at free safety entering his final season at Baylor ... Baylor's No. 1 free safety begins his senior year with 205 career solo tackles, good for No. 4 on the school's all-time list, and he needs just 95 more to join College and Pro Hall of Famer Mike Singletary as the only Bears to record 300 or more career solo tackles ... With 281 career tackles, he's also just 23 stops shy of the Baylor top 10 and 100 from moving into the No. 2 position behind Singletary's BU career record of 662 stops ... Lane also hopes to become just the third player since 1977 (joining Singletary and Ray Berry) to lead the Bears in total tackles for three consecutive seasons.

2004: As a junior, Lane earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from the San Antonio Express-News, second-team all-league honors from The Associated Press, Houston Chronicle, Austin American-Statesman and Kansas City Star as well as honorable mention status from the Big 12 coaches after starting all 11 games at free safety and leading the Bears in tackles for the second straight year ... Paced the Bears and ranked No. 3 among all Big 12 performers (tops among league DBs) in total tackles with 104 (9.5 tpg) stops ... Led the Big 12 for the second consecutive season and ranked No. 3 nationally in solo tackles with 7.7 per game ... His 77 solos ranked as the eighth-best one-year total in school history ... Ended his junior campaign with four straight double-figure tackle efforts (10 vs. No. 16 Texas A&M, 13 at Texas Tech, a season-high 16 at No. 25 Oklahoma State and 14 vs. No. 2 Oklahoma) ... His 16 tackles against the Cowboys were the most by a Bear in 2004 and included 14 solos ... Lane's only other 2004 double-digit tackle performance came against North Texas when he was credited with 13 stops (12 solos) to earn The Dallas Morning News' Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honor ... Owns 14 career double-figure tackle performances, including five in 2004 and 11 over his last 18 starts ... Credited with five or more tackles in 10 of 11 2004 starts and has recorded 17 such performances in his last 18 games ... His 33-yard interception return vs. North Texas was a career first, one of four the Bears recorded in 2004 and a season-long pick return for Baylor ... Also credited with a pair of pass breakups and a forced fumble on the season to earn his third letter ... One of six Bears to play 700 or more snaps, he was on the field for 735 plays to rank fourth on the squad.

2003: Earned honorable mention Associated Press All-Big 12 honors after leading the Bears in tackles (129), solo tackles (89) and assisted stops (40) as a sophomore when he made 12 starts ... Also had six pass breakups, 1.5 tackles for losses totaling four yards and a quarterback sack ... Ranked fifth in the Big 12 and 30th nationally with 10.75 tackles per game, while his 7.42 solo tackles per game led the Big 12 and ranked 13th nationally ... His 129 total stops equaled the seventh-best one-season total in school history (and were the most since James Francis' 129 total tackles in 1989), while his 89 solo tackles ranked as the third-best single-season total in school history behind Singletary's performances in both 1978 and 1979 ... He recorded double-digit tackles in nine of 12 starts, including a career-best 23 tackle performance against Texas Tech (15 solo stops) ... His 23-tackle effort against the Red Raiders equaled the fifth-highest one-game total in school history, were most by a Bear since Singletary's 23-tackle performance against Texas Tech in 1979 ... Had 14 tackles at Texas A&M, 13 at No. 1 Oklahoma and 12 three times ... Made just three tackles in the Colorado victory, but one came as he teamed with Justin Crooks to stop the Buffs' Brian Calhoun for a two-yard loss on a fourth and goal play early in the fourth quarter at the one-yard line with the Bears holding a 35-30 lead ... Named Baylor's best defensive skill player ... Received second letter.

2002: The redshirt freshman started 11 games at free safety to earn his first letter ... Missed the Kansas State game due to a death in the family ... Finished the season with 48 tackles and a team-high-tying two fumble recoveries ... Ranked third on the squad in solo tackles (39) and was sixth in total stops ... Had a season-high eight tackles against Tulsa ... Collected seven tackles vs. Texas A&M ... Also had seven stops at Texas Tech ... Made six tackles and recovered two fumbles at New Mexico ... Had six stops at No. 23 Colorado ... Recorded five or more tackles five times.

2001: Redshirted as a true freshman.

High School: Killeen High School, Killeen, Texas ... Two-year starter and an All-District 13-5A pick for the Kangaroos ... Credited with 110 tackles, one interception, 18 pass breakups, four fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and three blocked kicks as a senior team MVP ... Led KHS in tackles in 2000 ... Coached by former Baylor football player David Wetzel at the District 13-5A school.

Personal: The son of Bennie and Wanda Lane, Maurice Jamaal Lane was born Dec. 3, 1983, in Miami, Fla. ... Business administration major.

Daniel SEPULVEDA #37

P • 6-3 • 223 • Jr.-2L

Dallas, Texas

ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE
RAY GUY AWARD CANDIDATE

2005: The 2004 Ray Guy Award winner as the nation's top collegiate punter, junior Daniel Sepulveda hopes to become the trophy's first-ever two-time honoree and the sixth two-time All-American in school history over his final two seasons as a Baylor Bear ... Only the third national college football award winner in school history, following in the footsteps of two-time Davey O'Brien selection Mike Singletary and inaugural Thorpe Award recipient Thomas Everett, Sepulveda began his Baylor career as a walk-on but was placed on scholarship after the 2003 season ... With a 3.48 cumulative grade-point average in accounting, the two-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 honoree should also contend for ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors over his final two campaigns ... Sepulveda's 44.3 yard career punting average ranks as the best in school history and fourth-best among active Division I-A punters, while he also owns the Baylor career mark for punts of 50 or more yards (50) and stands tied for No. 2 in career 60-yard punts (eight), No. 8 on the Bears' career punt yards list (6,600 yards) and No. 9 in punts (149) ... He has recorded at least one 50-yard punt in 22 of 23 career games, two or more such punts 15 times in that span ... Also expected to be the Bears' holder on field goals and PATs after taking over that duty late in the 2004 campaign.

2004: As a sophomore, Sepulveda won the Ray Guy Award as college football's top punter and earned second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation and Rivals.com, third-team recognition from The Associated Press, Collegefootballnews.com and CollegeSportsReport.com and honorable mention status from Sports Illustrated ... Also earned All-Sophomore recognition from both Collegefootballnews.com and CollegeSportsReport.com ... Garnered first-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches, The Associated Press and ESPN.com as well as six of seven newspapers around the league who select conference honor squads ... Ranked No. 2 in the Big 12 and No. 3 nationally in punting (46.0 ypp) ... Placed 41.9 percent of his punts (26 of 62) inside the opponent's 20-yard line and his net average of 42.5 ypp ranked No. 2 nationally ... Averaged 43.0 yards or better in seven games, including a pair of 50.0-yard average contests ... Improved net punting mark from 37.4 ypp as a freshman in 2003 to 42.5 ypp in 2004 and his sophomore season average of 46.0 ypp was second-best in school history behind Ty Atteberry's BU single-season mark of 46.35 yards ... Had 24 punts of 50-plus yards, including five of 60-plus yards ... Owned two of the Big 12's top punts in 2004, a career-long 69-yarder vs. Missouri (the longest by a Bear since 1998) and a 66-yarder at No. 5 Texas ... Averaged 43.9 yards per kick at Texas Tech and placed five of seven punts inside the Red Raider 20-yard line to tie a career-high ... Five of his seven punts against Mizzou pinned the Tigers inside their own 20, as he averaged 50.6 yards per kick ... Five of six punts against Texas State were 50 or more yards, as he averaged a career-best 55.0 yards per kick ... Also recorded a career-high tying five punts of 50 or more yards (in seven attempts) against No. 2 Oklahoma, four of which pinned the Sooners inside the 20-yard line ... Second-team Academic All-District VI selection by CoSIDA ... Earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors and Baylor's special teams MVP award for the second straight season ... Named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll for both the fall and spring semesters ... Received second letter and served as special teams captain.

2003: Despite not having punted since junior high school, Sepulveda earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from College Football News and second-team recognition from the league's coaches ... The redshirt freshman also was selected first-team Academic All-Big 12, earned a spot on The Sporting News freshman All-Big 12 squad and was also named to that publication's Dream Team while also earning honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from The Associated Press ... Named Baylor's special teams MVP ... A mid-year addition to the Ray Guy Award list, he ranked third in the Big 12 and 23rd nationally with his 43.1 yard average ... His average ranked fifth nationally among all freshman punters and 23 of his punts pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line ... Recorded a BU record 26 punts of 50 or more yards and had at least one such punt in every game ... Had a season-high four punts of 50 or more yards vs. UAB in his punting debut, when he averaged 46.4 yards on nine kicks ... Also established a school record with 3,750 yards punting for the season, and his 87 punts were just one shy of the BU single-season mark ... Averaged 43.0 yards or better in eight games, including a season-best 50.0 average on a season-low two punts at North Texas ... Enjoyed an outstanding day at Texas A&M, averaging a school-record (minimum eight punts) 47.8 yards per kick and placing a season-best four of his nine punts inside the Aggies' 20-yard line ... Had a then-career-long 62-yard punt against Oklahoma State, and hit punts of 61 and 60 yards at Kansas ... Named to both the fall and spring Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll ... Received first varsity letter.

2002: Walked-on to the team and was redshirted as a true freshman ... Selected to both the fall and spring Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

High School: Highland Park High School, Dallas ... Battled through injuries while earning second-team academic all-state honors as a senior linebacker ... Shawn BELL #11

QB • 6-1 • 207 • Jr.-2L

China Spring, Texas

2005: After a productive spring, junior quarterback Shawn Bell will enter the fall as Baylor's No. 1 signal caller and should challenge for Academic All-America honors in his final two seasons as a Bear ... Was full-speed throughout spring practice after breaking his left (non-throwing) hand in the first quarter of last year's game at Oklahoma State, an injury which forced him to miss the season-finale against No. 2 Oklahoma ... Bell, who has faced a ranked opponent in four of his five career starts under center, enters the 2005 season having thrown 159 consecutive passes without an interception dating back to the second quarter of Baylor's 2003 game at then-No. 1 Oklahoma, a string that ranks first among active Big 12 quarterbacks, and he has just one pick in 211 career pass attempts while completing 60.7 percent of his throws ... A 3.31 student in education, Bell posted a perfect 4.00 classroom mark during the spring 2005 semester.

2004: Appeared in nine games as a sophomore for Baylor and drew starts against No. 16 Texas A&M, at Texas Tech and at No. 25 Oklahoma State ... On the year, he hit 60.2 percent (68-of-113-0) of his passes for 544 yards and six touchdowns ... Ranked No. 8 in Big 12 with a 118.1 pass efficiency rating and No. 11 in passing average (60.4 ypg) ... A second-team Academic All-Big 12 performer, he saw spot duty as the Bears' No. 2 quarterback until then-starter Dane King broke his hand in the Iowa State game which thrust Bell into the top job the following week against No. 16 Texas A&M ... He earned Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors from The Dallas Morning News after directing Baylor's 35-34 overtime win over the 16th-ranked Aggies in just his third career start ... Completed a school-record 32 passes for 262 yards with a school-record tying four touchdown passes against Texas A&M, all of which were career-highs, as were his 50 attempts (which matched the second-best one-game total in school history) ... In the fourth quarter and overtime period against A&M, he was 16-of-23 for 139 yards with three touchdowns and the game-winning 2-point pass ... The following week in his second start of the season at Texas Tech, he was 9-of-22 passing for 83 yards ... He broke his non-throwing (left) hand in the first quarter of Baylor's game at No. 25 Oklahoma State and missed the remainder of that contest as well as the season-finale vs. No. 2 Oklahoma ... Connected on at least 60.0 percent of his pass attempts in six of his nine outings and rushed 19 times for minus-40 yards ... Had one punt for 32 yards on the year, a kick which pinned Texas A&M inside its own 20-yard line early in the fourth quarter ... Named to both the fall and spring Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll and earned second letter after playing 241 snaps ... Also served as the Bears' holder on field goals and PATs ... Recorded a 4.00 mark in the classroom over the spring 2005 semester.

2003: Played in eight games for the Bears, drawing starts at No. 1 Oklahoma and against No. 24 Oklahoma State in Waco ... For the season, Bell hit 60-of-98 passes with one touchdown and one interception for 576 yards ... Connected on 61.2 percent of his throws for the year and rushed 16 times for 23 yards, an average of 1.4 yards per play ... Saw limited action over BU's first nine games, but came off the bench early in the third quarter against Texas Tech to hit 14-of-18 passes for 138 yards with no interceptions ... His performance against the Red Raiders earned him his first career start the following week at No. 1 Oklahoma and he responded by going 16-of-30 through the air for 108 yards and one interception ... Lone punt of the season was a 40-yarder against the Sooners, which pinned them inside their own 20 ... In his second start the following week against Oklahoma State, Bell hit 21-of-33 passes for 219 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions ... His totals against the Cowboys for completions, attempts, yards and touchdowns were all career bests at that time ... Also picked up a career-high 34 yards rushing on four carries against the Cowboys ... Bell's first Baylor touchdown pass was a 12-yard strike to Robert Quiroga against Oklahoma State, while his 29-yard pass to Rashad Armstrong in the same game was a then-career-long completion ... Named to both the fall and spring Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll ... Received first varsity letter.

BAYLOR FOOTBALL WALK-ON PROGRAM

Baylor's 2005 football roster features nine student-athletes who began their collegiate careers as walk-ons, but have since earned a scholarship from head coach Guy Morriss and his staff. The most notable walk-on turned scholarship recipient is junior punter Daniel Sepulveda, who won the 2004 Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter. Sepulveda, having not punted since early in his high school career, became Baylor's top punter as a redshirt freshman in 2003 and was placed on scholarship by Morriss after earning second-team 2003 All-Big 12 honors in January 2004.

Other walk-on Bears who have earned scholarships since Morriss' arrival in Waco include: Jordan Adams, Baylor Barbee, Joseph DeWoody, Michael Gary, Julian Hill, Quincy Jenkins, Tyler Lindstrom, Nick Moore, Shaun Rochon, David Schieck, Marcus Venus, Kenny Webb and Jonathan Weeks.

COACHES

HEAD COACH GUY MORRISS

Guy MORRISS

Head Coach
Third Season at Baylor

When Baylor introduced its 24th head football coach, the University selected an individual with strong Texas ties, successful playing and coaching experiences at the game's highest levels and the respect of the state's high school coaches and former players.

On Dec. 11, 2002, Baylor welcomed Guy Morriss as its new head football coach and he immediately began the daunting challenge of rebuilding the Bears' gridiron fortunes.

Morriss' resume includes 16 years of experience as a coach at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. He spent 18 years in the National Football League, where he was an All-Pro performer, played in two Super Bowls and coached for three seasons. A Colorado City, Texas, native and two-time All Southwest Conference lineman at TCU, Morriss is certainly no stranger to the Lone Star's storied football landscape.

Playing with the nation's second-youngest team in 2004, Morriss' second year patrolling the Floyd Casey Stadium sidelines saw Baylor post a 3-8 overall record and produce one of the greatest victories in school history, as the unranked Bears knocked off No. 16 Texas A&M, 35-34, in overtime at Waco. That upset win, Baylor's first over the Aggies since 1985, ended both the Bears' 13-game losing and 18-game winless strings to its longtime rival from College Station. The A&M victory also marked BU's first over a nationally ranked opponent since 1998 (and first over a rated league foe since 1995), which snapped a 22-game skid to ranked teams. For the second consecutive year, Baylor signal callers set a school single-season record for completion percentage (.595), despite the fact that three different Bears drew at least one start under center, and its quarterback trio established a new school one-season mark for completions (235).

The 2004 campaign also saw Baylor punter Daniel Sepulveda earn the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter and become only the third individual in program history to win a season-ending national college football award, joining Mike Singletary (two-time Davey O'Brien winner) and Thomas Everett (Thorpe Award). Sepulveda, who also became the first Bear to earn All-America honors on the gridiron since 1995, was one of two Baylor players (Willie Andrews was the other) to garner 2004 first-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches. Oklahoma (eight) and Texas (six) were the only schools with more first-team honorees than Baylor.

It marked just the second time in the nine-year history of the Big 12 Conference that Baylor placed two student-athletes on the coaches' first team and its five coaches honorees were also its most since the Big 12's inception. In two seasons under Morriss, nine Bears have earned all-conference honors from the league's coaches, one shy of Baylor's total for the 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002 seasons combined.

The 2005 NFL Draft saw the Kansas City Chiefs select DE Khari Long in the sixth round, the highest a Bear had been selected since 1999. Long was one of three Baylor players to earn 2005 postseason All-Star game invites.

Known for his no-nonsense approach and aggressive recruiting, Morriss' Bears finished 3-9 in his rookie season. However, there were enough moments of youthful brilliance along the way to give Baylor's tradition-rich program hope for the future.

After dropping the first two games of the 2003 campaign, Baylor put together a three-game win streak highlighted by a 42-30 victory over two-time Big 12 North division champion Colorado in the Bears' league opener. The win string was BU's longest in some seven seasons and the Colorado triumph allowed Morriss to become just the third Baylor coach since 1950 (and only the sixth ever) to win his conference debut on the Bear sideline.

Morriss' first season in Waco also saw the Baylor defense limit then-No. 1 Oklahoma to a then-season-low 56 rushing yards (only national champion LSU held the Sooners to fewer yards on the ground) and register the sixth-highest one-season sack total (29) in school history and its best mark since 1994. The BU offense produced its first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in All-Big 12 running back Rashad Armstrong and its quarterbacks completed a then-school-record 56.7 percent of their passes, while the Bears' special team units recorded four scores.

Five Bears earned 2003 all-conference honors and three players participated in season-ending All-Star games, as did Morriss, who served as the head offensive coach for the Gray squad at the 2003 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic. He was joined on the Gray's sideline by Baylor offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Brent Pease and Bears' center Cedric Fields.

In addition to the program's improvement on the field, it also continues to make strides in the classroom. Since the fall of 2003, Morriss' Bears have averaged a 2.44 semester grade-point average with a high mark of 2.46 for the fall 2003 semester. An average of 39 football players since Morriss' arrival have been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll which honors student-athletes for achieving a 3.00 mark or better during each semester.

"I WOULD TELL ANY MOM AND DAD WHO HAS A KID INTERESTED IN BAYLOR TO ALLOW GUY MORRISS TO CALL AND TALK TO THEM."

– Craig James
CBS College Football Analyst

"BAYLOR GOT ITSELF A REAL JEWEL WHEN IT GOT GUY MORRISS. HE IS THE KIND OF GUY I'D LIKE MY SON TO PLAY FOR."

– Raymond Berry
NFL Hall of Famer

"MORRISS HAS BUILT A SOLID STAFF THAT'S GOOD AT TEACHING. EVEN MORE VITAL IS THE GROUP'S POSITIVE ATTITUDE DURING REBUILDING."

– Tom Dienhart
The Sporting News

"WE HAVE EXPERIENCED A TRANSITION ONCE BEFORE AND WE KNEW WHERE THE PITFALLS WERE GOING TO BE AND THE CHALLENGE OF WHAT IT WAS GOING TO BE LIKE. I THINK IN OUR PARTICULAR CASE WE FEEL LIKE WE HAVE A GOOD PLAN. YOU HAVE TO STAY TRUE TO THE PLAN. YOU CAN GO OFF AND PANIC AND GO IN A THOUSAND DIFFERENT DIRECTIONS: 'WELL, LET'S TRY THIS,' NOT 'LET'S DO THAT.' OUR SCHEMES ARE PROVEN, AND WE'RE NOT GOING TO CHANGE. THE THINGS WE HAVE BEEN TALKING ABOUT SINCE WE GOT HERE ARE STILL IN PLACE AND THEY ARE GOING TO STAY IN PLACE."

— Guy Morriss

Off the field, BU players continued to give back to the community by making numerous appearances at local schools and participating in several service projects throughout the area.

Morriss arrived in Waco from Lexington, Ky., where he spent the previous six seasons helping resurrect the Kentucky football program, the last two as the Wildcats' head coach.

At Kentucky, Morriss and his accomplished staff were credited with rebuilding Kentucky's relationships with high school coaches, as well as earning the respect of his players with a fair, no-nonsense approach. He beefed up the team's off-season conditioning by instituting stringent 6 a.m. workouts, designed to toughen it physically and mentally.

In 2001, Morriss took over a Wildcat program in disarray. With NCAA probation looming in the school's immediate future, Morriss was introduced as Kentucky's head coach on Feb. 6, 2001, the day before national signing day, and began to stabilize the program.

Despite the inherent obstacles, Morriss confidently rallied the Wildcat players and staff. In his first season as a head coach in 2001, he guided UK to a 2-9 record, which included three losses by four points or fewer to Southeastern Conference opponents.

A season highlight included a 56-30 win at Vanderbilt that resulted in National Player of the Week honors for Wildcat quarterback Jared Lorenzen, who threw for 453 yards and six scores against the Commodores.

In the second half of the 2001 season, Kentucky led the SEC in passing offense (376 yards per game) and ranked third in total offense (456.2 per game) while scoring an average of 29.8 points.

Year two saw the fruits of Morriss' leadership become quickly evident. The 2002 Wildcats turned some heads with a 7-5 record, including wins over Mississippi State, eventual SEC West Division champion Arkansas and 17th-ranked Louisville. The seven-win season in 2002 was only the fifth since 1955 for Kentucky, which received votes in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. UK's defeats included a four-point setback vs. South Carolina, a seven-point loss at then-No. 7 Florida and an unbelievable three-point defeat on the game's final play against then-No. 17 LSU.

In Morriss' two seasons as Kentucky's head coach, 10 Wildcats earned All-SEC recognition, three were named All-American and 43 garnered academic All-SEC honors. In addition, three players were selected in the NFL Draft, including Dewayne Robertson, a 2003 first-round pick of the New York Jets and the first UK defender taken in the first round since Art Still's 1978 selection by the Kansas City Chiefs. In his six seasons all-told in Lexington, four UK offensive linemen were selected first-team all-conference and three earned freshman All-America honors.

The Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 20 in passing offense five of Morriss' six years with the program and in the nation's top 15 in total offense in three of those seasons. In 1996, the year before Morriss' arrival, UK finished 109th nationally in total offense.

Morriss spent four seasons as Kentucky's assistant head coach and offensive line coach before being promoted to head coach. During his time as an assistant, the Wildcats twice earned bowl invitations and their offense scored more points and generated more yards than any previous four-year period in school history.

Recognized as an outstanding teacher of line play, Morriss began his coaching career as an offensive line assistant coach with the New England Patriots from 1988 to 1989 under head coach and NFL Hall of Famer Raymond Berry. He was the offensive coordinator at Mansfield (Texas) High School in 1991. Morriss was then selected as the head coach of the Washington Marauders of the Professional Spring Football League in 1992, but the league ceased operations prior to the start of the season.

From 1992 to 1993, he coached the offensive line at Valdosta State (Ga.) University before returning to the NFL in 1994 as a member of Buddy Ryan's Arizona Cardinals staff. Morriss then spent the 1995 campaign with the Canadian Football League's San Antonio Texans, where he worked with current Baylor assistant coaches Bill Bradley and Mark Nelson. That year, San Antonio was second in the CFL in points scored and advanced to the semifinals of the Grey Cup playoffs.

Prior to his Kentucky tenure, Morriss spent one season at Mississippi State, where he coached the offensive line in 1996. Bulldogs' offensive tackle Brent Smith garnered first-team All-SEC honors and was a second-round draft selection by the NFL's Miami Dolphins.

Morriss first made headlines in the Lone Star state as an All-Southwest Conference guard at TCU. A three-year letterwinner for the Horned Frogs, Morriss was a two-time All-SWC performer (second team as a junior in 1971 and first team in 1972) who started 28 games in his collegiate career. Following his final collegiate season, he played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray Game, the Senior Bowl, the Coaches' All-America Game and the College All-Star Game. Morriss captained the Horned Frogs in his senior year and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

A 1973 TCU graduate (secondary education), Morriss was a second-round draft pick of the Philadelphia Eagles who went on to play 11 seasons at center for the franchise. He helped the Eagles to four consecutive playoff berths (1978-82) under legendary coach Dick Vermeil, including NFC East crowns in 1979 and 1980, and was a starter on the organization's 1980 NFC championship team that played in Super Bowl XV. Morriss, an Eagles' team captain for five seasons, was selected to the 1981 All-Pro team.

From 1984 to 1987 Morriss played for the New England Patriots, helping Berry's team to playoff appearances in 1985 and 1986. He was a member of the Patriots' 1985 AFC championship squad and played in Super Bowl XX.

When the 2004 Super Bowl was played in Houston, The Dallas Morning News named Morriss to its All-Texas High School Super Bowl Team. He is one of only two active NCAA Division I-A coaches (his Eagle teammate, current North Carolina head coach John Bunting, is the other) to have played in the Super Bowl.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Gerald CARR

Assistant Head Coach/RBs
Third Season at Baylor

Gerald Carr, a 24-year coaching veteran, serves as Baylor's assistant head coach and tutors the Bears' running backs. Baylor's third-year assistant head coach acts on behalf of Guy Morriss when the head coach is unavailable and handles numerous administrative duties for the program.

He has worked at nearly every level of his profession, including stints on both the high school and collegiate levels, as well as National Football League and Arena Football League coaching experiences.

His first season at Baylor saw running back Rashad Armstrong earn third-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches and become the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 (and just the sixth all-time). Armstrong rushed for 1,074 yards, the fifth-best one-season mark in school history. Carr also directed a 2003 BU ground attack that increased its productivity by nearly seven yards per game over its 2002 output and recorded its highest per-game average since the 1998 campaign. In 2004, he tutored Paul Mosley, whose per-carry average of 4.6 yards was the best by a Baylor season rushing leader since 1997.

Hired as Kentucky's running backs coach in February 2002, Carr was promoted to assistant head coach two months later. During his lone season in Lexington, he mentored the Southeastern Conference's leading rusher, Artose Pinner, a consensus first-team all-league performer who also earned Associated Press SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors. Pinner was selected in the fourth round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

Prior to his UK stint, Carr spent the 2001 campaign at Indiana University, where he was the Hoosiers' quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator. Under his tutelage, IU quarterback Antwaan Randle El earned first-team All-America and Big Ten Most Valuable Player honors. Randle El became the first player in NCAA history to have 40 rushing touchdowns and 40 passing scores in a career and also the only player in NCAA history to pass for more than 6,000 yards and rush for more than 3,000 yards in a career. Randle El, who rushed for more yards than any quarterback in NCAA history and ranks fifth all-time in total offense with 11,364 yards, finished sixth in the 2001 Heisman Trophy voting and was a second-round selection of the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers.

Carr, who began his coaching career in 1981 at his prep alma mater, North Mecklenberg (N.C.) High School, has been an offensive assistant for all but one season of his collegiate coaching career, working at Southern Illinois (1982), Davidson (1983-85), Akron (1986-88), Washington State (1989-90), Arizona (1991), North Carolina (1992-94), Wake Forest (1999), Indiana (2001), Kentucky (2002) and Baylor. He gained his first bowl experience with North Carolina, helping coach Mack Brown's Tar Heels to the Peach, Gator, and Sun bowls and some 27 victories during his three seasons (1992-94) with the program. He also helped Wake Forest to a victory in the 1999 Aloha Bowl.

He entered the professional ranks as wide receivers coach for the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-98. The Eagles advanced to the playoffs following the 1995 and 1996 regular seasons. In 1996, Pro Bowl wideout Irving Fryar set the Eagles' single-season record for receptions with 88.

Carr spent the 2000 season with the Carolina Cobras of the Arena Football League, working as the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/wide receivers coach.

A native of Davidson, N.C., Carr played quarterback at Southern Illinois and was a Saluki letterwinner from 1978-80 before earning his bachelor's degree (administrative sciences) from SIU in 1981. He and his wife, Vanessa, have two daughters, Ashonti and Miteya.

Bill BRADLEY

Defensive Coordinator
Second Season at Baylor

Bill Bradley, who has been a member of coaching staffs which have guided 15 teams to winning records in his 22 seasons on the sidelines, begins his second year as Baylor's defensive coordinator.

In Bradley's first season with the Bears, his defense produced four All-Big 12 performers and allowed an average of nearly 30 yards per game fewer (421.1 ypg) than it did in 2003 (450.0 ypg). The Bears' pass defense, which ranked 101st among all NCAA I-A programs in 2003 prior to his arrival, was rated No. 62 at the end of his first season in Waco.

Bradley joined Guy Morriss' program from the National Football League's New York Jets, where he had spent three years (2001-03) as the team's defensive backs coach. The Jets ranked among the NFL's top 10 in pass defense during the 2003 campaign, advanced to the playoffs twice (2001 and 2002) and captured the 2002 AFC East title during his tenure on coach Herman Edwards' staff.

Prior to working for the Jets, Bradley served in the same capacity with the Buffalo Bills from 1998 to 2000. Buffalo led the AFC in pass defense during the 1999 season and ranked second in 2000. The Bills, who advanced to the AFC playoffs in both 1998 and 1999, led the NFL in total defense in 1999, and ranked third in that category in 1998 and sixth in 2000.

Before moving into the NFL, Bradley served as the defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts in 1996 and 1997, helping the team to Grey Cup victories both years. He also served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the CFL's San Antonio Texans (1995) and the Sacramento Gold Miners (1994), worked as the defensive backs coach of the World League's San Antonio Riders (1991-92) and spent three years with the CFL's Calgary Stampeders (1988-90).

Bradley broke into the coaching ranks with the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers in 1983 as the team's defensive backs coach and personnel assistant, then spent the 1984 campaign as the club's secondary coach. He then moved on to serve as secondary coach of the USFL's Memphis Showboats (1985) and spent a year coaching at the University of Texas (1987) before moving into the CFL in 1988.

An outstanding NFL player, Bradley was selected in the third round of the 1969 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles and went on to earn three All-Pro awards (1971-73) as a free safety for the franchise. In addition, he served as the Eagles' punter and kick returner. Bradley led the NFL in interceptions in both 1971 (11) and 1972 (nine) and in the process became the first player ever to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons, a feat that has been matched just once since.

One of Morriss' teammates in Philadelphia from 1973 to 1976, Bradley still holds Eagle team records for career interception return yardage (536) and club single-season marks for interceptions and return yardage (11 for 249 in 1971), as well as sharing the team's all-time interception record with Eric Allen (34). He played in 114 NFL games, spending the 1969-76 seasons with the Eagles and the 1977 campaign with both the Minnesota Vikings and St. Louis Cardinals.

A native of Palestine, Texas, Bradley was a high school All-America quarterback who led his team to the 1965 state title and went on to a standout college career as a quarterback and defensive back at the University of Texas from 1966 to 1968. He served as a tri-captain of coach Darrell Royal's 1968 Longhorn team which finished the season 9-1-1, tied for the Southwest Conference championship, was ranked third in the final Associated Press poll and fifth in the season-ending United Press International poll, and beat Tennessee 36-13 in the Cotton Bowl.

Bradley recorded a UT single-game record four interceptions in the Longhorns' 35-14 win over Texas A&M as a senior, a record that still stands today and a mark that is the best-ever by a SWC performer. Following his collegiate career, he played in the 1969 Hula Bowl, the Coaches All-America Game and the College All-Star Game. Bradley earned UT's 1968 D.H. Byrd Leadership Award.

A member of the Texas High School, University of Texas and Philadelphia Eagles Hall of Fames, Bradley and his wife, Susan, have two children, Matthew and Carissa.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Mark NELSON

Special Teams Coordinator/LBs
Third Season at Baylor

Mark Nelson, recognized as one of the nation's finest special teams coaches, is in his third year as Baylor's special teams coordinator and second as its linebackers coach after directing the Bears' defensive ends and special teams in 2003.

Nelson's special teams units have arguably been the strength of Guy Morriss' first two Baylor squads. In 2004, Daniel Sepulveda earned the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter after ranking No. 3 nationally with his 46.0 yard average and Willie Andrews was a consensus first-team All-Big 12 honoree as a kick return specialist after leading the league in kickoff returns with his 24.7 yard mark. The Bears, who ranked No. 5 nationally in net punting (40.6 ypp), No. 35 in kickoff returns (21.7 ypr) and No. 36 in punt returns (11.1 ypr), were the only Big 12 team to rank among the nation's top 36 in all three of those statistical categories in 2004.

While tutoring an All-American and two first-team all-league players on special teams, Nelson also coached Bears' linebacker Justin Crooks, a consensus 2004 second-team All-Big 12 pick.

The 2003 Bears produced three touchdown returns in the kicking game, a blocked kick recovered for a safety and the Big 12's third-best punter in Sepulveda, who averaged 43.1 yards per kick. BU return specialist Robert Quiroga, who returned two 2003 kickoffs for touchdowns, and Sepulveda each received All-Big 12 honors for their performances.

Prior to his arrival in Waco, Nelson made his mark on the Southeastern Conference in two seasons as Kentucky's special teams coach. Two Wildcats – punter Glenn Pakulak and kick returner Derek Abney – were named first-team All-SEC both years under Nelson. In 2002, Abney also earned first-team All-America honors after setting an NCAA record with six kick returns for touchdowns (four punts and two kickoffs), while Pakulak won the Mosi Tatupu Award as the National Special Teams Player of the Year and also garnered All-America status.

The 2002 Wildcats also led the SEC in net punting (40.1) and punt return average (15.6) and were second in kickoff return average (23.6). In addition to his special teams duties, Nelson coached the Wildcats' tight ends in 2001 and the defensive ends in 2002.

He worked in the Canadian Football League from 1992-96. Nelson was with the Edmonton Eskimos from 1992-94 as special teams coordinator, linebackers coach (1992) and running backs coach (1993-94). Edmonton won the 1993 Grey Cup and Nelson was named CFL Special Teams Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Nelson became acquainted with Guy Morriss when they first coached together with the CFL's San Antonio Texans in 1995. Nelson was the linebackers coach and San Antonio was a conference finalist. He won another Grey Cup in 1996 as defensive line coach for the Toronto Argonauts, where he worked with Baylor defensive coordinator Bill Bradley.

After leaving the CFL, Nelson was defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for three seasons at Valdosta State (Ga.) University. His defensive units were consistently ranked at or near the top of the Gulf South Conference.

Nelson spent the 2000 season as Arkansas Tech's defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Tech went 7-3, including a win over Delta State, the only loss suffered by the eventual NCAA Division II national champion.

A native of Edmonton, Alberta, Nelson was an NAIA All-American during his collegiate playing career at East Central Oklahoma State University. He received his bachelor's degree from East Central Oklahoma in 1980 and earned a master's degree from Pittsburg (Kan.) State in 1988. Nelson played seven seasons in the CFL as a linebacker and fullback with Calgary (1980-85) and Saskatchewan (1986).

He began his coaching career in 1985 at Choctaw High School in Edmond, Okla., then entered the junior college ranks at Independence (Kan.) Community College, where he was an assistant coach from 1987-89, before being promoted to head coach for the 1990 and 1991 seasons. ICC played in the 1987 Dixie Rotary Bowl. He left ICC in 1992 for the CFL and Edmonton.

Nelson and his wife, Lori, have three children, sons Kyle and Kolton, and daughter Kayli.

Brent PEASE

Offensive Coordinator/QBs
Third Season at Baylor

Brent Pease, a former National Football League quarterback, assistant coach for a NCAA Division I-AA national championship team and coach of the I-AA Player of the Year, begins his third season as Baylor's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after working in the same position on coach Guy Morriss' Kentucky staff.

Despite starting three different quarterbacks in 2004, Baylor again broke the school's single-season mark for completion percentage (.595) and established a new standard for total completions with 235. The 2004 Bears threw for 2,342 yards, the fifth-highest one-year total in school history, and improved their total offense average (311.8 ypg) by more than 30 yards per game over their 2003 output.

Under Pease's guidance, the 2003 Baylor offense produced the program's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 (and just the sixth ever) in running back Rashad Armstrong, who earned All-Big 12 honors after rushing for 1,074 yards. The Bears' signal callers, meanwhile, combined to complete 56.7 percent of their passes on the year, at the time a single-season school record. Following the season, Pease served as Morriss' offensive assistant coach in the annual Blue-Gray All-Star Classic.

At Kentucky, Pease tutored second-team All-Southeastern Conference quarterback Jared Lorenzen, who led a Wildcat offense that averaged a league-leading 32.1 points a game in 2002. Another of the Wildcats' offensive threats during Pease's tenure was the SEC's leading rusher, Artose Pinner, who earned first-team all-conference and league Offensive Player of the Year honors. Pinner was selected in the fourth round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

Pease was the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Northern Arizona University for two seasons, helping the Lumberjacks advance to the 1999 NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. He coached quarterback Travis Brown, who was MVP of the 1999 Blue-Gray Game. During the 2000 season, NAU running back Marcus King rushed for 1,474 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Pease coached at his alma mater, the University of Montana, from 1991-98. He was the offensive coordinator the last three seasons and also coached the quarterbacks (1994-98), running backs (1991-98) and wide receivers (1991-94).

With generous assistance from Pease's play-calling ability, Montana was a fixture in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs each of his last six seasons. The Grizzlies won the 1995 national I-AA championship, finished as runner-up in 1996 and were semi-finalists in 1994. Montana rolled up 185 points, 46.3 per game, in the four playoff games en route to the 1995 title. Pease's offensive unit generated 191 points, 47.8 per game, in the 1996 playoff series.

Pease's quarterback in 1995, David Dickenson, won the Walter Payton Award as the Division I-AA National Player of the Year and was the Big Sky Conference's MVP from 1993-95. Dickenson's successor, Brian Ah Yat, was a three-year Walter Payton Award finalist and played in the Hula Bowl. Montana quarterbacks won the league's Offensive Player of the Year award five times in Pease's eight seasons at the school. He also coached two All-America wide receivers.

Pease is a 1990 graduate of the University of Montana. After two seasons at Walla Walla (Wash.) Community College, he played quarterback for the Grizzlies in 1985-86. Pease led the nation in total offense in 1986 and set nine school records during a standout career.

After college, Pease was drafted by the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and played two years for the Houston Oilers (1987-88), where one of his teammates during the Oilers' two-year playoff run was former Baylor standout quarterback Cody Carlson. He also has playing experience in the Canadian Football League, the World League of American Football and the Arena Football League. In 1991, he was the first player selected in the inaugural WLAF draft by the Birmingham Fire.

A native of Mountain Home, Idaho, Pease and his wife, Paula, have a daughter, Halle, and a son, Karsten.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Tom ADAMS

Defensive Line

Third Season at Baylor

Tom Adams enters his third season on the Baylor staff and his second coaching the Bears' defensive line. Adams, who spent six seasons at Kentucky before returning to the Lone Star state with Guy Morriss, tutored BU's defensive tackles in 2003.

In 2004, Adams coached BU defensive end Khari Long, who was chosen by the Kansas City Chiefs in the sixth round of the 2005 National Football League Draft, and Montez Murphy, an honorable mention Associated Press All-Big 12 defensive end.

His first year at Baylor saw the Bears record 29 sacks, their highest one-year total since 1994, and the sixth-best mark in school history. BU's 2003 sack total also ranked sixth among all Big 12 programs.

Adams' final season at Kentucky produced All-Southeastern Conference tackle Dewayne Robertson, who was taken as the fourth overall selection in the 2003 NFL Draft by the New York Jets. Robertson was the first UK defender chosen in the NFL Draft's first round in some 25 years.

With injuries striking UK's defensive tackles in 2001, Adams brought out the best in senior Derrick Johnson. Seldom-used prior to the 2001 campaign, Johnson proved to be a reliable performer and signed with the Cincinnati Bengals as a free-agent.

Handling the entire defensive line prior to the 2000 season, Adams' 1999 D-line increased its production across the board over the 1998 campaign. The Wildcat lineman totaled 183 tackles, 22 tackles for loss and 18 quarterback sacks. The Kentucky line helped limit opponents to 148.5 rushing yards per game, the best mark for a UK defense since 1987. End Dennis Johnson led the way with 39 tackles and five sacks and was chosen second-team All-SEC.

The play of Adams' 1998 defensive line helped the Wildcats total 88 tackles behind the line of scrimmage, most for a UK team in statistics available since 1985. UK's 29 quarterback sacks ranked third in the Southeastern Conference. Dennis Johnson was named second-team Freshman All-America by The Sporting News.

He coached Kentucky's defensive ends in 1997. Under Adams' guidance, Bamidele Ali ranked third in the SEC in quarterback sacks with seven, even though Ali was in his first season as a defensive lineman. Adams' ends notched 17 of UK's 21 sacks.

Adams went to Kentucky from Southern Methodist University. While at SMU, Adams coached the defensive line for three years, and the defensive tackles one year, including 1993 All-Southwest Conference performers Chad Patton and Adam Voyles.

From 1985-92, Adams guided the defensive line at Sam Houston State. In his final season at SHSU, Adams' defensive line helped set a single-season school record with 47 quarterback sacks. In 1991, the Bearkats won the Southland Conference title and made the NCAA I-AA playoffs. He coached seven all-conference players and one All-American at SHSU.

The El Paso, Texas, native broke into the coaching ranks on a full-time basis at Wharton County (Texas) Junior College, where he led the offensive and defensive lines from 1982-1984.

Adams played his college football at Rice, where he was twice (1979 and 1980) named the team's Most Valuable Defensive Lineman and served as a team captain during his senior season. He spent the 1981 campaign as a student assistant coach with the Owls' defensive line and completed his bachelor's degree, with a double major in psychology and physical education, in 1982.

Adams and his wife, Rita, have two daughters, Brandi and Beth, a son, Branch, and two grandchildren, Olivia and Cali.

Larry HOEFER

Safeties

Third Season at Baylor

Texas native and veteran defensive coach Larry Hoefer enters his third season as Baylor's safeties coach and his 31st year on the sideline.

In his first year with the Bears, Hoefer coached the Bears' leading tackler in Maurice Lane, who tallied 129 stops from his free safety spot en route to honorable mention All-Big 12 honors, and 2004 Las Vegas Classic invitee Derrick Cash, the team's fourth-leading tackler as an outside safety. Another of his players, outside safety Willie Andrews, led the team in interceptions and was third on the squad in tackles.

The 2004 season saw Andrews earn first-team All-Big 12 honors as a safety from The Dallas Morning News and Lane receive first-team all-conference recognition from the San Antonio Express-News. Lane paced the squad in tackles for the second consecutive season, while Andrews again ranked third in tackles and recorded a team-high three sacks.

Hoefer spent two seasons as safeties coach on Guy Morriss' Kentucky staff before making the move to Waco. He went to UK from Texas-El Paso, where he was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the 2000 season. The Miners posted an 8-3 regular season record, were co-champions of the Western Athletic Conference and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. The bowl game marked Hoefer's sixth as a coach, in addition to four at Texas Tech and one (1988) during his previous stop at UTEP.

Using an eight-man front under Hoefer's guidance, UTEP reduced its rushing yardage allowed from 208.2 yards per game in 1999 to 153.8 ypg during the 2000 season. UTEP held five of its league opponents under 100 yards rushing. The Miners also ranked 19th nationally in pass efficiency defense.

Hoefer worked for coach Spike Dykes at Texas Tech from 1994-99, where he coached the Red Raiders' outside linebackers and worked with former Baylor defensive coordinator John Goodner. Tech was bowl-eligible every season and played in the Cotton, Copper, Alamo and Independence bowls during Hoefer's tenure. Among his pupils were Marcus Coleman, a first-team All-American in 1995 who plays for the Houston Texans, and Ty Ardoin, who went on to play for the New York Giants. Hoefer also coached All-Big 12 picks Robert Johnson and Jody Brown. The Red Raiders ranked first in the nation for takeaways over a five-year period from 1993-97.

Hoefer had multiple responsibilities as an assistant at Missouri from 1989-93, working his way up from receivers coach to defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. His first term at UTEP, from 1982-88, was capped by a 10-win season and a berth in the 1988 Independence Bowl.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Hoefer stayed in his hometown and played defensive back at McMurry University, graduating in 1973. He was team captain and earned the squad's MVP honor.

Hoefer's first coaching stop was at Tarleton State from 1974-75 as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs. He went on to coach at Big Spring (Texas) High School in 1976 and Abilene (Texas) High from 1977-80. Hoefer coached at West Texas State in 1981 before joining the UTEP staff for the first time.

Hoefer and his wife, Kathy, have three children – married daughter Alison Schupp, and sons Tyler and Bennett – and two granddaughters, Sydney and Samantha Schupp. Bennett is a sophomore defensive back on the Baylor football team, while Tyler graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy and is a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Harold JACKSON

Receivers

Third Season at Baylor

Harold Jackson, a five-time All-Pro wide receiver and 10-year National Football League coaching veteran, is in his third season as Baylor's wide receivers coach.

In his first year on the BU sideline, Jackson coached All-Big 12 performer Robert Quiroga, who snagged a team-high 42 receptions for 490 yards and four scores, and averaged 31.4 yards on 14 kickoff returns. A year later, Dominique Zeigler led the Bears in receptions (55) en route to honorable mention All-Big 12 recognition by the league's coaches.

Jackson came to Baylor after spending two seasons as Guy Morriss' receivers coach at Kentucky. In his first year at UK, wideout Derek Abney became a first-team All-Southeastern Conference performer, a feat he repeated in 2002 when he also earned first-team All-America honors. Jackson also oversaw the development of Aaron Boone and Tommy Cook, who blossomed as reliable contributors during the 2001 campaign.

He coached receivers for 10 years in the NFL with New England (1985-89), Tampa Bay (1992-93) and New Orleans (1997-99). In his first NFL season as a coach, the Patriots won the AFC championship and played in the 1986 Super Bowl. It was at New England where Jackson became acquainted with Morriss, who played for the Patriots from 1984-87 and was an assistant coach with the organization in 1988-89.

From New England, Jackson served as an assistant coach at North Carolina Central University in Durham, N.C., during the 1990 season. In 1991, he was the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Night of the Arena Football League before returning to the NFL at Tampa Bay.

Following his two-year coaching stint with Tampa Bay, Jackson spent the 1994 season as the head coach at Virginia Union College in Richmond, Va. He then served as head coach for two seasons (1995-96) at Benedict College in Columbia, S.C., where he helped revive a football program that had been defunct for 29 years, before joining the Saints' staff.

Jackson enjoyed a sterling 16-year NFL playing career with the Los Angeles Rams (1968, 1973-77), Philadelphia Eagles (1969-72), New England Patriots (1978-81), Minnesota Vikings (1982) and Seattle Seahawks (1983). While with the Eagles, one of his teammates was Baylor defensive coordinator Bill Bradley. All-told, Jackson played on eight playoff teams as a pro.

His career totals include 579 receptions for 10,372 yards and 76 touchdowns. Jackson had 29 career 100-yard games and three 1,000-yard seasons. He ranks 16th in league history in receiving yardage. Jackson led the NFL in receptions in 1972 and in receiving yardage in both 1969 and 1972.

A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Jackson played his collegiate football at Jackson State University and is a member of both the Mississippi and JSU Sports Hall of Fames. A 1968 JSU graduate, his hometown of Hattiesburg held Harold Jackson Day and presented him with a key to the city. Over the years, he has been active as a speaker for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Hattiesburg Department of Recreation.

Chris LANCASTER

Offensive Line

Third Season at Baylor

The Bears' 2003 offensive line, which relied on seven underclassmen among its 10-man rotation, helped pave the way for the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in Rashad Armstrong. Baylor's 2003 ground attack ranked as the school's most productive since the 1998 campaign. Lancaster's 2004 o-line protected enough for BU's quarterbacks to set school single-season records for completion percentage and total completions.

He coached offensive tackles, tight ends and special teams at Baylor from 1993-96, a stint which included a trip to the 1994 Alamo Bowl. One of Lancaster's former pupils, offensive tackle Fred Miller, was a two-year All-Southwest Conference performer and currently is the starting right tackle for the National Football League's Chicago Bears. Lancaster also was a graduate assistant coach at Baylor (1990-91), working with tight ends and linebackers, and the Bears played in the 1991 Copper Bowl.

A native of Fort Rucker, Ala., Lancaster grew up in Atlanta, Ga. He was Clemson's starting fullback from 1985-87 before suffering a career-ending injury. Lancaster finished his career at Clemson as a student assistant coach in 1988-89 and worked with the running backs while earning his management degree in 1989. During his five seasons at Clemson, the Tigers won three ACC championships (1986-88) and played in five bowl games – the Independence, Gator (twice) and Citrus (twice).

After serving as a graduate assistant at Baylor for two seasons, Lancaster returned to Clemson in 1992 as a graduate assistant and worked with the Tigers' tight ends.

Following his second stint in Waco, Lancaster coached the offensive line for two seasons at both Sam Houston State (1997-98) and McNeese State (1999-2000). McNeese State went to the 2000 Division I-AA playoffs and led the conference in both rushing and total offense. Lancaster protégé Wes Hines earned All-America honors and signed a contract with the Minnesota Vikings.

While at Sam Houston State, in addition to guiding the offensive line, Lancaster was the running game coordinator in 1997 and the offensive coordinator in 1998. He coached Bearkat offensive lineman Greg Studdard, who played in the NFL with both Atlanta and the New York Giants.

In 2001, Lancaster began a two-year stay at Kentucky. After coaching the defensive ends for Guy Morriss in 2001, he returned to overseeing the offensive line the following season.

As UK's defensive ends coach, Lancaster mentored Dennis Johnson, named the "Best Defensive Player" in the Southeastern Conference by The Southeastern Post magazine. Johnson led the SEC in tackles for loss, quarterback sacks and fumbles caused, in addition to setting a single-season school record for sacks. Johnson was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the NFL Draft and Kentucky's other starting end, Chris Demaree, signed a free-agent contract with San Diego.

In his final season with the Wildcats, Lancaster's offensive line, led by first-team All-SEC standout Antonio Hall, provided the blocking for Artose Pinner to lead the SEC in rushing.

Lancaster and his wife, Kathi, have two daughters, Kaila and Klemson.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Wesley McGRIFF

Recruiting Coord./Cornerbacks

Third Season at Baylor

The highly energetic and charismatic Wesley McGriff enters his third season as Baylor's cornerbacks coach after spending the previous two years at Kentucky. The 2005 season will also be his second as coach Guy Morriss' recruiting coordinator.

McGriff's corners were a key reason for Baylor's improved pass defense, which jumped to No. 62 in the final 2004 NCAA statistics after a 101st-place finish a year earlier. Braelon Davis, a redshirt freshman cornerback on BU's 2004 squad, earned Sporting News All-Big 12 freshman team honors for his rookie year efforts.

A defensive coach for most of his career, having served as a defensive coordinator at two schools, McGriff spent the 2001 season coaching the Wildcats' running backs. With his runners leading the way, UK averaged 4.1 yards per carry, the teams' best mark since the 1995 season. The Wildcat running backs did not lose any fumbles to the opponents in 2001.

McGriff spent the 2000 campaign just a few miles from Lexington as the secondary and punt return team coach at Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond. The Colonels ranked fourth nationally in total defense, fifth in scoring defense and ninth in passing yardage allowed. EKU posted four shutouts during the season. McGriff's standout sophomore safety, Yeremiah Bell, was a first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference pick.

He coached from 1995-99 at Kentucky State University in Frankfort, where he was assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach. McGriff's defenses achieved numerous national top 10 statistical rankings, leading the nation in total defense in 1995 and pass yardage defense in 1997. In 1998, he was named the American Football Coaches Association's NCAA Division II National Assistant Coach of the Year.

Three of McGriff's players have played in the National Football League including Cletius Hunt (Green Bay), Devin Wyann (New England) and Michael Mason (San Francisco). In addition, Cary Scott was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in 2001. While at KSU, he also served as a professor in the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department.

McGriff began his coaching career at his alma mater, Savannah State (Ga.) University. He was a graduate assistant with the Tigers' running backs in 1990, moved into a full-time role as secondary coach in 1991-92 and added defensive coordinator responsibilities in 1993-94. During the 1994 season, McGriff's unit ranked sixth nationally in total defense. He also was head coach of the school's baseball team for four seasons (1992-95), winning a pair of conference championships and twice being named league Coach of the Year.

A native of Tifton, Ga., McGriff played cornerback, running back and wide receiver for the Tift County High School state championship team. He began his collegiate playing career at South Carolina State for one year, then transferred to Savannah State, where he started for three seasons as an outside linebacker.

McGriff was team captain, was chosen the team's defensive MVP and was named SSC's 1989 Male Academic Athlete of the Year. In addition to his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Savannah State in 1990, he holds a master's degree in public administration from Georgia Southern University (1993). McGriff graduated with distinction from GSU.

McGriff was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1990 and was a member of the Army Reserves until 2001. McGriff and his wife, Karen, have a son, Jaylen.

Michael ORTHMANN

Graduate Assistant/Offense

First Season at Baylor

Michael Orthmann enters his first season as a graduate assistant on the Baylor football staff. Orthmann, who will work with the offense this season, brings 10 seasons of coaching experience into the Baylor program.

Prior to arriving at Baylor, Orthmann was an assistant coach at Southern Oregon, where he was the running backs and tight ends coach. From 2002-03, he was the associate head coach at Northern Arizona, where he helped lead the Lumberjacks to the 2003 Big Sky Conference Co-Championship and a berth into the 2003 NCAA Division I-AA Championships.

Before his promotion to associate head coach, Orthmann served as an assistant coach for the Lumberjacks during the 2000 and 2001 seasons, coaching the running back and the tight ends. Orthmann helped lead Northern Arizona to the 2001 NCAA Division I-AA championships and coached 2001 I-AA All-America Marcus King, who is NAU's all-time leading rusher with 3,794 yards.

In addition to stints at Southern Oregon and Northern Arizona, Orthmann has served as an assistant coach for Montana State (1996-99) and Eastern Washington (1992). He has also coached at the high school level, serving as an assistant at Lake City (Coeur d'Alene, Idaho) and Kennewick (Kennewick, Wash.) high schools.

A native of Kennewick, Wash., Orthmann played for two seasons at Idaho on the offensive line before he suffered a career-ending knee injury. Orthmann holds three degrees from Eastern Washington, a bachelor of arts in history (1990) and education (1996) as well as a master's in business administration (1992).

Joe RAULS

Graduate Assistant

Third Season at Baylor

Joe Rauls begins his third year as a graduate assistant coach at Baylor, having joined the Bears' staff in June 2003. He'll again work with Baylor's defensive coaches after serving as a graduate assistant running backs coach at Sam Houston State during the 2002 season.

A 2002 Sam Houston State graduate with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, Rauls co-captained the Bearkats' 2001 Southland Conference championship team. The 2001 Bearkats fashioned a 10-3 record to earn SHSU's highest final NCAA Division I-AA national ranking (seventh) and reach the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Rauls led Sam Houston State in rushing in 1998, 1999 and 2001, and finished with three-year career totals of 2,265 yards and 15 touchdowns on 504 carries. He ranks as Sam Houston State's fifth all-time leading rusher and earned 2001 second-team All-Southland Conference honors.

A leader off the field, too, Rauls was a three-time Academic All-Southland Conference selection and served as president of the Sam Houston State Student-Athlete Advisory Committee as a senior.

A Waco, Texas, native, Rauls was an all-state running back at LaVega High School, gaining 2,756 yards during his three-year high school career.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

Jerry PICKLE
Director of Football Operations
22nd Season at Baylor

Jerry Pickle is in his 22nd season on the Baylor staff and his 11th as director of football operations. He joined the Baylor program full-time as its recruiting coordinator and administrative assistant in 1986 under the legendary Grant Teaff.

In his current role, Pickle handles administrative responsibilities for the Baylor football program. A sample of his wide-ranging duties include event scheduling, recruiting administration, admission of student-athletes, eligibility of student-athletes, housing and game-day operations. In 1995, Pickle was honored as one of Baylor's employees of the year.

He began his coaching career at the high school level. Pickle then coached five years in the college ranks in Mississippi and Missouri before coming to Baylor.

Pickle has both bachelor's (1976) and master's (1980) degrees in health, physical education and recreation from Delta State University in Cleveland, Miss., where he lettered in football and track.

Pickle is married to the former Julie Turner and they have two sons, Matthew (19) and Jonathan (16).

Odell JAMES
Asst. Director of Operations/ Assistant Strength Coach
Second Season at Baylor

Odell James, a Houston native and four-year football letterman at Baylor (1997-00), was named to the dual position of assistant director of football operations and assistant strength coach in August 2004.

James joined the Baylor staff from Waco's O & K Sports, a company he founded in August 2002. Prior to that, he spent one academic year (2001-02) as a teacher and coach in the Waco Independent School District. James served as the seventh grade basketball coach at Waco's St. Louis Catholic Middle School during the 2000-01 season, guiding the team to a district championship, while also working as a personal fitness assistant at the Baylor University Student Life Complex.

One of the nation's most highly-recruited preps as a senior quarterback at Houston's MacArthur High School, earning Bluechip and Super Prep All-America honors in his final year, James sat out his freshman season at Baylor as a redshirt due to injury. He then appeared in 22 games over the next three seasons at quarterback, drawing four starts as a sophomore in 1998.

Following his junior season, James moved to free safety for his senior year and played in all 11 games for the Bears with three starts. He received his bachelor's degree in speech communication and sociology from Baylor in August 2001.

James and his wife, Kai'lah, a Baylor communications professor, have three children – Alexis (4), Gabrielle (2) and Solomon (1).

ELAINE HOLLOWAY
Administrative Assistant
Football Coaches

SHERRI ELWOOD
Administrative Assistant
Football Recruiting

John WILLIAMS
Dir. of Strength & Conditioning
Fourth Season at Baylor

John Williams Jr. joined the Baylor staff as the school's director of strength and conditioning in May 2002. Williams, who had worked with more than 15 different sports at the collegiate level during previous stops at North Carolina and Oklahoma State, oversees Baylor's overall strength and conditioning program for its 18 intercollegiate athletic programs.

A 1995 graduate of North Carolina A&T, Williams sandwiched two tenures at the University of North Carolina (graduate assistant from 1997-99 and assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2000-02) around a one-year stint as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State University (1999-2000).

Williams has trained seven first-round NFL Draft picks and over 30 NFL players in his young career.

The native of Greenville, N.C., is married to the former Sherri Taylor of Kinston, N.C., and the couple has a daughter, Christina Josette.

Mike SIMS
Director of Sports Medicine
25th Season at Baylor

Mike Sims, considered one of the nation's leading authorities on sports equipment safety standards, is in his 25th year of service to Baylor student-athletes, coaches and staff.

Born and raised in Cedar Hill, Texas, Sims, 48, served as a student trainer at Cedar Hill School, where he graduated from in 1975. He then spent five years as a Baylor student trainer and graduated with a bachelor of science degree in 1980 and then earned his master's degree from the school in 1982.

Licensed by the State of Texas and certified by NATA, Sims became Baylor's first full-time assistant trainer in 1981. He served three years in that capacity before becoming BU's head trainer in October 1984. Sims was promoted into his current post as Baylor's director of sports medicine in 1993.

As a member of the board of directors of the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE), Sims helps determine safety standards for equipment such as football and baseball helmets and catcher's masks.

Sims married the former Suzanne Stevens, also a Baylor graduate, on May 21, 1983, and the couple has two children: Jessica (15) and Keith (13).

Jeff BARLOW
Equipment Manager
Third Season at Baylor

Jeff Barlow is in his third year as head equipment manager for the Baylor football program.

A native of Vicksburg, Miss., Barlow received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Mississippi State in 2002. As an undergraduate, Barlow served as a student manager for the Bulldog football team from 1998-2002. In the summer of 2002, Barlow served a training camp internship with the NFL's Houston Texans.

A 1998 graduate of Vicksburg's Warren Central High School, Barlow is married to the former Laura Woodward.

THE UNIVERSITY

BAYLOR

TEXAS' OLDEST EXISTING UNIVERSITY

Baylor University is an academically rigorous university that is based solidly on Christian values. A renowned teaching university with a growing research agenda, our objective is to be faithful to the original vision of Baylor as a Christian university "fully susceptible to enlargement and development to meet the needs of all ages to come."

What does that mean? It means that we are committed to the full education of our students. Above and beyond what you can expect from other institutions of higher learning.

HOW DO WE DO THAT?

At Baylor, you will get out of your comfort zone. Whether you are talking to other Baylor students or recent alumni, you will hear that Baylor challenges you to discover and develop your best gifts, to become involved in a variety of activities and to know and work with people who are not replicas of yourself.

Baylor University's 735-acre campus welcomes high-quality students from all 50 states and some 76 countries. Our nationally recognized academic divisions offer 146 undergraduate, 73 master's, 22 doctoral, juris doctor, and education specialist degree programs. Baylor consists of 11 academic units:

- College of Arts and Sciences
- Hankamer School of Business
- School of Education
- School of Engineering and Computer Science
- Graduate School
- Honors College
- Law School
- School of Music
- Louise Herrington School of Nursing
- George W. Truett Theological Seminary
- School of Social Work

Baylor also offers an affiliated graduate degree program with the U.S. Army Academy of Health Sciences in San Antonio and West Point.

FAITH AND LEARNING

Baylor was chartered by the Republic of Texas in 1845 through the efforts of Baptist pioneers to provide quality education in a Christian setting. Baylor continues to hold fast to our heritage and mission. We welcome students of all denominations and encourage students to understand Christianity and the Bible, as well as to develop and practice their faith.

Because of our faith, we strive for excellence in academics and learning. Some of the best professors in the world are at Baylor. Faculty bring outstanding credentials from universities across the country: from Notre Dame to Georgetown, from Cornell to Stanford; and from across continents, as far away as Leipzig and Moscow. One thing they have in common is that they are great teachers, drawn to be part of a community of Christian scholars that cares how its academic endeavors impact larger issues in society.

In April 2004, Baylor received the only "A" out of 50 colleges surveyed by the American Council of Trustees and Alumni in Washington, D.C., for its core curriculum. This survey included some of the most prestigious universities in the nation, such as Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Berkeley and Duke.

VISION

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold 10-year Vision called Baylor 2012. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming its distinctive Christian mission. Substantial progress has been made on several key initiatives. We have lowered the student-faculty ratio to 16-1, added a new 600-person upperclassman residential village on campus, built a state-of-the-art $100 million sciences building and a new museum studies complex, as well as addressing such practical issues like building two new parking facilities and adding green space to the campus.

RESULTS

The average SAT score of entering freshmen has improved from 1160 in 1995 to 1190 in 2004. Minority enrollment as a percentage of the overall undergraduate student population has increased from 20.8 percent in 1995 to 25.2 percent in 2004. Baylor's fall 2004 freshman class was the most diverse in the University's history with a minority enrollment of 30.3 percent. And, the incoming freshman class for fall 2005 is anticipated to be the largest yet in Baylor's history.

Here is more evidence of Baylor's top-ranked status. While we are the only private university in the Big 12 Conference, Baylor steps up to the plate with NCAA intercollegiate athletics in 18 sports for men and women with the addition of women's equestrian in 2005. In 2004-05, a school-record 12 Baylor programs participated in postseason play. The University is the home of the 2004 national championship men's tennis team and the 2005 NCAA women's basketball champions. Baylor's 2005 baseball team advanced to the College World Series for the first time since 1978. The school also produced the 2005 NCAA men's and women's tennis singles winners in Benedikt Dorsch and Zuzana Zemenova. And, Darold Williamson captured the 2005 NCAA Outdoor 400-meter title. Williamson earned a 2004 Olympic gold medal as anchor of the United States' 4x400-meter relay and took the baton from his longtime Baylor teammate and previous NCAA 400-meter champion Jeremy Wariner.

Baylor is 84th out of 248 top national doctoral-granting universities included in the U.S.News & World Report's 2005 Best Colleges survey. Baylor also is listed in 2005 editions of The Princeton Review's Best 357 Colleges and The Fiske Guide to Colleges.

The Institute of International Education (based on 2002-03 year) lists Baylor as one of the top doctoral institutions for the number of students participating in international studies. And, an Intel Corp. survey placed the University at 32 among 100 universities named as a "most unwired" campus.

The best way to learn about Baylor and all that it has to offer is through a personal visit. Call 254.710.2407 to schedule a campus tour.

WACO

THE HEART OF TEXAS

With a population of 215,000, the Waco metropolitan area is located in the heart of Central Texas and within driving distance of most major urban centers in the state – approximately 100 miles from Dallas and Austin and 180 miles from Houston and San Antonio. Airline service to Dallas/Fort Worth and Houston is available through the expanded and renovated Waco Regional Airport.

The climate of Central Texas is mild year-round. High temperatures range from the upper 90s at the peak of the summer to the 30s and 40s in the winter. Housing is affordable, and part-time jobs are easy to find.

Outdoor recreational opportunities in the Waco area include 7,000-acre Lake Waco and the 416-acre Cameron Park, one of the state's largest municipal parks which offers hiking and mountain biking trails, a championship disc golf course and the natural habitat Cameron Park Zoo. There are a total of 35 parks in the city.

Annual events include Baylor Homecoming, the Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo and outdoor concerts held along the banks of the Brazos River.

A city of museums and galleries, Waco's local offerings include the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Art Center, the Dr Pepper Museum and a number of sites on the Baylor University campus, including two art galleries, Armstrong Browning Library, the Mayborn Museum Complex and the Governor Bill and Vara Daniel Historic Village.

Waco is home to a variety of fine restaurants, many located in the city's revitalized warehouse district downtown. The area features an eclectic mix of restaurants, specialty shops and loft and office space.

WACO HISTORY

Waco is named after the Waco Indians, the first inhabitants of the area surrounding a natural spring on the Brazos River. The tribe lived in beehive-shaped huts and had hundreds of acres of land planted with corn, beans and other vegetables. The tribe was generally considered a peaceful one, but occasionally, when threatened, the Wacos became protective of their territory. Part of their village was located on the banks of the Brazos where the Suspension Bridge was later built.

In 1837, the Texas Rangers arrived intending to build a fort – Fort Fisher – at the Waco village, but the expedition was short-lived and plans for the outpost were canceled. A trading post was established near Waco Village in 1844, and a year later a rugged Scot named Neil McLennan established the first frontier settlement in the area. In 1848, three years after Texas became a state, the Mexican land grant surrounding the old Waco Village site was sold to a group of businessmen from Galveston. In 1849, surveyor George Erath laid out the first streets of Waco, and lots were sold for $5 each. The City of Waco was incorporated on Aug. 29, 1856, and serves as the county seat of McLennan County.

In 1870, the 475-foot Suspension Bridge opened as the first pedestrian/wagon bridge across the Brazos River, providing easier access for numerous travelers as well as cattle herds being driven along the Chisholm Trail. The Waco and Northwestern Railroad reached Waco in 1871, and the city was soon a hub of commerce for Central Texas.

- Baylor is one of only six Big 12 Conference institutions to have won at least two NCAA team championships since the league's inception.
- Baylor ranks fifth in regular-season Big 12 Conference titles in men's sports with eight.
- Baylor is one of only six Big 12 Conference institutions to have won a conference title in at least three different men's sports.
- Baylor is one of only five Big 12 Conference institutions to have won a conference title in at least three different women's sports
- Baylor has finished in the top half of the Big 12 Conference all-sports standings seven of the last eight years.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS 2004-2005 HIGHLIGHTS

SEPT. 26, 2004 – BETTY LOU MAYS FIELD
Anna Schuch's goal 18 seconds into overtime lifted Baylor's women's soccer team to a 2-1 victory over 22nd-ranked Texas. It was Baylor's first win over Texas since 1999.

OCT. 2, 2004 – FERRELL CENTER
Behind double-doubles from Adeline Meira and Nicole LeBlanc, Baylor's volleyball team upset 25th-ranked Kansas in four games. Meira was the difference, hitting .500 with 13 kills and 10 blocks.

OCT. 30, 2004 – FLOYD CASEY STADIUM
Shawn Bell and Dominiqu Zeigler connected first for a touchdown and then for a game-winning two-point conversion as Baylor's football team stunned 16th-ranked Texas A&M. It marked Baylor's first win over the Aggies since 1985 and sparked a massive celebration at Floyd Casey Stadium and throughout Waco.

NOVEMBER 13, 2004 – COTTONWOOD CREEK G.C.
Brittany Brockman finished third in a field of 127, leading Baylor's women's cross country team to a third-place finish at the NCAA South Central Regional. That same day, Bo Price of Baylor's men's cross country team finished 12th in the men's event.

DEC. 30, 2004 – WEST LAFAYETTE, IND.

APRIL 5, 2005 – INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
Sophia Young scored 26 points and Steffanie Blackmon added 22 as Baylor's women's basketball team pounded Michigan State 84-62 in the NCAA National Championship Game. The Lady Bears dominated Michigan State from the early going and concluded their 2004-2005 season with 20 consecutive victories.

MAY 7, 2005 – LUBBOCK, TEXAS
Sean Reddick tied for 26th as Baylor's women's golf team tied for 13th at the NCAA Central Regional. It was Baylor's sixth consecutive NCAA appearance.

MAY 14, 2005 – MANHATTAN, KAN.
Lakadron Ivery finished second in three different events at the Big 12 Conference Outdoor Track & Field Championships. Ivery posted a long-jump mark of 6.61 meters, second in school history. She also finished second in the 100 menters and the 200 meters.

MAY 21, 2005 – SOUTH BEND, IND.

MAY 22, 2005 – AUBURN, ALA.
Chelsi Lake went 2-for-3 with two RBI as Baylor's softball team defeated Florida State 5-3 in the championship game of the NCAA Auburn Regional. The Lady Bears claimed the program's first NCAA regional title and advanced to the NCAA Waco Super Regional, where they eventually lost to second-seeded California in three games.

MAY 28, 2005 – ATLANTA, GA.
Zuzana Zemenova became Baylor's first women's tennis singles national champion with a straight-set victory over Audra Cohen of Northwestern. Just a freshman, Zemenova also led the women's team to a round-of-16 finish in the NCAA Tournament.

MAY 30, 2005 – COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
Benedikt Dorsch added an explanation point to an already stellar collegiate career by claiming the NCAA men's tennis singles championship with a straight-set victory over San Diego's Pierrik Ysern. Dorsch, the second consecutive singles champion from Baylor, also led the men's team to a national runner-up finish.

JUNE 11, 2005 – SACRAMENTO, CALIF.
One day after clocking the world's fastest 400-meter time of the year to date, Darrold Williamson posted a time of 44.51 seconds to claim the national title in the event. Williamson, who anchored the USA's gold-medal-winning 4x400-meter relay team at the 2004 Olympics, finished .24 seconds ahead of the field.

JUNE 13, 2005 – BAYLOR BALLPARK
After dropping the first game of the NCAA Waco Super Regional, Baylor's baseball team rebounded to win the next two games against 13th-ranked Clemson and advanced to the College World Series for the first time since 1978. The Bears went on to reach the national semifinals, the program's best finish ever.

FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

Beautiful Floyd Casey Stadium is home to the Baylor Bears football team. The stadium is continually upgraded to give Baylor a facility necessary to be competitive in the Big 12 Conference.

New in 2005 is the completion of the Grant Teaff Plaza. Opened in 2002, the plaza originally was located at the base of the press box on the west side of the stadium. Over the past two years, the plaza has been expanded to wrap completely around the stadium. The centerpiece of the plaza is a statue honoring former Baylor head coach and College Football Hall of Fame member Grant Teaff, the program's winningest coach who led Baylor to two Southwest Conference titles.

Last season, Baylor unveiled a new synthetic turf playing surface at Floyd Casey Stadium. After six seasons of play on SportGrass, the natural surface was replaced with the newest generation of artificial turf on the market, the Prestige System playing surface.

Stadium renovations have been constant recently at Floyd Casey. In 2002, Baylor added a 23-by-31-foot LED video screen going in the south end zone. The project included the addition of a state-of-the-art sound system and new digital scoreboards in both end zones.

Baylor's locker room got a face lift in 2001, when a $2 million facility, the largest in the Big 12, was completed.

Baylor added a state-of-the-art luxury suite and pressbox structure on the West side in 1999. One year prior, the team meeting room area also underwent a complete remodeling.

In 1995 the entire façade was sandblasted and painted. In 1990, new lights, expanded and improved restrooms, and new concession stands were completed.

The state-of-the-art facility was opened in 1991. Other renovation projects continue as the stadium enters its 55th year of service to Baylor.

After 39 years of being called Baylor Stadium, 1989 was the stadium's first full year under the name Floyd Casey Stadium.

The name change officially took place during halftime ceremonies of the 1988 Homecoming game with Arkansas when it was announced that longtime University supporter and trustee the late Carl B. Casey of Dallas and his wife, Thelma, contributed $5 million to the stadium renovation project in honor of his father Floyd Casey.

After World War II the Baylor Stadium Corporation was formed and began a campaign to build a stadium for the University. The corporation launched a bond sales program and was able to raise $1.5 million for construction costs. The Bears moved to Baylor Stadium in 1950.

The first game played in the 50,000-seat stadium was Sept. 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over the Houston Cougars, then, an independent team. The initial Southwest Conference game was Nov. 4, 1950, a 27-20 win over Texas A&M. The largest crowd to see at home was the 1995 A&M game when 51,218 fans jammed the stadium to watch the Aggies top the Bears 24-9.

Many improvements and additions have been made to the stadium over the years.

During the 1970s, the beautiful and comfortable Letterman's Lounge was built on the stadium's west side with funds provided by former athletes. That facility received a facelift in 1995.

An eight-year project to change from worn wooden to modern aluminum bleacher was finished in 1981.

Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were employed by the Bears. The first Bear football squad was formed in 1899, but no records are available to prove where the team played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility.

The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home.

Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where BU played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.

BAYLOR TRADITION

THE BEAR NICKNAME AND MASCOT

Baylor began intercollegiate athletic competition in the 1890s, but the University was without an official mascot until 1914. That's the year President Samuel Palmer Brooks held a vote of the student body to determine how the University's teams would be known nationwide. Former student George Baines Rosborough offered a $5 gold piece to the student who submitted the winning entry.

Despite competition from two dozen rivals including the buffalo, antelope, frog and ferret, Baylor students chose the bear as the University's mascot, and Doyle Thrailkill of San Antonio won the $5 prize. Baylor's student newspaper the Lariat soon carried the headline "Bruin is Elected Patron Saint of All Baylordom."

Although Baylor adopted "Bears" as its official nickname in 1914, it was not until the 1920s that a real bear mascot came to the University.

The first live bear was made available by the troops of the 107th Engineers, a unit of the 32nd Infantry Division stationed at Camp MacArthur in Waco during World War I.

The bear, named Ted, made his first appearance at the 1917 Baylor-Texas A&M football game, and when the unit got its orders to move on, the bear was left in the hands of the Baylor athletic department. Since then, the use of bears at Baylor football and basketball games has become as much a fixture as the players, cheerleaders and bands.

A series of bears have served as Baylor's mascot, but perhaps the best-known was Joe College, who came to Baylor through the work of Bill Boyd, then a Baylor student. Boyd bought the bear from a zoo that went broke at the Cotton Palace in Waco. He then approached Baylor's president, Pat Neff, and offered to take care of the bear in exchange for free tuition. Neff accepted the deal and the tradition of live bears as mascots has continued since.

In 1974, the student body voted to name all the bears "Judge" followed by a surname in honor of the university's namesake, Judge R.E.B. Baylor. Baylor's current mascots are "Joy," named in honor of the wife of President Emeritus (and former Chancellor) Herbert H. Reynolds, and the newest mascot, "Lady" named after Sue Sloan, wife of Chancellor Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr.

The bears attend several Baylor athletic events, schools, community centers, churches, and any other educational outreach.

The bears may also be seen at the Steve Hudson Memorial Bear Plaza located in the center of the Baylor campus. "The Pit" as it is known on campus was built in 1976 and is classified as a Class 'C' Exhibitor Zoo. It is licensed to hold up to three North American Black Bears and is regulated and licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture and the Texas Parks and Wildlife.

"SIC 'EM BEARS" AND THE BEAR CLAW

In 1960, Baylor's yell leaders introduced the "Bear Claw" hand signal – made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw – and the "Sic 'Em Bears" yell. The initial reaction to the new traditions from students and faculty was mixed.

The issue was a topic of heated debate on campus, and the use of both the hand signal and yell was sporadic until Grant Teaff arrived as Baylor's head football coach in 1972. Teaff initiated a new era of Baylor football, and the "Bear Claw" and "Sic 'Em Bears" yell came to symbolize pride in Baylor athletics.

In addition to being used during the yell, the "Bear Claw" is held up during the performance of Baylor's school song, "That Good Old Baylor Line." Football players traditionally hold up their helmets during the playing of the school song.

"THAT GOOD OLD BAYLOR LINE"

The beginnings of Baylor's school song can be traced back to 1907. That's when student George Baines Rosborough penned an alternative set of lyrics to the waltz tune "In The Good Old Summertime," first made popular on Broadway in 1902. Rosborough's new lyrics were humorous, with references to sending Baylor's gridiron rivals home "done up in turpentine." For the next quarter century, the altered tune gained acceptance as Baylor's unofficial school song.

In the fall of 1931, Enid Markham, wife of music professor Robert Markham, decided that the words to the song were undignified and not representative of Baylor. So, she penned a new set of lyrics, which have since become accepted as the University's school song:

That good old Baylor Line!
That good old Baylor Line!
We'll march forever down the years,
As long as stars shall shine.
We'll fling our Green and Gold afar
To light the ways of time,
And guide us as we onward go:
That good old Baylor Line!

GOLDEN WAVE BAND

In 1902, 17 students pooled their talents to become the Baylor Cadet Band. The following year, membership increased to 28 as the band, directed by Charles W. Parker, went under the auspices of the ROTC department. The band remained a part of Baylor's ROTC until the end of World War I, when the group reorganized and became known as the Baylor Bear Band.

The band became known as the Golden Wave after members first wore new golden-colored uniforms at the Baylor-SMU football game in 1928. The next year, Everett McCracken was appointed director and kicked off a new era of development for the band with a 10-day, 820-mile tour of Texas.

During the next half century, the band gained national prominence and was featured in postseason contests including the Orange, Sugar, Gator, Bluebonnet and Cotton Bowls. The current Golden Wave Marching Band, directed by Barry Kraus, marches approximately 260 members.

THE BAYLOR LINE

The Baylor Line is a freshman spirit organization. Line members wear matching jerseys to home football games and sit in a block of seats in front of the Baylor cheerleaders. Baylor Line members leave the stands prior to kickoff to run the perimeter of the field and form a line for the team to enter before kickoff.

THE IMMORTAL TEN

Baylor has many traditions and a rich history as a university that has been in existence for over 150 years. One of the events that has had a lasting impact on the University and its athletic department is the story of the Immortal Ten.

On January 22, 1927, coach Ralph Wolf was taking his first Baylor basketball team to play a game at the University of Texas. This was a crucial game in the Bears' race for the 1927 Southwest Conference championship. The trip was not a pleasant one, as rain had poured over Central Texas for the majority of the day and continued as the team departed for Austin.

That hampered the vision of the chartered bus driver as debris from the road sprayed the windshield of the bus. At Round Rock, Texas, just miles from the team's arrival in Austin, one of America's first athletic tragedies occurred. A speeding train from the I&GA Railroad Company rammed into the side of the bus at a railway crossing near the center of the city. Ten of the 21 players, coaches and fans of the Baylor party that traveled on the bus that day were killed.

Baylor remembers the story each year at Homecoming, when freshmen hear the tragic story and participate in a candlelight remembrance ceremony. Baylor students and alumni are raising funds to have a statue honoring the Immortal Ten erected on campus.

There was a hero of the accident, James Clyde "Abe" Kelly. Kelly, who was captain-elect of the 1927 football team, saw the train just before impact and pushed his roommate, Weir Washman, out of the bus' window. Kelly is credited with saving the life of his best friend at the greatest expense to himself. Kelly was one of the 10 who died in the collision.

Wesley Bradshaw, who is still in the top 10 on the Baylor football career scoring list, was seriously hurt. Gordon Barry, Joe Potter, Edgar Gooch, C.S. Bean, Keifer Strickland (an All-SWC selection), John Kane, Dave Cheavers (former Baylor journalism department chair) and coach Wolf were slightly injured. Washman and Louis Slade were unhurt.

As a result of the tragedy, the remainder of the 1927 season was canceled, and the first highway overpass in Texas was constructed in Round Rock.

THE MEDAL OF HONOR

Baylor University is believed to be the only school in America to have two former athletes win the Congressional Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military honor for bravery. Both men – Jack Lummus and John "Killer" Kane – won the award for their service in World War II.

Lummus played football, basketball and baseball for Baylor from 1938 through 1941. He was an All-Southwest Conference center fielder before signing with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

After one year of professional football, Lummus joined the Marines and was a platoon leader in the initial days of fighting on Iwo Jima. While leading a charge on enemy positions, he stepped on a land mine and lost both legs. Despite the heavy bleeding that resulted, he led his platoon to knock out several pockets of Japanese fire, which played a vital role in the eventual U.S. victory. Lummus died of his wounds shortly after the battle.

Kane played football and basketball at Baylor and was one of the survivors of the bus-train accident that killed 10 Baylor students in 1927. He joined the Army Air Corps in 1932 and soon became a bomber commander of legendary proportions, leading the famous air raid on Nazi-controlled oil refineries in Ploesti, Romania, in 1943.

CHRISTIAN ATMOSPHERE

Baylor is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, a cooperative association of autonomous Texas Baptist churches. All members of the University's Board of Regents are Baptist.

Baylor is concerned with the spiritual, moral and intellectual development of those who come within its sphere of influence. It is committed to a caring relationship among its students, staff and faculty – a caring that is characterized by understanding, forgiveness and respect for individuality. The University is proud of its Christian heritage and strives to be an institution stimulated both by the power of God and the search for truth.

A number of organizations at Baylor help the University carry out its Christian mission, including the offices of the Dean of Chapel/University Ministries and Church Relations; the centers for Christian Ethics and Ministry Effectiveness; the institutes of Church-State Studies and Faith and Learning; Baylor You youth camps; and numerous student ministry groups representing a variety of faiths.

In addition, all Baylor students participate in two semesters of Chapel, a twice-weekly University gathering which features lectures and performances from a distinguished group of speakers and artists.

FRANK FALLON

Radio waves throughout the Baylor family fell silent the evening of April 30, 2004, upon the passing of the legendary Frank Fallon.

Best known as the former "Voice of the Baylor Bears," Fallon's face and voice were synonymous with Baylor athletics.

A native of El Paso, Texas, Fallon grew up in San Antonio, Texas, attending Alamo Heights High School. Fallon began his broadcasting career at KITE San Antonio at the age of 18. Following graduation from Baylor in 1953, he joined Waco's KWTX and had a 28-year association with the station.

He served as the play-by-play announcer for Baylor football and basketball for 42 years. Fallon spent 20 years as the public address announcer and "Voice of the NCAA Final Four," as well as doing television play-by-play for Southwest Conference Basketball on NBC and ESPN.

A broadcast journalism professor at Baylor in his latter years, Fallon received many prestigious awards during his career. In August 2001, he was presented the Chris Schenkel Award, honoring lifetime excellence and community contributions. Fallon was the recipient of the 2001 Baylor Communications Award. He was honored as Texas Association of Broadcasters Sportscaster of the Year five times and Associated Press Best Radio Play-By-Play Announcer seven times. Fallon was a member of the Baylor Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Hall of Fame. He also was voted one of the top 10 all-time Texas radio play-by-play announcers by the Texas Sportswriters Association.

DAVE CAMPBELL

A 1950 cum laude graduate of Baylor University, Dave Campbell is truly a living legend in the world of sports journalism.

Campbell is best known for founding Texas Football in 1960. He served as editor and publisher for the annual preseason publication that quickly emerged as the nation's prototype regional sports publications. Campbell still serves as the publication's editor-in-chief.

Save a stint with the 14th Armored Division in France and Germany during World War II, Campbell spent 51 years as a member of the editorial staff at the Waco Tribune-Herald. Hired by the newspaper in 1942, Campbell became sports editor in 1953 and held that position until his retirement in 1993.

However, retirement did not last long; Campbell was hand-picked to create and edit the Baylor Bear Insider Report, a publication of the Baylor Bear Foundation devoted solely to the coverage of Baylor athletics.

The list of accolades and honors Campbell has received stretches as long as his career. Along with winning the Bronze Star for heroic achievement during World War II, Campbell has been presented the Bert McGrane Award and the Jake Wade Award, the highest honors given by the Football Writers' Association of America and the College Sports Information Directors of America, respectively.

A past president of the FWAA, Campbell is a member of the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame and the writers' category of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 1992, Campbell was given the Baylor University Distinguished Alumnus Award. Four years later, he was named "Touchdowner of the Year" by the Houston Touchdown Club.

Campbell has served as Southwest Sectional Director of the Heisman Trophy selection. He is a member of the Honors Court selection committee of the National College Football Hall of Fame, and he also serves on the executive board and as the chairman of the selection committee for the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. Campbell is a member of the board of directors for the Texas High School Football and Texas Tennis halls of fame as well.

In August 1999, Baylor Director of Athletics Tom Stanton announced the donation of $250,000 by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rapoport, longtime friends of Campbell. The generous donation was earmarked for the creation of the Dave Campbell Media Center at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Campbell and his wife, Reba, also a Baylor graduate, have been married 52 years. They have two daughters, Mrs. David (Rebekah) Roche of Austin, Texas, and Mrs. Alan (Julie) Carlson of Waco.

GRANT TEAFF

Perhaps no individual is as responsible for advancing the cause of Baylor football as legendary head coach Grant Teaff.

Teaff was hired to coach Baylor's program in 1972 when many people said the Bears should drop out of Division I. When the final gun sounded on the 1992 John Hancock Bowl – Teaff's last game as a head coach – he had accomplished one of the most distinguished coaching careers in history.

Teaff finished his career 170-151-8 overall in 30 years as a head coach. He was 128-105-6 at Baylor, 83-74-4 in the Southwest Conference and 4-4 in bowl games.

He was named SWC Coach of the Year six times and national coach of the year once. He coached 16 first-team All-Americans and 83 all-conference performers.

Teaff finished his career as the nation's second-ranked coach for tenure at his present school, the fourth-ranked coach for SWC wins, third-ranked coach for games in the SWC, second-ranked coach for seasons in the SWC, sixth-ranked coach for wins by an SWC coach, ninth-ranked active coach for career wins and 20th-ranked active coach for winning percentage.

He coached 12 postseason all-star games, including the East-West Shrine Game, the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl, the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. The other SWC schools went through 38 different head coaches during Teaff's tenure at Baylor. He coached against such giants as Bear Bryant, Joe Paterno, Darrell Royal, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Vince Dooley, Shug Jordan, Tom Osborne, Frank Broyles, LaVell Edwards, Bill McCartney, Lou Holtz, Barry Switzer, Bill Yeoman, Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Major and Hayden Fry.

Teaff currently heads the American Football Coaches Association as the organization's executive director. The AFCA is widely recognized as the game's driving force in terms of promotions, legislative matters, ethics and professional standards. And the organization's driving force is Coach Teaff.

Teaff moved into his position as the "coaches' coach" after his highly successful 21-year stint as the head coach of the Bears. What Teaff has done with the AFCA has mirrored his accomplishments at Baylor.

DEFENSIVE BACK GREATS

MIKE SINGLETARY

One of the all-time greats to ever don the Green and Gold was Mike Singletary. The eventual NFL Hall of Famer arrived at Baylor in 1977 with two goals: To earn a college degree and to become the greatest defensive player in school history. Four short years later, both goals were achieved.

Everyone who saw Singletary play agrees that he was college football's greatest middle linebacker playing in the late 1970s and early 1980s. His Baylor statistics are still astounding: He holds records for most tackles in a career with 662 (second place is 370), most tackles in a season with 232 (the next closest is 144) and most tackles in a game with 33. Coach Lou Holtz, against whose Arkansas team he had those 33 tackles, called Singletary the best middle linebacker he ever coached against. Coach Woody Hayes, after seeing Singletary make 31 tackles against Ohio State, called him unstoppable. After Singletary made 30 tackles against Alabama, Coach "Bear" Bryant said that Singletary and Leroy Jordan were the only two linebackers he had ever seen who were capable of making the tackle on every single running play in a game.

Perhaps Singletary's most amazing statistic came in the area of broken football helmets. During his Baylor career Singletary hit opposing ball carriers so hard he cracked and shattered 16 of his own helmets. The Baylor football equipment staff routinely had three helmets fitted and prepared for Singletary to wear.

Singletary earned All-SWC honors four times. As a freshman he was named Southwest Conference Newcomer of the Year. As a sophomore, junior and senior he was named Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Twice he won the Davey O'Brien Award as the best football player in the Southwest United States. He was named All-America three years and unanimous All-America two years. He was named to Baylor's all-decade teams of both the 1970s and 1980s. He was Baylor's defensive player of the decade in the '80s and was named to Baylor's All-Half Century Football Team.

A 1990 Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, Singletary was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in 1994. One year later, he was named to the Football Writers Association of America All-Quarter Century All-America Team for players who played between 1970-95.

In 1996, Singletary was honored as one of the greatest college football players ever when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

As a professional, Singletary's accomplishments were equally impressive. He was named the NFL defensive rookie of the year, and was honored as an All-Pro an amazing 10 times in his 12-year NFL career with the Chicago Bears. He was named the defensive MVP of the Bear's Super Bowl championship team and won the NFL Man of the Year Award as the top player in professional football based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

In 1998, Singletary received the highest honor in football, when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Singletary graduated from Baylor in four years with a degree in business administration.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Bill UNDERWOOD, J.D.

Interim President

Oklahoma Baptist, 1982

The Baylor University Board of Regents by acclamation appointed William D. Underwood, The Leon Jaworski Chair in Practice and Procedure at Baylor Law School, as interim president, effective June 1, 2005.

Underwood, a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Illinois College of Law, where he was a member of the Board of Editors of the University of Illinois Law Review, graduated as salutatorian of his class, and was a member of the Order of the Coif. Following graduation from law school, Underwood completed a prestigious federal judicial clerkship with the Honorable Sam D. Johnson of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

Prior to joining the Baylor faculty in 1990, Underwood practiced civil trial law with Carrington, Coleman, Sloman & Blumenthal, an elite litigation firm based in Dallas. He took a two-year leave of absence from the faculty between 1997-98 to serve as Baylor's general counsel.

Underwood, who holds an undergraduate degree from Oklahoma Baptist University, has published extensively in the field of civil practice and procedure, including articles that have led to significant changes in federal and state procedural law. He also is a high-profile courtroom lawyer who continues to successfully represent clients in a variety of civil and criminal cases.

Underwood also has represented Baylor in proceedings before the NCAA Committee on Infractions. He was a member of and spokesperson for a committee that recently spearheaded an investigation into allegations of misconduct arising out of the death of men's basketball player Patrick Dennehy.

Designated a Master Teacher by Baylor, Underwood directs the Law School's Practice Court program, which was recently described by the Princeton Review as "unique," "tough," "ultra-intense" and "arguably the best training ground in the nation for practical lawyering."

Referring to the Practice Court program, the Litigation News has reported that "Baylor law students get a degree of trial advocacy training unusual among the nation's law schools."

Underwood is an elected member of the American Law Institute, the American Bar Foundation, the Texas Bar Foundation, and has served as Reporter to the Civil Justice Reform Act Advisory Group to the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas.

Underwood and his wife, Lesli, are the parents of two children, Jessica, 16, and William, 11. They are members of Seventh and James Baptist Church in Waco.

Chancellor

Baylor, 1970

Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr. became the Chancellor of Baylor University on June 1, 2005. From 1995-2005 he served as the 12th president of Baylor University, leaving his position as founding dean of Baylor's George W. Truett Theological Seminary.

Sloan was born in Coleman, Texas, in 1949, but was reared in Abilene, Texas, where he graduated from Cooper High School in 1967. He attended Baylor from 1967 to 1970 and was a member of the baseball team his freshman year. He graduated ahead of his class, earning a bachelor of arts degree cum laude in 1970. He was a member of Alpha Chi National Honor Society and the Honors Program, graduating "With Distinction." He then attended Princeton Theological Seminary, where he earned the master of divinity degree magna cum laude in 1973. He conducted post-baccalaureate research in church history at the University of Bristol, England, from 1973-74 and earned the Doktor der Theologie degree insigni cum laude from the University of Basel, Switzerland, in 1978.

Sloan joined the faculty of Baylor's Department of Religion in 1983 after holding teaching positions at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth from 1980-83. In 1990 he became the first holder of the George W. Truett Chair in Evangelism at Baylor, and in 1993 he was appointed dean of Truett Seminary. Baylor regents in February 1995 named Sloan to succeed Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds as president of the University.

From 1980-1995 Sloan served as interim pastor of more than 20 churches throughout Texas (plus one in Oklahoma) while holding full-time academic positions at SWBTS and Baylor. From 1991-92 he was president of the Southwest Commission on Religious Studies. In his academic capacity he has held membership in numerous professional societies, including the Society of Biblical Literature, the Southwest Biblical Seminar, the Institute for Biblical Research, the National Association of Baptist Professors of Religion and Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas. He has authored two books, assisted with editing several others,and has published more than 50 articles and chapters for scholarly or ecumenical journals and publications. He has presented numerous academic papers and received awards and grants for his scholarship. Sloan served as the designated "Convention Preacher" for the 1991 Baptist General Convention of Texas, which met that year in Waco.

He has held numerous civic positions in the Waco area, including school board president of the Lorena Independent School District, service on the Cooper Foundation Board, the Tadpole Foundation Board of Directors and the Waco Big 12 Task Force. In 1996, Sloan was inducted into the Little League Hall of Excellence. He also serves on the board of Texas Baptists Committed. He has been involved in numerous organizations related to higher education, including the Baylor College of Medicine, the Big 12 Athletic Conference Board of Directors, the board of the Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas, the Group of 6 (the six major athletic conferences) and the American Association of Presidents of Independent College and Universities.

President Sloan is married to the former Sue Collier of Cisco, Texas, also a 1970 graduate of Baylor. They are members of the First Baptist Church of Waco. The Sloans have seven children: Charissa (B.A.(BU)'95, M.A.(BU)'96, JD (BU Law School)'99), Bryan (B.A.(BU)'98), Eraina (B.A.(BU)'99, MSEd (BU)'02), Michael (B.A.(BU)'02, M.A. (Texas Tech)'04), Alathea (B.A.(BU)'03), Sophia (BU Junior), and Paul (high school senior).

He and his wife, Joy (BA '74), have three children: Kevin (BA '74, JD '76), Kent (BBA '75, MBA '76), and Rhonda (BA '83, MBA '83, JD '86). They also have two daughters-in-law, Katy (BSEd '76) and Cathy, a son-in-law, Greg Winslett, and seven grandchildren, Jonathan, Melinda, Sam, Nicole, Jake, Trey, and Dylan.

Michael ROGERS, J.D.

Faculty Representative

Texas Tech, 1972

Professor Michael Rogers earned a bachelor of business administration degree and graduated with honors in 1972 from Texas Tech University, where he was a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi honor societies and a varsity scholarship basketball player. He received his J.D. degree from the University of Oklahoma in 1974, where he was an editor of the Oklahoma Law Review and was admitted to membership in the Order of the Coif.

Rogers was in private practice from 1975 to 1984, during which time he was a founding partner of Gilmore & Bell, a securities transactions law firm with offices in Kansas and Missouri. He is admitted to practice law in Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas. In 1984 he joined the Baylor Law faculty, where his subjects include family law, securities regulation and alternative dispute resolution. Rogers is an experienced mediator and serves on the panel of mediators for the United States District Court Western District of Texas. He has served as chairman of the board of the McLennan County Dispute Resolution Center.

Professor Rogers serves as Baylor's Faculty Representative to the Big 12 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. He has chaired Baylor's professional sports counseling panel for more than a decade and has served on the Waco Big 12 Task Force. Rogers is the son of Bob J. Rogers, who served as head basketball coach of Texas A&M University from 1957 to 1963.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

Ian McCAW

Director of Athletics

Laurentian, 1985

Ian McCaw assumed the leadership of Baylor's 18-sport, Big 12 intercollegiate athletics program on Sept. 8, 2003.

Baylor experienced its most successful intercollegiate athletics year in 2004-05 which included winning the national championship in women's basketball, being national runner-up in men's tennis and finishing third in baseball at the College World Series. Baylor eclipsed the previous school record of two conference championships in one year by winning Big 12 regular season championships in baseball, women's basketball, men's tennis and women's tennis. BU added Big 12 tournament titles in women's basketball and men's tennis. Benedikt Dorsch and Zuzana Zemenova won the NCAA men's and women's singles championships while Darold Williamson won the NCAA title in the 400 meters.

A total of 10 Baylor teams finished the year ranked among the top 25 nationally with a school-record 12 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition. Baylor finished fourth in the Big 12 and 25th nationally in the NACDA Directors' Cup, its highest ranking ever. At the same time, Baylor student-athletes led the Big 12 with a NCAA graduate rate of 78 percent, eight points higher than the school's general student population.

In 2003-04, Baylor had a highly successful year that included winning the first NCAA team championship in school history along with five NCAA individual titles. The men's tennis team captured the NCAA team championship, while Benjamin Becker won the NCAA men's singles title, Jeremy Wariner won the NCAA indoor and outdoor 400 meter title and the 4x400-meter relay team captured the NCAA indoor and outdoor championship.

Baylor had 10 teams advance to 2003-04 NCAA postseason. In the final NACDA Cup rankings, Baylor finished 47th, and seven of its programs were ranked in the nation's top 25 at season's end.

A five-year strategic plan for intercollegiate athletics, Above and Beyond, was developed and implemented inclusive of department goals and objectives. Issues relating to the student-athlete experience, enhanced program competitiveness, equity, diversity, rules compliance, sporting conduct, external support, facility improvements and long-term financial stability were addressed.

An outgrowth of this plan was the creation of the five-year, $90 million development campaign Victory with Integrity which was initiated in February 2005. The campaign addresses annual, endowment and capital fundraising goals including the creation of a basketball practice facility, an equestrian facility, an indoor tennis and multi-purpose facility, an on-campus track and field facility and an on-campus football training center.

A $2 million facility renovation of Floyd Casey Stadium was completed including the Grant Teaff Plaza and Believe Walkway along with the installation of a new synthetic football field surface.

McCaw is Baylor's 12th athletic director and arrived from the University of Massachusetts, where he spent the previous year as director of athletics. McCaw was responsible for a 23-sport program and helped develop and implement a five-year strategic plan for UMass athletics.

McCaw also oversaw a $2 million renovation of the men's and women's basketball and ice hockey locker room facilities at UMass. In McCaw's one season in Amherst, UMass captured Atlantic 10 championships in men's soccer, men's swimming and softball. The Minuteman football team finished among the I-AA top 20, and the men's lacrosse and softball programs advanced to NCAA postseason play.

During McCaw's tenure at UMass, the athletic program developed a new Massachusetts Minuteman identity system and branding initiative that received widespread regional and national support and recognition. The NCAA graduation rate for UMass student-athletes was 71 percent, 12 points higher than that of the school's general student population.

McCaw previously served as director of intercollegiate athletics and campus recreation at Northeastern University from 1997-2002. During his five years at Northeastern, the athletic department benefited from McCaw's reorganization and the recruitment of several key members to the Huskies' staff. A five-year strategic plan for Northeastern athletics inclusive of department goals and objectives was developed and implemented.

Northeastern graduated 65 percent of its student-athletes during McCaw's final year at the Boston institution, 14 points higher than the institutional average. Husky student-athletes also gave back to the community, as each team was required to participate in at least one community service project annually.

The success of the Northeastern athletic program on McCaw's watch extended beyond the classroom, as the program captured a school-record six America East conference titles in 2001-2002, and five teams finished among the nation's top 20. In all, nine different programs captured at least one conference title during McCaw's tenure and five earned at least one NCAA bid.

A $4 million renovation of Northeastern's Cabot Center, which included a refurbishment of the main gymnasium, an expanded speed, strength and conditioning center, a new sports medicine center, expanded and renovated locker rooms, was also completed under McCaw's direction.

Recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics, McCaw was the chairman of the 2002-2003 NCAA Division I men's ice hockey committee. He also served on the Atlantic 10 Football, Hockey East and National Consortium for Academics and Sports executive committees. In addition, McCaw has served on the America East championships, gender equity, men's basketball, sporting conduct and baseball committees.

McCaw went to Northeastern from Tulane University, where he served as senior associate athletic director for development and associate athletic director for external affairs from 1992-1997, being named Tulane's co-interim director of athletics in 1996. Prior to his years at Tulane, McCaw worked in a variety of athletic administrative posts at the University of Maine from 1986 to 1992 including sports information, marketing and external affairs.

McCaw earned his master's degree in sport management from UMass in 1987, after receiving a bachelor's degree in sports administration at Laurentian University in Sudbury, Ontario, in 1985. McCaw and his wife, Heather, are members of First Baptist Church of Woodway and the parents of four children: Christy, Paul, Callie and Corinne. McCaw is a member of the Board of Directors of Live Oak Classical School in Waco.

NCAA COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES

Baylor University is committed to absolute compliance with all NCAA and Big 12 Conference rules and regulations. Institutional control of athletics is a fundamental principle of NCAA legislation. It requires each institution to conduct its intercollegiate athletics programs in accordance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA. This responsibility includes ensuring that coaches, staff, and other groups representing the institution's athletics interests comply with all applicable rules.

As a result, it is important for prospects, fans, and alumni to have some understanding of the principles governing college athletics. Below are a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic boosters.

NCAA DEFINITIONS

REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS (BOOSTER)

A "representative of athletics interests" (booster) is any individual or group that has ever:

- Been a member of an organization promoting Baylor athletics.
- Contributed to the Athletics Department or its booster organizations.
- Assisted in evaluating or recruiting prospective student-athletes.
- Provided benefits (e.g. employment) to prospective student-athletes, enrolled student-athletes or their family members.
- Otherwise promoted the Baylor athletics program.

Keep in mind that it is very easy to meet one or more of these criteria and once you become an athletics representative, you retain this status FOREVER!

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

A "prospect" is a high school student that has started classes for the ninth grade and also any junior college student. A student that has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospect if the student receives any benefits that the institution does not provide to all prospective students in general. An individual remains a prospect until he or she starts classes at Baylor or reports for practice, whichever occurs first.

STUDENT-ATHLETE

A "student-athlete" is a student whose enrollment was solicited by an athletics staff member with the expectation that the student will participate in intercollegiate athletics. A student not solicited by an athletics staff member becomes a student-athlete when he or she joins an intercollegiate team or reports for practice.

RECRUITING

"Recruiting" is any solicitation of a prospect or the prospect's family by an authorized institutional staff member for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment at Baylor and participation in athletics. Athletics representatives may not be involved in the recruitment of prospects except as outlined in the following section.

CONTACT

A "contact" is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletics representative during which any dialogue occurs.

GUIDELINES AND REMINDERS FOR BOOSTERS

- A booster may not contact a prospect, prospect's family, friends, coach or school administrator in an attempt to evaluate or recruit the prospect.
- A booster may not expend funds to entertain or provide transportation for a prospect or the prospect's family or friends.
- A booster may not write, make phone calls, or otherwise communicate with a prospect or the prospect's family or friends for recruiting purposes.
- A booster may not contribute funds to a prospect's high school or club team as a form or recruiting inducement or if solicited to do so by a collegiate coach.
- A booster may attend a prospect's athletic events without contacting the prospect or his/her family.
- A booster may send recommendation letters and newspaper clippings about a prospect in their area to Baylor's coaches.
- A booster may continue a pre-existing relationship with a prospect and his/her family as long as the relationship pre-dated the prospect's recruitment or notoriety as an athlete and the nature of the relationship is not enhanced after their notoriety as an athlete. Such a relationship may not be for recruiting purposes.
- A booster may host a current student-athlete or an entire team in their home for a meal, but only on an occasional basis.
- A booster may provide a job for a student-athlete, but the job responsibilities must be legitimate and the pay commensurate for the task.

GUIDELINES FOR EXTRA BENEFITS

An "extra benefit" is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or athletics representative to provide a prospect, a student-athlete or his or her family with a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Boosters may not provide any special arrangement considered to be an extra benefit. Examples of extra benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Gifts of money, awards or other tangible items.
- Use of vehicles or payment of transportation costs incurred by prospect, prospect's relatives or friends.
- Free or reduced housing arrangements.
- Promise of employment after graduation or employment of prospect's relatives or friends.
- Special discounts or payment arrangements.

RECRUITING GUIDELINES FOR PROSPECTS

LETTERS AND NOTES

Coaches may begin to write notes and letters to prospects beginning September 1 of their junior year in high school (September 15 after sophomore year for men's basketball prospects).

PHONE CALLS

- Prospect Calling: A coach may receive a call initiated by a prospect and paid for by the prospect at any time, including the prospect's freshman or sophomore years. Prospects may call coaches collect or by dialing 800-BAYLORU only after July 1 after their junior year.
- Football: Coaches may call a prospect once in May of their junior year and then begin making regular phone calls September 1 after their junior year. At some times of the year, calls are limited to once per week while at others calls are unlimited.
- Men's Basketball: Coaches may call a prospect once on or after June 15 of his sophomore year until July 31 of his junior year, then two calls beginning August 1 before senior year in high school.
- Women's Basketball: Coaches may call a prospect once in April and once in May of her junior year. Then they may make one call from June 1-20 after junior year and one call June 21-30 of junior year, three calls to a prospect during July following her junior year, and thereafter no more than one call per week.
- Other Sports: Coaches may call a prospect once in March of their junior year, then once per week beginning July 1 after their junior year.

UNOFFICIAL VISITS

There are no limits on the number of unofficial (unpaid) visits to Baylor a prospect may make and no age restriction on who may make unofficial visits. At each unofficial visit, a prospect may receive three (3) complimentary admissions to a home athletic event. No other expenses may be paid by Baylor. At certain times of the year, unofficial visits are prohibited so please coordinate your visit with the coaching staff.

OFFICIAL VISITS

A prospect may only make a total of five official (paid) visits and only one official visit to Baylor. A prospect may not make an official visit until the first day of classes of their senior year (January 1 of junior year for men's basketball prospects). All official visits will be coordinated by the coaching staffs.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE
CELEBRATING ITS 10TH SEASON

The Big 12 celebrates its 10th anniversary season of competition in 2005-06. While there have been many proud accomplishments in the first nine years of the conference, the league and its members are also excited and poised for a bright future.

Over the past nine years, 24 different teams and over 200 individuals have won NCAA Championships. This past season marked the most successful in conference history. Baylor won the crown for women's basketball, becoming the first Big 12 squad to win in that sport. Colorado won both the men's and women's cross country trophies, just the fourth school in NCAA annals to win both in the same year. Oklahoma State regained the top spot in wrestling, winning the national title for the 33rd time. Texas captured its fourth women's outdoor track & field crown, along with its sixth national championship in baseball. A total of 23 individual event titles were also claimed by the Big 12.

Eight football squads have played in BCS bowls in the last six seasons. The Big 12 leads all conferences with four appearances in the National Championship game. In basketball, an unprecedented eight men's and women's basketball teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past four seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Competitive excellence, scholarships and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12's philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and All-Big 12 Academic squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 129 scholars have received more than $680,000 in postgraduate financial aid through the first eight years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 42 million people and more than 18 million television households within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

The Big 12 is under the direction of its third commissioner, Kevin L. Weiberg, who took over the reigns in December 1998. Under Weiberg's guidance, the league distributed over $105 million to its member institutions for the 2004-05 academic year, nearly doubling the first allocation of $54 million in the conference's inaugural 1996-97 campaign.

Weiberg has also helped lead the Big 12 into additional football bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN, FSN, TBS and CSTV.

The Big 12 has its headquarters in Dallas, Texas, where Weiberg and his staff administer to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports.

2004 REVIEW

GAME RECAPS

UAB 56, BAYLOR 14

SEPT. 4 • LEGION FIELD • BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

UAB rushed for 343 yards and built a 35-0 lead by midway through the second quarter en route to a stunning 56-14 victory over Baylor in the season opener for both teams in front of 21,080 fans at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

On the game's fourth play from scrimmage, Dan Burks put the Blazers ahead for good with a 69-yard run through the middle and then down the right sideline. Burks finished with 92 yards rushing on three carries and was one of three UAB runners with at least 69 yards.

Baylor finally cracked the scoreboard late in the second quarter when Dane King found Trent Shelton from 39 yards out on a hitch-and-go route down the left sideline. It was the third of five receptions by Shelton, who finished as Baylor's leading receiver with career highs of five catches and 64 yards receiving, and capped the scoring in the first half.

UAB continued the onslaught with a six-play, 50-yard scoring drive on its first possession of the second half.

Baylor's second score came early in the fourth quarter. Paul Mosley capped a 13-play, 67-yard drive with a 4-yard scamper around the left end. Mosley finished as Baylor's leading rusher with career highs of 46 yards and nine carries. It was his first career touchdown.

UAB quarterback Darrell Hackney finished the game with four touchdowns, three through the air and one on the ground. Hackney, who left the game in the third quarter, was 8-of-16 for 168 yards with one interception.

King finished 18-of-29 for 167 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions in his Baylor debut. Shawn Bell spelled King in the fourth quarter and was 10-of-14 for 61 yards. Baylor's 28 total pass completions was one shy of the school record. The Bears have completed 29 passes in a game three times, the last coming on 46 attempts at Missouri in 2001.

Justin Crooks led the Bears defensively with a career-high tying 10 tackles, six solo and one for a loss. Crooks also forced one fumble. Khari Long had eight tackles and a sack, while Maurice Linguist tallied five tackles, one sack and one interception.

BAYLOR 24, TEXAS STATE 17

SEPT. 11 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Justin Crooks forced Texas State QB Chase Wasson to fumble on a sack and Maurice Linguist pounced on the loose ball with 1:33 remaining in the game as the Bears' defense jump-started and then preserved a 24-17 Baylor victory in the Bears' home opener at Floyd Casey Stadium.

The play was the second big play of the night for Crooks, who put the Bears on the board with a 9-yard fumble return early in the first quarter. It was his first career touchdown and his fourth career fumble recovery. Crooks finished with seven tackles. Montez Murphy, who forced the fumble on which Crooks scored, led the Bears with eight tackles, including two behind the line.

Baylor led 21-3 at halftime, but Texas State made a game of it with 14 third-quarter points. Wasson found K.R. Carpenter on a shallow screen and the latter raced the completion 73 yards to paydirt midway through the third. The Bobcats cut Baylor's lead to four points in the waning seconds of the third when Douglas Sherman scored on a 7-yard scamper.

The Bears added insurance with 5:10 remaining when Kenny Webb split the up-rights from 38 yards. Texas State appeared to have an answer, converting on two consecutive third downs on the ensuing drive. However, on third-and-4, Crooks sacked Wasson 14 yards deep and forced the game-saving fumble.

Dane King finished 16-of-30 for 224 yards and two TDs, connecting with Mike Miller and Marques Roberts. King was intercepted twice.

Baylor was led on the ground by Jonathan Golden, who picked up 56 yards on 17 totes.

Roberts' TD catch with 10 seconds left in the half to gave Baylor a 21-3 lead. The score was set up by a 20-yard completion from King to Dominque Zeigler, who had a career night with five catches for 80 yards.

BAYLOR 37, NORTH TEXAS 14

SEPT. 25 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Dane King threw two touchdown passes in a 42-second span of the fourth quarter to secure Baylor's 37-14 victory over North Texas in front of 33,619 at Floyd Casey Stadium. Baylor scored 23 unanswered points and held the Mean Green scoreless in the second half.

King's 7-yard scoring pass to Dominique Zeigler on the first play of the fourth quarter was quickly followed by a 40-yard TD pass to Marques Roberts with 14:08 left in the game to put the Mean Green away.

King finished 20-of-33 for 213 yards with two TDs and one interception. He also was not sacked and connected with eight different receivers.

North Texas quieted the Baylor crowd on its first possession of the game as Scott Hall connected with Johnny Quinn on a 67-yard scoring strike. Baylor quickly answered with a drive deep into UNT territory, but an interception stopped the Bears' drive at the 11. After three plays and no yards, Baylor forced UNT to punt; it was blocked and recovered in the end zone by Braelon Davis.

The Bears took the lead late in the first quarter on a Paul Mosley 10-yard TD run. However, the lead was short-lived as Jamario Thomas raced 42 yards to pay dirt on the Mean Green's ensuing possession.

A Kenny Webb 45-yard field goal with 5:45 remaining in the second quarter gave the Bears a lead they would never relinquish. Webb tacked on a 37-yarder midway through the third before the two quick scoring strikes put the game away early in the fourth. Webb added a career-best third field goal with 3:47 remaining in the game – this one from 38 yards.

Baylor tallied 371 yards of total offense, including 158 yards on the ground. Mosley led the rushing attack with career highs of 84 yards and 18 carries. Anthony Krieg chipped in with 60 yards on 11 totes.

Roberts and Zeigler caught five passes each for 76 yards and 43 yards, respectively.

Defensively, the Bears tallied 10 tackles behind the line, led by Willie Andrews' three TFLs. Andrews also had two sacks, three quarterback hurries and forced a fumble. Maurice Lane led all players with 13 tackles, his 10th career double-digit tackle game.

North Texas managed just 224 yards of offense, 109 yards of which came on its two scoring plays.

#5 TEXAS 44, BAYLOR 14

OCT. 2 • ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS

Fifth-ranked Texas scored 23 unanswered points in the second quarter to pull away from Baylor and defeat the Bears 44-14 at Royal-Memorial Stadium. It was the Big 12 opener for both teams.

Texas took an early 14-0 lead with touchdowns on each of its first two possessions. Baylor cut into the lead late in the first quarter when Dane King connected with Marques Roberts from 24 yards out for the latter's first of two TD receptions on the day.

The Longhorns quickly answered with a four-play, 70-yard drive that culminated in a 23-yard Tony Jeffery TD run on the first play of the second quarter. On the Bears' ensuing possession, UT's Michael Griffin sliced through the line and blocked a Daniel Sepulveda punt through the back of the end zone for a Longhorn safety. Texas scored twice more in the second and built a 37-7 halftime advantage.

Texas stretched its lead to 44-7 in the final minute of the third quarter on Cedric Benson's third rushing touchdown of the day, a five-yard run off left tackle.

Roberts found the end zone again midway through the fourth quarter, snagging a six-yard TD pass from Shawn Bell. Roberts finished with six catches for 81 yards and two TDs; he matched his career high in receptions.

King completed 18-of-37 passes for 165 yards, one TD and one interception; however, the Baylor signal caller was plagued my numerous dropped passes, including two in the end zone.

Benson finished the game with 188 yards on 34 carries with three TDs. He led a Texas rushing attack that tallied 303 yards on the day.

GAME RECAPS

MISSOURI 30, BAYLOR 10

OCT. 9 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

A sleepy offensive performance spoiled a solid defensive effort as Baylor dropped a 30-10 decision to Missouri at Floyd Casey Stadium. The game was played in damp conditions on FOX Sports Net at 9 p.m.

The Bears' defense played most of the game with its back against the wall. The Tigers' average starting field position was just shy of midfield on their first six possessions with two drives starting inside the Baylor 30. The Bears held Missouri to a pair of field goals through the first five possessions, but a touchdown on the sixth possession gave the Tigers a 13-3 halftime lead. The Bears never again got within 10 points.

Baylor struggled offensively all night, just 2-of-15 on third down conversions. The Bears managed just 10 first downs, 85 yards rushing and 88 yards passing all night. Missouri ran 80 plays on the night, compared to 60 offensive plays for the Bears.

Trailing 6-0 early in the second quarter, Baylor put together an 11-play, 48-yard drive that culminated in a 30-yard Kenny Webb field goal at the 5:05 mark. Missouri had the drive stopped, but Cal Washington roughed Webb on a 52-yard field goal attempt that missed well short. Three plays later, Webb cut the Missouri lead in half.

The Bears' defense held Missouri to a three-and-out on the Tigers' ensuing possession and got great field position at the Baylor 45 yard line following a 28-yard punt. However, on third and 7, Simpson picked a Dane King pass in the flat and nearly returned it for a touchdown before being tackled at the Baylor 9. Two plays later, Brad Smith connected with Martin Rucker from 7 yards out to make it 13-3.

The Tigers added Smith TD passes early in the third and fourth quarters, and Joe Tantarelli tacked on a third field goal just shy of the 13-minute mark in the fourth. Baylor finally found the end zone with 6:42 remaining when backup quarterback Shawn Bell threaded the needle for a 21-yard TD pass to Trent Shelton.

King finished the game 7-of-18 for 31 yards and was intercepted twice. Bell was 8-of-13 for 51 yards and a TD in relief. Paul Mosley led the Bears on the ground, rushing for 58 yards on just six carries.

NEBRASKA 59, BAYLOR 27

OCT. 16 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • LINCOLN, NEB.

What looked like a defensive battle in the first quarter turned into the second-highest-scoring, non-overtime Big 12 game in Baylor history as Nebraska held off a second-half Baylor rally for a 59-27 victory at Memorial Stadium in Lincoln, Neb.

Nebraska scored 24 points in the second quarter, including two touchdowns in the final 81 seconds, to stretch a 7-3 first-quarter lead to a 31-3 advantage at the half. After a Dane King fumble near midfield late in the second quarter, Husker QB Joe Dailey connected with Isaiah Fluellen from 45 yards out on the next play and appeared to put the proverbial nail in the Bears' coffin.

However, Baylor came out strong in the second half, putting together an eight-play, 68-yard drive that culminated in a Paul Mosley 1-yard TD run to open the half. The Bears forced Nebraska into a three-and-out and then marched 64 yards in eight plays, capped by a King to Dominique Zeigler 8-yard TD pass.

Nebraska answered on its next drive as Brandon Jackson capped a five-play, 65-yard drive with a 2-yard plunge. Baylor did not back down, though; the Bears pulled to within 14 points again on their next drive, a 10-play, 82-yard march. King again capped the drive with a TD pass, this time finding Marques Roberts from one yard out.

With that touchdown, the Bears posted three consecutive touchdown drives for the first time in a non-overtime game since their first three possessions of their 1994 game against Texas. Baylor also scored three offensive touchdowns in a quarter for the first time since that Texas game. It was Baylor's highest-scoring quarter on the road since scoring 35 points in the first quarter at San Jose State in 1993.

However, Nebraska's offense proved to be too strong down the stretch as the Huskers out-scored the Bears 21-3 in the fourth quarter.

King finished 23-of-38 for a career-high 281 yards and two TDs with one interception. It was King's third 200-yard passing game in his first season at Baylor, already placing him in an 11th-place tie on Baylor's career chart. Roberts posted career highs with nine receptions and 99 receiving yards.

IOWA STATE 26, BAYLOR 25

OCT. 23 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Stevie Hicks scored on a 5-yard option pitch around right end with 41 seconds remaining as Iowa State broke Baylor's hearts on homecoming 26-25. The TD run capped a 10-play, 80-yard drive, one of three long scoring drives on the day for Iowa State.

Baylor dominated the game statistically, out-gaining the Cyclones 450-257. The Bears held Iowa State to 109 yards rushing and 148 yards passing for Baylor's best defensive effort ever in a Big 12 game.

However, the Bears lost the turnover battle, fumbling five times and losing four of those. Meanwhile, the Cyclones did not committ a turnover. Iowa State had scoring drives of 91 yards, 65 yards and 80 yards. The Cyclones tallied 236 of their 257 yards of offense on those three drives. Baylor held Iowa State to 96 yards in the first half, 91 of which came on a scoring drive.

Tied 7-7, Iowa State took the second-half kickoff and marched 65 yards in eight plays. The drive culminated in a 22-yard Bret Meyer TD pass to Todd Blythe.

Baylor quickly answered with a seven-play, 81-yard drive that ended with a Dane King 16-yard TD pass to Dominique Zeigler. However, Kenny Webb, who had connected on each of the first 42 PAT attempts of his career, hit the right up-right and the score remained 14-13.

Webb righted his ship on the Bears' next drive, nailing an 18-yard field goal from the right hash to put Baylor ahead 16-14. Baylor forced Iowa State to a three-and-out on the Cylcones' ensuing drive.

On the 10th play of the Bears' next drive, Iowa State's Tyson Smith blind-sided Shawn Bell and forced a fumble, which was recovered and returned 65 yards for a TD by Brent Curvey. As quickly as ISU gained the momentum, it went back to the Baylor sideline as Braelon Davis intercepted an Austin Flynn pass on the two-point try and returned it 100 yards for a Baylor defensive PAT.

Two possessions later, the Bears marched 40 yards in seven plays to take the lead. Anthony Krieg capped the drive with a 1-yard TD run.

King finished the day 29-of-37 for 289 yards; he tied the Baylor record for completions in a game and had a personal best in yards, too.

Paul Mosley rushed 20 times for 100 yards.

GAME RECAPS

BAYLOR 35, #16 TEXAS A&M 34

OCT. 30 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Shawn Bell threw a 12-yard TD pass to Dominique Zeigler in overtime and they connected again for the game-winning 2-point conversion, lifting Baylor to a 35-34 upset of 16th-ranked Texas A&M.

The converted 2-point attempt set off a massive celebration as Baylor students and fans flooded the field instantaneously. It was Baylor's first victory over the Aggies since 1985 and snapped a 13-game losing streak in the series, dating back to a 20-20 tie in 1990.

After Texas A&M's Keith Joseph scored on a 16-yard TD run on the first possession of overtime, Bell and Zeigler led the Bears to the stunning finish. Bell completed a pass for no gain on the Bears' first play, Anthony Krieg rushed for 13 yards on second down, and then Bell rolled out to his right before finding Zeigler just inside the goal line.

In a huddle on the raucous sideline, Morriss told the players "Guys, we're going to go for it, is that what you want?," Bell said. "Everybody said, 'Yes, sir.'"

It worked to perfection. Baylor ran the same play again, with Bell scrambling around to his right looking for anyone in a green jersey. He zipped a pass to Zeigler just in front of A&M defensive back Melvin Bullitt for the score, setting off a wild celebration.

Gold and green-clad students stormed the field, quickly taking down the goal posts in the south end zone and carrying them up and out of Floyd Casey Stadium. A&M players and fans watched the improbable scene in utter disbelief: the Aggies had won the last 13 games against their overmatched rival, including a 73-10 rout at College Station last year.

Baylor also ended an 11-game skid in the Big 12 and beat a ranked opponent for the first time since 1998, a 33-30 victory over 20th-ranked North Carolina State.

Bell completed 32 of 50 passes for 262 yards and four TDs, two of which went to Zeigler, who caught 12 passes for 121 yards.

TEXAS TECH 42, BAYLOR 17

NOV. 6 • JONES SBC STADIUM • LUBBOCK, TEXAS

Texas Tech scored on the final play of the first half to take its first lead of the game, and the Red Raiders never looked back en route to a 42-17 victory before a crowd of 53,121 at Jones SBC Stadium in Lubbock.

Sonny Cumbie hit Trey Haverty from three yards out as time expired in the second quarter, pushing the Red Raiders to a 14-10 halftime advantage. That started a 35-point Tech run that included five Cumbie TD passes, including another scoring toss to Haverty of 57 yards late in the third quarter.

Baylor scratched the scoreboard first, striking on the game's third play. On third-and-one from the Tech 29, Shawn Bell tossed a lateral to Trent Shelton on a receiver screen off left end. After tip-toeing the sideline and eluding two would-be tacklers, Shelton cut back across the field and rushed 71 yards for a TD. It was the longest rush of Shelton's career and his first career rushing TD. It also marked the second consecutive season in which Baylor scored in the game's first series against Tech. In 2003, Rashad Armstrong bolted 54 yards on the game's first play from scrimmage.

After the teams exchanged punts, Tech knotted the score with 3:54 remaining in the first quarter when Taurean Henderson capped an 8-play, 80-yard drive with a 2-yard plunge.

Baylor recaptured the lead on its next possession; the Bears put together an 11-play, 67-yard drive but were unable to find the end zone and had to settle for a 30-yard Kenny Webb field goal.

The Bears held Tech on fourth down on the Raiders' next possession. After an exchange of punts, Baylor regained possession at its own 25 with 2:13 remaining in the half. However, the Bears were not able to pick up a first down or run out the clock, and Tech regained possession at its 25 with 1:22 remaining. From there, the Raiders raced 75 yards on eight plays, culminating in the Cumbie-to-Haverty 3-yard TD pass.

Baylor found the end zone again late in the game when Terrance Parks capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with a 5-yard scoring run. Parks was 4-for-4 for 37 yards and 14 yards rushing on the drive.

The Bears out-gained Tech 177-63 in the first quarter. However, the Raiders edged the Bears 501-101 in total offense over the final three quarters.

#25 OKLAHOMA STATE 49, BAYLOR 21

NOV. 13 • BOONE PICKENS STADIUM • STILLWATER, OKLA.

Despite a resurgent Baylor offense in the second half, the Bears could not quell Oklahoma State's big-play offense as the 25th-ranked Cowboys pulled away for a 49-21 victory at Boone Pickens Stadium in Stillwater, Okla.

Baylor trailed 14-0 at halftime; however, the margin could have been much worse. OSU out-gained Baylor 248-100 in the first two quarters. In fact, at one point in the second quarter, the Cowboys had 12 first downs to the Bears' one.

To make matters worse, Baylor starting QB Shawn Bell sustained an injury to his non-throwing (left) hand late in the first quarter. Backup signal caller Terrance Parks, who began the season fourth on Baylor's depth chart, stepped in. Used throughout the season at receiver and for draw plays from the backfield, Parks performed admirably. The redshirt freshman finished 18-of-34 for 261 yards with two TDs and one interception, which came in the last minute of the game.

Oklahoma State scored on its first possession of the second half, stretching its lead to 21-0. Baylor then came to life offensively scoring on its next possession. Parks connected with Paul Mosley on a right-side swing pass, which Mosley took 39 yards for the score.

The Cowboys answered quickly, scoring in just four plays. Early in the fourth, Mosley found the end zone again, this time rushing from five yards out. Baylor stopped the Cowboys on their next possession and had a chance to get back in the game. However, the Bears' drive stalled on an incomplete fourth-down pass from the OSU 45.

Shawn Willis stretched the OSU lead with a 5-yard TD run on the Cowboys' next possession, and OSU then put the game away with Prentis Elliott's 74-yard punt return for a TD. The teams traded scores once more, including a 55-yard Parks TD pass to Trent Shelton.

Baylor racked up 298 yards of offense in the second half and held OSU to 221. Dominique Zeigler led all receivers with seven catches for 71 yards. Mosley led the Bears' ground attack with 66 yards and a TD on 12 carries.

#2 OKLAHOMA 35, BAYLOR 0

NOV. 20 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Adrian Peterson ran for 240 yards, including three second-half touchdowns, and second-ranked Oklahoma defeated Baylor 35-0 before a crowd of 32,182 at Floyd Casey Stadium.

After a slow start, the Sooners scored on four straight possessions. Jason White threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Travis Wilson just before halftime to make it 14-0, and Peterson had short TD runs on the first three drives of the second half.

The Sooners have never lost in 14 games against Baylor, the previous five wins coming by an average margin of 38 points.

White completed 19 of 32 passes for 194 yards and two touchdowns.

Peterson had 83 yards by halftime, and then had a 49-yard carry on the first play of the second half. He added 14 more right after that, then capped the 80-yard, five-play drive with his first touchdown.

Peterson started the next Oklahoma drive with a 14-yard run, and had a 28-yard gain right before he scored from a yard out to make it 28-0.

His last carry was a 2-yard TD run with 11:29 left.

Baylor managed to get into Oklahoma territory only twice before halftime, and was set back by sacks both times.

1974

After an 0-2 start, Baylor pulls off the unthinkable with its first Southwest Conference title in 50 years. The Bears play in the program's first Cotton Bowl.

A young Baylor team loses three games by 10 points or less in a 5-6 campaign. All six Baylor losses were to nationally ranked opponents.

Along with Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech, Baylor leaves the Southwest Conference and joins the newly formed Big 12 Conference.

In a stretch that displayed the strength of the Big 12 Conference, Baylor played the nation's top ranked team twice in a span of three weeks – first facing Nebraska and then Oklahoma.

The Guy Morriss era begins as he is named the program's 24th head coach. In his first season, Baylor upsets two-time defending Big 12 North champion Colorado.

2004

Baylor ends a 20-year drought against Texas A&M, shocking the 16th-ranked Aggies 35-34 in a thrilling overtime affair. The Bears' two-point conversion in the first overtime period was the difference.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Barton KOCH

Barton "Botchey" Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930 he made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1974 after being named to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1967.

James Ray SMITH

Jim Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in 1953 and 1954. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL, Smith has remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

Lawrence ELKINS

In an era when running was considered the only way to pattern an offense, flanker Lawrence Elkins turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in Coach John Bridgers' pro-style attack. Elkins was a two-time consensus All-American (1963-64). In 1963 he set an NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards as the Bears defeated LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame 1993.

Bill GLASS

Bill Glass was a consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. His senior season, 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and a Sugar Bowl victory over the previously undefeated Tennessee Volunteers. He was voted Houston Post SWC Most Valuable Player that year. After a long NFL career, Glass become one of the nation's most noted evangelists. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1985 and two years later went into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Morley JENNINGS

Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 83-60-6 from 1926-40. Ten of Jennings' BU teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-8-1. Among the great players he coached were Barton Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1973.

Mike SINGLETARY

Singletary was the greatest middle linebacker in his era. A three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time unanimous All-American, Singletary also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. During his career with the Chicago Bears, he was named All-Pro 10 times and won the NFL Man of the Year Award, an honor based on the highest standards of play and community involvement. Inducted into both the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame in 1995.

Grant TEAFF

2001 Hall of Fame inductee Grant Teaff became Baylor's winningest coach from 1972-92, compiling a 128-105-6 record and leading the Bears to a pair of Southwest Conference championships and eight bowl games. While posting 12 winning seasons, Teaff also guided six of his Baylor squads to season-ending national rankings. Selected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

Hayden FRY

Hayden Fry was a four-year letterwinner for Baylor, quarterbacking the Bears to Top 20 Associated Press rankings in 1949 and 1950. He made his most-notable mark on the college football world as a coach, spending 20 seasons as the head coach at Iowa. Fry was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2003 and was honored by the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1997.
